Misses Brown and Coltrane Honored at Luncheon

In honor of Miss Alice Brown and Miss Elizabeth Coltrane Mrs. C. W. Byrd and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill entertained at a lovely luncheon today at the home of Mrs. Byrd on Church Street.

In the center of the dining room table was a silver bowl filled with sweet peas shading from white to deep pink and further emphasizing the motif of pink were bowls of pink sweet peas and lady gay roses. Elegant refreshments were served in buffet fashion.

Those invited were Misses Brown, Coltrane, Cora Vaughn, Jenn Coltrane, Mary and Adele Pemberton and Mrs. C. A. Cannon, Mrs. L. D. Coltrane, Mrs. E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., Mrs. A. R. Howard, Mrs. I. I. Davis, Mrs. J. A. Hartsell, Mrs. V. A. Means, Mrs. R. P. Gibson, Mrs. D. L. Bost, Mrs. J. A. Cannon and Mrs. Grace Brown Saunders.

Miss Steva Dodson is Again on Way to Beloved China

Kinston, May 23.—Miss Steva Dodson is again on the way to her beloved China. Her stay there will be brief this time, it is understood. She is going to witness the fulfillment of great hopes. She will land at Shanghai in a few days, and attend exercises dedicating St. Mary's school at "Jessfield," scene of her missionary labors for many years.

Miss Dodson returned to this country from the Orient a year or two ago, pensioned by the Episcopal church. She had worked in China 32 years as a missionary and church teacher, giving the best of her life to the cause she represented. She became one of the best known missionaries in the country. The mission organization of her denomination has ordered her back to "the field" once more, to witness the dedication of St. Mary's and the consummation of one of the things toward which she labored.

Miss Dodson is accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary Dodson, who is taking the trip "just to be going" and share the ex-missionary's pleasure.

Wins High Honor

The relatives and friends of Rev. Taos E. Winecoff, will be pleased to learn that in a recent sermon contest in which the justices of the Supreme Court of Wyoming acted as the judges, Mr. Winecoff was awarded the cash prize as the author of the best sermon in the state. The prize was large enough to give Mr. Winecoff and his family a nice outing this summer.

Mr. Winecoff is well remembered here by the older citizens. He is a son of the late James B. Winecoff, who lived on the Kannapolis road. Mr. Winecoff was graduated at Davidson with the highest honor of his class. He delivered an address here in 1919 on the occasion of the great Soldiers' Home Coming celebration.

Rowan Sends Clothing to Near East Victims

Salisbury, May 21.—Rowan county donated 2,900 pounds of old clothing for the near east sufferers, according to P. A. Wallenborn, county chairman, who has sent the clothing to Raleigh headquarters. This is considerably more than was contributed by the county last year.

Mr. Isehour Entertains

On Monday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock at the ice cream parlors of B. L. Roberts on Buffalo Street, Mr. C. A. Isehour entertained his Sunday school class of Calvary Lutheran Church together with other invited guests numbering in all thirty-three. After the guests had assembled prayer was offered by the pastor. Ice cream was then served. The time was very pleasantly spent in general conversation and in playing many popular indoor and outdoor games. At 10 o'clock the guests departed with the feeling that Mr. Isehour was a good host and with a feeling of gratitude to him for his kind hospitality to his guests.

Mrs. Garrison to Compliment Miss Coltrane

Miss Coltrane and Brown Honored at Reception

Complimenting Miss Elizabeth Coltrane and Alice Brown Mrs. Grady Gibson and Miss Frances Ridenhour entertained at a beautiful reception Tuesday afternoon at their home on West Depot Street.

Greeting the callers as they arrived were Mrs. C. B. Wagoner and Miss Nell Herring.

Mrs. C. A. Cannon welcomed the guests in the hall and directed them to the receiving line in the living room.

Mrs. Gibson received her guests in a gown of pearl gray crepe. Miss Coltrane wore a frock of yellow georgette, with a picture hat of black lace. Miss Brown was attired in lavender organdie, with pink picture hat, while Miss Ridenhour wore a gown of green lace, and a corsage of sweet peas.

Assisting in receiving were Miss Cora Vaughn, guest of Miss Coltrane, wearing lavender taffeta, with a hat of leghorn. Mrs. E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., gowned in henna lace and Mrs. Colb Morris, guest of Miss Miriam Morris, who wore a gown of white georgette, beaded in crystals and pearls.

Madeira cloth and in the center was a silver basket filled with pink sweet peas.

Assisting in the dining room were Misses Mary Pemberton, Margaret Bell, Margaret Virginia Ervin, and Lucy Richmond Lentz.

Miss Miriam Morris directed the callers into the den where punch was served by Mrs. J. H. Mewborne, Mrs. Kenneth Caldwell and Miss Adele Pemberton.

Each guest on leaving was presented with a lovely pansy by Mrs. Gales Pickard.

Miss Isabelle Montgomery, of Atlanta, Honored

Charlotte friends of Miss Isabelle Montgomery, lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brevard Montgomery, of Atlanta, will be very glad to hear of an honor which has come to her recently. The Atlanta Constitution of several days ago carried a splendid picture of her, with below it the following inscription:

"Miss Isabelle Montgomery, who has been chosen May queen by the Uncle Remus Memorial Association for the annual May fete which will be held at Snap Bean farm Saturday, May 26, at 4 o'clock.

"Little Miss Montgomery is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brevard Montgomery, of West End, and is a great granddaughter of A. R. Davidson, of Charlotte, N. C., one of the founders of and for whom Davidson College, at Davidson, N. C., is named.

"She is also a descendant of General Stonewall Jackson."

Mrs. Charles G. Montgomery, of Charlotte, grandmother of Miss Montgomery, leaves tomorrow morning for Atlanta to visit Mr. and Mrs. Brevard Montgomery, and to see her granddaughter act as May queen.

Mrs. Montgomery will visit friends at various points in Georgia and Alabama, before going to Augusta, Ga., where, in the future, she will make her home. For the past four years, she has resided in this city.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN WIN IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Get Right to Sit on Committee By 140 to 49 Vote.

Montreal, May 23.—Women today won the right of representation on executive committees of the general assembly of the southern Presbyterian church by the overwhelming vote of 140 to 49.

Advocates of the minority report, favoring the granting of the overture of St. John's Presbytery, Florida, presenting the women's request, drove supporters of the majority statement into an admission of defeat before the vote was taken, when Dr. R. C. Reed, Columbia, S. C., former moderator and chairman of the committee on bills and overtures, asserted on the floor that he realized his position was lost.

Vision is seeing what others do not see, seeing further than others see, serving before they see.—John R. Mott.
