STORES TO THE STORES

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT

Miss Bonnie Misenheimer Becomes the be at home in Charlotte. Bride of Mr. J. D. Miller.

white and green, chrysanthemums, Out-of-town guests for the heimer played Souvenir, by Drehl, and Louis XVI, by Ghys, and accompanied Miss Stirewalt in her charming rendition of two weddings songs, "At Dawning" and "Constancy."

To the strains of Lohengrin the bridal procession entered. First came the bridesmaids, Misses Mildred Barrier and Mary Peck, lovely in frocks of two-tone satin of blue and of rose, and carrying huge bouquets of yellow chrysanthelnums. They were followed by the groosmen Messrs. Todd Misenheimer, James Misenheimer, Joe Banks McAllister and Clinton Smithdeal, in conventional even-

Elizabeth Kate McAllister, dainty in ruf fled white organdy and carrying the ring Charlotte Observer.

Preceding the bride and groom were the flower girls, little Misses Genevieve and Virginia McAllister, in attractive A few members of the Choral Society frocks of pink and of blue organdy, who met last evening at the Y. M. C. A. for from Dresden baskets scattered rose the purpose of re-organizing the club-petals dawn the aisles. Officers were elected as follows: The bride enetered with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Misenheimer, who was handsomely gowned in cream colored lace with orchid trimmings.

Radiantly lovely was the bride in her wedding gown of white brocaded satin with trimmings of pearls and real lace carrying an exquisite shower bouquet. The groom entered with the best man.

Mr. William Creswell, of Mooresville. While the strains of Hearts and Flow ers sounded very softly from the organ, the ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. C. L. T. Fisher, pas tor of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. H. C. Fisher. As a part of the ceremony, Miss Stirewalt sweetly sang the wedding hymn, 'O Perfect Love," The wedding Mr. and Mrs. Means, party left the allar to the joyour strains of the Mendelssohn march

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for Asheville, where they will spend several days before going to their Elizabeth Harris, bride-elect, and Miss son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, of end here as Miss Lois Crowell's guest Dalton, and is a prominent merchant in ness along life's pathway.

well, of Mooresville: Miss Ada Stire o'clock in the evening, at St. Phillip's walt and Dr. H. A. Stirewalt, of Chine Episcopal Church, in Durham, the Rev. Grove; Miss Pearle Shaeffer, of Kan- S. S. Bost officiating. napolis: Misses Blondie Shaw and Mary McKinley, Dr. R. M. Patterson, Mrs. A. her uncle, Mr. C. M. Carr. S. Dayvault, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Moore.

Following the rehearsal Monday even- Miss Marjorie Bird, of Prantile, N. Y. ing the bridal party was tendered a delightful reception by the bride's mother. The unusually large and handsome display of wedding gifts attested the popularity of the couple.

an elegant course dinner Tuesday. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Miller was son, Mr. A. J. Milstead, Mr. R. S. Lang. the honoree at a number of delightful social functions, the first of which was the ceremony to be given at the home of an announcement party given by Mrs. the bride's mother, Mrs. Julian Carr, Jr. John B. McAllister. Following that, a kitchen shower was given her by Mrs. on the S. S. Berengaria on November 6, George F. McAllister, and miscellaneous and will tour southern France and other showers by Misses Helen Misenheimer and Mary Peck, by Mrs. N. B. McCanless and by the Luther League. At all of these affairs there were clever abundant "showers" for the popular bride-elect. Hutchinson-Benfield.

A quiet but beautiful wedding was that of Miss Bertie Benfield and Mr. J. Thomas Hutchinson, which was solemnized Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Benfield, 71 W. Academy St. Only relatives and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which W. C. Wauchope, of the Second Presbyterian Church. Miss Joe Hutchinson of Greenville, S. C., sister of the groom, rendered an ar-Concord with slides showing pictures of tistic program of music appropriate to art for the benefit and pleasure most es-from Lohengrin as processional. The living room was artistically decorated with baskets of white chrysanthe-man's Club is "Art for everyone and not mums and garnet dahlias and lighted on for the talented few." ly by candles. The bride was gowned in Misses Margaret Bell and Janie Kluttz a lovely brown crepe back satin, combin-served dainty refreshments after the proed with beaver trimmings. Her corsage gramme.

was of bride roses and valley lilies. Following the ceremony, Miss Stella Benfield, sister of the bride, Miss WinMr. and Mrs. Hutchinson then Pleasant, Oct. 24.—Holy Trinity Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Benfield, and is an ening, October 19th, Rev. E. K. F. Roof Lutheran Church was the scene of a alumnae of the North Carolina College officiating. It was a very quite affair, beautiful wedding Tuesday evening when for Women, Greensboro. Mr. Hutchin-Miss Bonnie Misenheimer plighted her son is the son of Mr. T. W. Hutchinson, troth to Mr. James DeWitt Miller, of of Newberry, S. C. He now holds a The church was artistically decorated Power Co., of Charlotte.

ferns and English ivy being used in pro- were: Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Blackwelder, The candle lighted chancel was Charlotte; Hrs. H. M. Hayes, Charlotte, a beautiful setting for the lovely wedding Miss Johnnie Dixon, Shelby, Miss Georroup.

Prior to the ceremony a delightful lins, Asheville, Miss Isleanor Collins, Asheville, Miss Josie Hutchinson, musical program was rendered by Miss Greenville, S. C., Misses Winnie and Or-Helen Misenheimer, director of music of pah Griffin, Charlotte, Dr. Geo. K. Hut-Mont Amoena Seminary, and Miss Ada chinson, Newberry, S. C., Mr. Reece Ivey, Stirewalt, teacher of music, of China Charlotte, Mr. Roy Langsdon, Charlotte, Grove, With artistic skill Miss Misen- Cards reading as follows have been is-

> Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Benfield announce the marriage of their daughter Bertie Irene

Mr. John Thomas Hutchinson on Wednesday the twentyfourth · of October. one thousand nine hundred and twenty three Concord, N. C Accompanying card reads: Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Hutchinson Jefferson Apartments Charlotte, N. C.

Then entered the petite ring bearer; Charlotte People to Attend Concord Wedding.

in the heart of a huge golden chrysan- Mr. and Mrs. Craighead Davidson and themum. Following her was the maid Mrs. E. C. Register will motor to Con-of honor. Miss Billy Misenheimer, sister cord Saturday to attend the wedding of of the bride. Miss Misenheimer was Miss Eizabeth Potter Harris and Mr handsome in a gown of rose-pink satin. James Stanton Northrup, of New York. trimmed in lace, and carried a sheath of which will take place that evening at? o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church.

Choral Ciub Re-Oorganized.

President-Mrs. R. P. Gibson. Vice President-Rev. W. C. Wanchope Secretary and Treasurer-Ben White. Librarian-S. Kay Patterson, Director-Price Doyle

The club officers state that they fee especially fortunate in securing Mr the corenal veit of point d'esprit with Doyle as director, and plans are now on trimmings of pearls and real lace, and foot for several concerts to be given during the Winter.

> Will Entertain For Bridal Party. Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Means will entertain this evening at their home on North Union Street in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harris and Mr. Stanton North rup, who will be married Saturday even Members of the bridal party and Misses Ruth and Lois Crowell will entertain tomorrow afternoon at their home Mr. Miller is the Alice Scilly, who will spend the week

Carr-Howell Wedding Plans. Mrs. Miller, the eldest daughter of Concord society will be interested to Mrs. Sarah Misenheimer, is a blond of read the following article from the Atunusual beauty. Her intellectuality. lanta Journal of Sunday, telling of the sweet disposition and attractive person- wedding plans of Miss Margaret Louise ality have won for her a host of sincere Carr and Mr. Clark Howell, Jr. Miss friends who wish for her all true happi- Carr has frequently visited here as the lovely guest of her grandmother, Mrs.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the wedding were: Dr. C. A. Misenheimer, Mr. Todd Misenheimer. Mr. Carr, of Durham, N. C., and Mr. Clark J. C. Squire and Mrs. J. C. McDow, of Howell, Jr., of Atlanta, which will be Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B, one of the outstanding events of the aut Smithdeal, Mr. James Misenheimer and umn season of greatest social importance Mr. Joe Banks McAllister, of Winston-throughout the entire south, will be sol Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Williams Crestemnized Saturday, November 3, at

Miss Carr will be given in marriage by

The maids of honor will be Miss Nancy and Mr. and Mrs. Ray McEachern, of Carr, and Miss Martha Boynton, of At Concord; and Mrs. Don McManus, of lanta, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Matilda Bryant, Miss Mable D. Goodall. The extremely inclement weather pre- Miss Valida Hill, all of Durham, N. C. vented the attendance of many other Miss Kitty Brewitt, Lexington, Ky. Miss Marjorie Bird, of Plainfield, N. J.

> Little Mary Ann Carr will be ring bearer and the pages will be Julian Carr III and Claiborne Carr, Jr. The groomsmen will be Mr. H. Comer

Howell, best man: Mr. Albert Howell. Mrs. D. D. Barrier, aunt of the bride, Jr., Mr. Hollis Lanier, of Americus; Mr. entertained the entire wedding party at George B. Barrett, Mr. E. H. Foreman, Mr. Robert L. Foreman, Mr. W. A. Raw-

There will be a small reception after The bridal couple will said for Europe countries.

Down to Work. The literature department of the Wo-"stunts," delicious refreshments, and most man's Club held its initial meeting at the home of the president, Miss Margaret Bell, Tuesday evening.

The following programme was render-Reading: "Art in the South"-Mrs. J.

P. Cook. Paper: "Copley's Career as an Artist" -Miss Clara Harris.

Reading from Ruskin, with a sketch of Ruskin's life-Mrs. Hinton McLeod. All proved instructive and entertaining was performed by the bride's pastor. Rev. those who wished to be better informed on the subject of art and the artist.

After much discussion it was decided to make an effort to bring a lecturer to the occasion, using the beidal chorus pecially of the school children of the city, thereby showing that the aim of the department of Literature of the Wo-

Rhyne-Bost.

On October 20th, 1923, at 8 o'clock nie Griffin, Charlotte, N. C., Miss Joe p. m., Mr. Brevard A. Bost, of Kannap-officiating. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. For the present they will make their nome in Kannapolis. The bride and groom are both splendid young people, and their many friends wish for them a long, happy and pros-perous life. X. perous life.

Teeter-Richardson.

A wedding which came as a surpris MT. PLEASANT TUESDAY left for a bridal trip to Washington and to the little town of Rockwell was that of New York. Upon their return they will Zebulon Teeter and Miss Alma Vernor Richardson, which was solemnized at The bride is the second daughter of the Lutheran parsonage on Friday ev-

> Miss Elizabeth Morris sang "Sunshine of Your Smile" by Ray, and "I Love You Truly," by Bend, Mrs. Roof at the At the conclusion of the solo piano. Mrs. Roof played Lohengrin's wedding march as the couple approached the beau tifully arranged altar and during th ceremony, the ring ceremony being used played "Beautiful Thoughts of Love. After the ceremony Mrs. Roof served a delicious salad course with hot choc-

Mrs. Teeter is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Richardson, of Whitney, Fla. She is a graduate of the Leesburg High School, Leesburg, Fla., and a graduate in music from the Florida State College for Women. She well High School.

Mr. Teeter is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Teeter, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C. He is a graduate of Trinity College. Durham, class of 1922. Mr. Teeter was a former teacher in the Jackson Training School, of Concord, and is now principal of the Rockwell High School. Mr. and Mrs. Teeter are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bost. They will visit in Florida during the Christmas holidays.

Bridge For Miss Nelle Harry, Bride-Elect.

A most attractive party was given by Miss Elizabeth Dick Saturday afternoon at her home on North Union Street, in honor of Miss Nelle Harry, whose Charlotte, took place Monday evening.

The home was beautifully arranged for the occasion with fall flowers. Miss Dick's guests were: Miss Harry. Mrs. J. H. Black, Mrs. R. V. Campbell. Morrison of North Carolina and Miss Mary Elizabeth Wearn of Charmained on duty for 10 days before orde Harris, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Harris, iMss Mary Fisher, Mrs. James Lee Crowell.

Jr., Miss Addie Sue Harry, Miss Bertie
Louise Willeford, iMss. Laura, Gillon,
Miss Mary Crowell and Mrs. Ben Teeter.

Const. Convening here today. Miss Dick presented Miss Harry with guest of honor prize, and also gave another bride-elect. The prize for the top score was won by Miss Harry. At the conclusion of the game Mis Dick, assisted by Miss Fisher and Mrs. Teeter, served a delicious salad course.

PERSONALS.

Miss Jenn Coltrane has returned from trip to Philadelphia, Washington and Coltrane attended a week-end house party given by Mrs. W. N. Reynolds, college after spending the week-end here. with home folks.

with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Bost.

Miss Ethel Honeycutt has returned to From the Spruce Pine section many

Mr. Joe Glass left Tuesday on a other points in South Carolina. Messrs Karl Broome, of Hickory, and

nesday here on business.

ed to Greensboro, after spending the miles from Spruce Pine. Some negroes. week-end here with relatives.

Mr. Arthur Faggart has returned from 150 and 200 who were employed at the State University. Mr. Faggart was mining and road construction camps. forced, to give up his work during the were marched down o the railroad stapresent quarter due to ill health, and he tion at Spruce Pine at the point plans to return to the University later. guns, placed aboard freight trains and Messrs, J. G. Parks and D. B. Morriville and Charlotte. (They were accomn Chester, S. C.

Rev. J. A. Baird ,of Kannapolis, is spending several days in Chester with have been the woman's assailant, Mrs. Baird, who has been there with relatives for several days,

The tongue of a 70-foot whale has been known to yield as much as a ton of reported to have attacked her.

Mr. Stanton Northrup, who on Saturday evening will be wedded to Miss Eliz-abeth Harris, arrived in Concord this morning. He was accompanied by his best man and several groomsmen best man and several groomsmen.

from Salem College to spend several days negro laborers. The troops then were with home folks. Miss Alice Scilly will withdrawn. arrive tomorrow to spend the remainder of the week with Miss Crowell.

Mrs. T. C. Thompson and Miss Bessie Thompson, of Birmingham, will arrive tomorrow to attend the Northrup-Harris under bonds on charges in connection wedding. They will be the guests of with the forced deportation of negroes of the Stoney Hill Church section, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sauvain while in fromthe county. Trial of these men is the city.

S. C., is spending the day here on busi- posed of.

Mrs. J. B. Sherrill and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill are spending the day in Charlotte, attending a party being given for Mrs. E. C. Register.

Mr. Cyrus White, of the Belk Store at Spartanburg, spent yesterday here on dogs is an expression more picturesque definitely by the Hope company and business.

Mrs. D. B. Porter has returned from frogs there yesterday. a visit with relatives in Asheville and Mrs. J. A. Cannon and guest, Mrs.

DIE NOVEMBER 30TH

Negro Charged With Attack man walking bare-footed in the parade. On Aged White Woman Was Found Guilty Monday

NO ATTEMPT TO

Everything in Bakersville Was Quiet During Trial Norcott-Brown Mill, $35,00 school supand Soldiers on Duty Had Nothing Special To Do.

Johnson City, Tenn., Oct. 23 .- A long distance telephone message from Bakersville, N. C., this afternoon is to the effect that John Goss, negro, cons director of school music in the Rock- victed there yesterday on a charge of attacking an aged white woman at Spruce Pine several weeks ago, left there under special guard of soldiers and a deputy sheriff for Raleigh where he will be confined in the State penitentiary. Goss was sentenced to death by electrocution on November 30th, 1923.

According to a message from Bakersville the town is quiet and no signs of any demonstration against the negro were shown. Court adjourned this morning.

Bakersville, Oct. 22 .- John Gause, court this morning on a charge of attacking a wmite woman, was found guilty after five minutes' deliberation by the jury and was sentenced to death by electrocution November 30, 1923.

The attack on the woman precipimarriage to Mr. Louis Orr Stephens, of tated a racial disturbance at Spruce Pine, N. C., last month and about 200-Welch, negroes were deported from the town and its vicinity by the white citizens. Troops were ordered there by Governor otte, guest of the honoree, Mrs. B. F. had been restored but only a few of the negroes returned to their jobs.

court convening here today.

The courtroom was packed, numberan honor prize to Miss Elizabeth Harris, from the Spruce Pine section. Judge Finley appointed D. J. B'ack, local attorney, to defend Gause. The negro was brought from Raleigh to the Mitchell county jail here yesterday for trial to-day. He was escorted by a company of national guardsmen from North Wilkes boro, commanded by Maj. E. P. Robin-

The trial of 11 persons, including a Winston-Salem. In the latter city Miss minister, of the Sruce Pine section or charges of conspiracy in connection deportation of with the wholesale idson College, spent the week-end here McMann, Rev. Moston Buchanan. Ander Green, Lane Buchanan and Robey Buchanan.

Charlotte after spending the week-end persons came to Bakersville yesterday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel to attend court. Others arrived today. The series of happenings following Gause's alleged attack on the aged white woman near Spruce Spine were unprebusiness trip to Rock Hill, Columbia and cedented in this county. When news spread through he hills and valleys that a white woman had been attacked a mob. Marlin Brumley, of Newton, spent Wed- of men said to number over 100 congregated and immediately proceeded to rid the county of negroes all except those Mr. and Mrs. Joe Michael have return- in the State convict camp about six it was reported, left of their own accord but the great majority of them, between sent out of the mountains. In the meantime a band of son spent Tuesday afternoon in Moores- among them several sons of the woman reported to have been attacked, had panied by Mr. Kluttz, of the Belk Store started on a search that lead them over the mountains night and day until the negro John Gause, alleged to have been the woman's assailant, was

The negro was sent to Raleigh in mediately and placed in State's priso Mr. W. E. Gallant, of Anderson, S. for safekeeping. Several days later the , was a business visitor in Concord Mitchell County woman, accompanied by her husband and a deputy sheriff, went to Raleigh, where the identified Gause as the negro who was

Troops were sent to Spruce Pine by order of the Covernor when he learnand in the mines, which suspended Miss Lois Crowell arrived last night activities with the sending away of the

As a climax before the final climax, which is expected to come with the negro's trial, a group of men, one of them said to be a minister, were arrested in and about Spruce Pine and placed expected to take place at the special 11 years. term of court beginning tomorrow after Mr. Vernon Brumley, of Greenville, the case of John Gause has been dis-

> FRENCH VHLAGE AMAZED AS FROGS RAIN UPON IT Fall in Myriads During Storm and

> Reads Are Obstructed. Paris, Oct. 25 .- If raining cats and

During a heavy rainstorm they say a visit with relatives in Asheville and Black Mountain. She was accompanied home by her son, Mr. Clifford Pornied home by her son, Mr. Clifford Po structed, and even the houses were invaded. Scientists are gravely proposing the-Hutchinson, of Greenville, S. C., and Hutchinson, of Greenville, S. C., and Hutchinson, of Greenville, S. C., and Miss Margaret Rhyne, of China Will Hill, of Danville, Va., and Mrs. Jories to explain now the Grove, were married at the Lutheran partie. P. Gibson are spending the day in lifted from ponds by a hurricane and the concert given at Central School a flung to earth again in torrepts.

PRIZE WINNERS IN FAIR YARADE ARE ANNOUNCED

Judges Award All Prizes But One, No Persons Contesting for Shoes Given by Richmond-Flowe Company.

itive Baptist Church on Friday night. Judges appointed to award prizes for contestants in the parade held on the opening day of the Cabarrus County The service will be conducted by J. M. have submitted their report Prizes were awarded in each of the 11 contests eccept one there being on one com peting for the pair of shoes offered by the Richmond-Flowe Company to the The prizes and winners were an ounced as follows:

First prize-Best decorated farm float parade-David Lippard, Millingport, After Trial of Few Hours. $50.00 paid by Cabarrus County Fair Association.

TTEMPT TO

Second prize—Best Decorated Private When a jar or shock Farm Float—H. W. Harkey, Gold Hill, lodged a large piece.

25.00 in cash paid by Cabarrus County

Mary Fugenia den Fair Association

> Third Prize-Greatest Number of plies given by Parks-Belk Company. Fourth prize-Greatest number of any individual family riding in Ford car, given by R. M. Housel, Kannapolis. Winner's name not known, car number 134,

Fifth Prize-Fattest Woman of any age riding in Ford car; given by Cabarrus Motor Co., won by lady name unknown. Prize $20 in accessories. Sixth prize-Best looking unmarried ouple riding in Studebaker-Won by Hugh Broom and Miss Bertie Louise Willeford. Given by Auto Supply and Repair

Co. Prize $25 bumpers. family riding in Buick car:-Given by Standard Buick Co. Won by Mrs. Arch White. Prize $25 in accessories.

Eighth prize-Most tastily decorated closed Essex, Hudson or Willys-Knight. Given by Concord Motor Co. Won by negro, who went on trial in Mitchell Mrs. W. A. Foil. Prize $25 in access Ninth prize. No contestants.

Tenth prize—Given by Efird's Department Store. Won by G. A. Winecoff. Prize $25 suit. Eleventh prize-Best clown in parade. Given by H. G. Ritz. Won by "Jack"

Ships With Glass Bottoms, London, Oct. 23 .- An invention has been brought out by a British pilot which it is claimed will have the effect aground in shallow water or in fog. In light on to the bed of the ocean. Above ders. the window is a gate valve which, if the glass should get broken; could be closed instantly to prevent flooding. Towards the bow of the ship is a gunnetal chamber open to the sea at the bottom, containing a tube which can be moved from the inside. This tube is lirected on to the point of light cast by and the angle it has to make a hit this pot is recorded. Given the exact distance glong the the tube has to make with the ship (the aged several weeks ago when a small Miss Jamie Lee has returned to Charotte to resume her studies in a business college after spending the week-end here with home folks.

Mr. Peter Boger Bost, student at Daydeep College graves age when a small because of the largest in The body of Mrs. Kellersberger will be searchlight shines at a right angle) a simple calculation will work out the length of the searchlight's beam. And against the window when the car started.

The defendants are Stokes McKinney, buried here. Just when the body will so the captain knows the precise depth of water in which he is sailing. When perfected, this new depth finder is exdeep College graves ago when a small brought to Concord for burial lier mother, who died several years ago is the captain knows the precise depth of water in which he is sailing. When perfected, this new depth finder is exwith interest by many people. mected to eliminate the difficulties of sounding, and will tell the captain his depth in any condition of westlar.

Norfolk Southern is Adding to Equipment. Pinchurst, October 24.-- A Norfolk Southern man looking over the situation in Moore county says of his road that ix new freight engines have recently been added to the rolling tock, and about 25 per cent of the freight cars have been practically rebuilt, most of hem with new steel underframes. Largr amounts have been allowed for maintenance, with the prospects of increased sums for the rest of the year. September evenue from operation exceeded that of the same time last year by $50,000. ind the traffic is of such magnitude 'hat the increase will probably run this way until spring. Loaded cars moving are about 11 per cent in excess of the ame time last year. The price of cot- yesterday in their annual football game. DIRECTOR HINES SHOWS ton is hurrying the crop to market as The game was played in Columbia at the fast as ginned. Road work is going on South Carolina State Fair. Nick Sapon a broader scale than a year ago. The penfield, of this city, played part of the rack is getting in much better shape to game for Davidson and his playing was handle the increasing business. Crop given as one of the features of the Presmovements on the road are entirely sate byterian's play. Davidson was unable sfactory. Road building material is a to do anything with Furman's line while big item in the freight of the Norfolk Furman gained almost at will against the Southern at the present time, with Davidson line. promise of continuing that way. Heavier rail is going down in places, with re newal of ties as fast as possible. The general condition of the road is much mproving.

Death in Her 90th Year.

Albemarle Press. Mrs. Frances Adeline Blalock, reliet of the late Z. D. Blalock, who died July night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Show also are shown in the window. W. B. Hinson, on East Main Street. She had been gradually paying the toll of mature age, and death came as no surprise. She was in her 90th year, having passed the 89th milepost in June. ceased has 54 grandchildren and 71 greatgrandchildren.

Zion. She was a woman of gentle bearing, and all who knew her loved her. She was one of the best known women joined that church at the early age of

Thrown Out of Job. thrown out of employment today by the announced decision of the Hope Webbcompany to curtail production. About kept the watch wound up and the watch 700 of the workers were laid off indefinitely by the Hope company and the years." Notices posted today explained that

The War Mothers took in $342.00 on sales at the recent Fair, and $75.00 from day by Register of Deeds Eliott to the following couples: J. D. Faggart and Miss Gertrude E. Kirby, both of Cabarrus; and J. T. Hutchison and Miss Bertie Benfield, both of Charlotte.

Marriage licenses were issued yester-

LOCAL MENTION

We have been requested to announce that there will be preaching at the Prim-

A large piece of the glass in the front of the offices of the Southern Loan and Trust Company fell out yesterday. The glass has been cracked for several months. but none of it fell out until yesterday when a jar or shock of some kind dis

Mary Eugenia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brumley, celebrated her eighth birthday Tuesday affernoon. October 23rd, from 3:30 to 5:30 by entertaining a number of her little friends. Many interesting games were played, after which refreshments were served.

One case only was definitely decided in Superior Court yesterday, that being the case of Walker vs. Starnes. The jury Kellersberger, thirty years old, we brought in a verdict in favor of the plain-At the conclusion of this case father, Phillips Bosche, on court started on the case of Concord Na- Kopperl, Bosque County, Tuesday, Sh

Mr. R. L. Dick was carried to a Charlotte Hospital last night for treatment. him Mrs. Kellersberger was killed, wher Seventh prize-Most pleased looking Mr. Dick became ill while working in Kannapolis yesterday and as his condiition did not improve during the day he was rushed to Charlotte last night. Bosche left Dallas Monday to go Friends who accompanied Mr. Dick to Charlotte state that physicians there consider his condition as critical.

> The Reformation Rally service will be held in St. Johns Church, in this county, Sunday, October 28th, at 3 p. m. A number of short talks will be made. Music will be furnished by the St. John's The people of this community are most heartily invited to attend These services have become a large factor in the life of this community.

Only one defendant was tried in recorder's court yesterday, the defendant being charged with abandonment. The defendant was sentenced to of lessening the risk of a vessel running months on the chain gang, but sentence was suspended upon condition that the the bottom of the ship is a small win- defendant live with and support his famdow of very thick glass, through which ily and appear in court for six months a searchlight throws a strong beam of and show that he is carrying out his or-

W. M. Sherrill yesterday defeated J. C. Walton in their match in the golf tournament of the Cabarrus County Club. Sherrill won 3 up, playing a consistent Walton steadied after the first game. round, displaying a good brand of golf. Other matches in the tournament probthe searchlight on the bed of the sea, ably will be played this week, and the second round of play will begin next

A new plate glass has been placed in ship's keel between the searchi'ght win- the front of the Concord Public Library. low and this tube, plus the angle which The old glass in the building was dan-

> A number of prominent negroes of the county will are working for the county will are working for the county will are working for the county shocked. Possessing a love people's fair stated this morning that they are getting everything in shape for that made suffering in the wilds of Afrithe big event. A large number of per- ca a pleasure to her so long as she

> Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Biles returned yesterday to their home in Joneshoro. Ill., after having spent a month here visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Biles visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Biles, forts and pleasures that awaited her her who is a brother of Mrs. M. J. Blackwelder and Mrs. H. M. Goodman, left here fifty three years ago and this is his first visit to North Carolina since leaving. He was very much impressed with the progress of North Carolina. with the progress of North Carolina.

Furman defeated Davidson 30 to 0

Cline's Pharmacy is new showing several pictures taken last week during the plans for a hospital at Livermore. Cabarrus County of the description of the county of the description of the county of the count Cabarrus County Fair. The pictures and then found that the drawing have created much interest, several of them showing race horses in action and others showing the grandstand packed to capacity while the races were being run. The pictures are on display in one of the show windows of Cline's. Pictures 1915, passed quietly away Sunday of several babies in the Legion Baby

"It seems that people will not comply with the law about sprinkling the side- that these plans were followed close walk before sweeping," a Concord man in the drawings he later submitted for stated this morning after walking from Livermore. It is of interest to note that the de- the square to the postoffice in much dust created by persons cleaning off the side- Miner Strikes Out Mighty Babe Twice walks in front of their places of business. The city law, it was pointed out, came to Hazelton Monday states that sidewalks must be sprinkled ball game. It as made a holid before swept, and if this was done all mines closing at noon and the the dust raised by the sweepers would schools of all tons in the region closure be eliminated.

A Georgia newspaper says: "Seven bers that work had to be suspend years ago a farmer boy hung his vest on 1,000 Textile Operatives in Pawtucket the fence in the barnyard. A calf chewed up the vest, in the pocket of which Pawtucket, R. I., Oct. 24.—Approxi- was a gold watch. Not long ago the home run king out twice. mately 1,000 textile operatives were animal, and old milk cow, was butchered for beef and the watch was found to be lodged in such a position between the ing company and the Smith Webbing cow's lung that the cow's breathing had had lost but four mirutes in seven Ardennes claim that it literally rained the shortage of a market for narrow Moorish chief who, having a port in Tariff was originally the name of a night. fabrics was responsible for the curtail- Spain, near Gibraltar, was accustomer Rhode Island, employing normally about and the amount was added to the price goggles, which have served to preve 1.300 workers. of the goods.

> ell and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson $50,000 to $60,000 a year in the amount spent Wednesday in Charlotte.

WOMAN IS FATALLY WOUNDED IN TEXAS

Mrs. E. R. Kellersberger Fa. tally Shot Tuesday Morn. ing at Home of Her Father in Koppel, Texas.

FUNERAL TO BE HELD IN CONCORD

Body Will Be Brought Here and Interment Will Be in Oakwood Cemetery, Where Her Mother is Buried.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 24.—Mrs. E. R. and fatally wounded in the tional Bank vs. J. F. Bost and this case lived after the fatal shot about 40 min was being tried when court recessed for utes. Mrs. Phillips Bosche, of Dallas her step-mother, surrendered to Sheris Will Wright at Kimball, She upon Wright and a deputy from Merid ian, took charge of her. Mr. and Kopperl. Meanwhile Bosche was in ba las seeing the state fair.

At an inquest held Tuesday by Ed Nichols, justice of the peace at Morgan Texas, and George Anderson. Bosqui county attorney, a verdict was returned that Mrs. Kellersberger died of nist wounds.

Mrs. Kellersberger was the wife of medical missionary of the Presbyterian Church, who is now in Africa.

First news of the death of Mrs. Ke lersberger reached Concord Tuesday af ternoon in a telegram to her sister Mrs E. H. Brown. The first message gave serve six details, stating only that Mrs. Kellersher ger had been fatally shot. Mrs. Kellersberger left Concord a short time ago for Texas to spend the winter with her father. She had been in Cou-cord several weeks with Mrs. Brown and during the past several years had spent much time in this city. Her two daughters accompanied her to Texas. Several months ago Mrs. Kellershe ger, accompanied by her husband and children, returned to the States from Af rica, where she and Dr. Kellersberge had been serving as missionaries contracted an African illness while duty and was critically ill in a London hospital for many months. The fact that ness explains her presence in the United States while Dr. Kellersberger was but at his missionary work

Mrs. Brown was prostrated by the sons have made plans to enter exhibits at the fair, and an amusment company has signed up to furnish shows for the midway. The fair will begin early next month and will continue for five days. in her great desire to be of service ther.

MONEY WAS WASTED Director of Veterans' Bureau Gives Facts to Committee Appointed by Congress. Washington, Oct. 23.-The Senate committee investigating the Vel erans' Bureau was told today by Dire tor Hines that on one occasion the Bu reau bad paid $64,000 for archit mitted were unsuitable. The director said the paymen made before he came into office, and that the recipient, Matthew O'Brien, of Los Angeles, had filed a claim for an add tional $13,000, which was General Hines added that O'Brien come to Washington, and had recel standard plans for public buildings fr the War and Treasury departments

Hazelton, Pa., Oct. 23.—Babe Ruth early. Mine workers left their posts the majority of operations in such nu Babe went hitless against Monder mine worker of Coleraine, who pitched for the Hazelton team. Le struck the

"Ford-For-President" Clubs to Meet. Detroit, Oct. 23 (By the Associate Press) .- A call for a national tion conference for all "Ford-For-Pa ident" clubs to be held in Dearby home of Henry Ford. December 12. and 14. was decided upon at a meeting of several local Ford clubs held here h

Workmen employed in the milk of one of the great steel companies in the Pi many cases of loss of vision annuali As a further consequence there has been Mrs. G. T. Crowell, Mr. Frank Crow- a direct saving to the corporation of from paid out in workmen's compensation.