usiay, November 15, 1923

power.

me Mission Leader and St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 10.-"Reasonable living conditions," are necessary to remer Hammontree, Song eder, Gain in Popularity geons to rural communities, Dr. H. P. Colwell, of Chicago, today told the con-Revival Really Starts. vention of the American Country Life Association, in session here. Dr. Col-well is secretary of the Council on Med-di Has Enough Churches dEnough Organizations, roads, hard work, loss of income, increasat It Still Needs More of ed expenses, poorer facilities for prache Love of the Savior. tories, few churches, poorer schools and loss of time or opportunity for profesmanulis who signal or personal development, "What wonder, therefore, that the country doctor after strugging in vain st two nights. ntense earnesta very swift against the rising tide of difficulties finalrom a life of ly decides to follow his disappearing ang freely and clientele to the city. It is quite clear though also why the young physician, after fails to graduating from medical school, usually him, you in debt for his medical training, prefers to, or from necessity must, remain in the city rathe than go to the country. "Census figures show that of the total Ite speaks unusper cent, are in cities of 5,000 or great

now; we don't need more schools for we have enough; what we need, men and women, is more of Jesus Christ in our lives that will make us live before.

our unserved friends in such a way that they'll want our religion. Faith and prayer can do anything. Let's give ourselves anew to God and claim casting-out

TO RESTORE PHYSICIANS TO RURAL COMMUNITIES

Reasonable Living Conditions Are Necessary, /Says Dr. Colwell.

ical Education and Hospitals of the Am

"The objectionable features of country practice.". said Dr. Celwell, "as loss of well-to-do patients, long drives, bad

tice, no hospitals, no libraries, no labora-crican Medical Association.

DINNER STORIES

gets it; at his funeral, the widow gets Dubber-I'm awfully sorry, Mrs.

Mrs. Mackley-Oh, weren't you there?"

Teacher: "We borrowed our numerals

Smiths and our snow shovel from the pointing to the distant, hills, inquired,

Thursday night.

amples

Joneses.

captain?

in silence,

see a whale?"

told me it was Greece."

her called if one hove in siught.

"Captain," she answered, "my desire in life is to see a whale blubber. It must be very impressive to watch such

"Does angels have wings, mummy?

"Then when is nursie going to fly cause daddy called her an angel last

"Father, wouldn't you be glad if

"Well, I saved it all right," the lit-

my teacher you would give me a dollar, used in the United States were import-

A Nasty One.

provident. Occasionally he is a keen

Not always is the colored citizen im-

An Atlanta white man gave a nickel

"What are you running for?"

"To stop a fight."

"Who's fighting?"

"Yes, darling."

"Yes. dear."

but I didn't.

business man,

"Me and another guy."

"Can they fly, mummy?"

"Tomorrow, darling."

saved you a dollar?"

"Certainly, my son."

It

er population, leaving only 37 per cent. Mel Trotter's portions him- in cities or towns of less than 5,000. In an enormous creature cry." He won im- other words in cities of 5,000 or above is audience, as there is one physician for every 541 peo and new songs. Tennessee and "To permanently restore doctors for ru-

The peo- ral communities requires restoration of reasonable living conditions in those dishim to their tricts.

him Mr. Her call him. He is Jailed For Keeping Daughter From This young musi-School

Mount Airy, Nov. 10 .- Drew Holt, a and from the very man of about fifty years, who lives near might?" that keyboard, Siloam, was tried at Dobson before a large audience magistrate for refusing to send his child and to school. At the trial he made a num lively tunes. He ber of excuses, saying that the child was and says he afraid to ride in the jitney, and was not With Trotter to strong enough to walk the three mile "Herm" to play from his home to the school: at the same time saying she was needed at nething new home to help gather crops. The the magistrate imposed a fine of $5, letting Why could him off light because this was his first e Lord Jes- offense. The old man pounded on the seek table and declared that he would not When pay "narry a copper," and when told and wom- that he would be sent to jail he pointed ed; today not 2 per cent are imported. same as out the window and said he would "go men right to jail and stay there till moss grows the devil in on my back as long as that thar teleuck and the phone pole afore I'll pay ary copper." is for Jesus He was placed in jail and displayed a to overcame roll of bills to show that he could pay sees his fine if he would. By Monday he de- to a young negro who had performed anent! If efded he had had enough of jail and for him some trifling service. The neu, my friend, paid his fine, probably reasoning, that gro looked at the coin askance and then, turn of Crown Prince Frederick Wil-ted up in the he could better spare his little daughter a cordial smile breaking over his fea-liam or his father, the former emperor, ou uy to win from farm work during the school sea- tures handed it back. ou'll find out all son than to lose thirty days from work There are men and himself.

ee tonight who don't talking about because McAdoo Confesses He's No Politician. clothes yo' got on-dat's enough." THE CONCORD TIMES

Sleuths From North Carolina Jarred by Philadelphia Woman When he is born, his mother gets the salisbury Post.

Sleuths from the office of Prohibition man, and by their combined efforts suc-Director Coltrane in this city are now ceeded in Landcuffing her.

engaged in helping round up violators of But her martial spirit was not quenched. As "Slim" ventured within the federal dry law in Philade'phia. Mackley, that I forgot your party last Officer Trexler, Randall, Alexander and reach, she let loose a series of kicks at Widenhouse composing the raiding his shine. "Slim" bounded about on one squad from the North Carolina direction of the uttering soulful moans "Lady foot uttering soulful moans. "Lady lady, he sobbed, "I'm askin' you to retor's forces. These men ran afoul, however, when they raided a place in the from the Arabs, our calendar from the City of Brotherly Love and encountered member you are a lady." The robust young woman merely called him tore permanently physicians and sur-eons to rural communities, Dr. H. P. ians. an any one think of other ex- Word comes to Director Coltrane to Romans, and our banking from the Italname the effect that his men are very active. Willis: "Our lawnmower from the and rendering valuable aid in the drive now being made in Philadelphia.

As a steamer was leaving the harbor Athens, a well dressed young pas-The following from a Phi'adelphia of Athens, a well dressed young pas-senger approached the captain and being L. office: against her.

what is that white stuff on the hills, bad'y nicked and dented by an irate The charge of destroying evidence re-"That is snow," replied the captain. Woman with a poker during a federal Eight enforcement agents, born and She hit a table with her foot and up-

"Well," remarked the lady, "I thought so myself, but a gentleman has just bred in old North Carolina and shipped told me it was Greece." here from the sunny south last week,

"We had a terrible time," admitted future. were assigned to search a house in E. A captain of an Atlantic liner was Westmoreland street near Almond the North arolina detectives. "We have Another $25,000,000 it is claimed, bothered by a woman passenger who Street, where it was reported liquor in hunted moonshiners in the bush down in was always idquiring about the possi- bulk was being distilled. bility of seeing a whale. A dozen Armed with search warrants, the of them acted up like this eight southerners. led by a six-foot lady is a regular wildcat." s'euth known as "Slim." entered the "Yes, suh." added Slim. times a day she besought him to have "But madam," the captain asked her front door and made their way up what you-all mean now by a wild wo- would place it second to no other state in rather impatiently, after long suffering stairs. man "Why are you so eager to In the building they said they found

After this raid, agents entered the 500 gallons of moonshine, twenty-eight headquarters of a beneficial association. A factory is being built in San Diego barrels of mash, and sundry ingredients Popular street, near Broad, where they for the production of gelatine products of the moonshining business. On the seized thirty quarts of bottled-in-bond second floor, they came upon a robust liquor, three gallons of moonshine, and than heretofore has been attempted. young woman who they said was tenderly nursing a 100-gallon still. "Slim" made the young woman whom they said will seek a warrant. bow, worthy of a cavalier and swept the floor with a flourish of his widebrimmed slouch hat.

"Good evenin' nîa'am." he said courtesously. The yong woman glanced up from her still-ending job and scowled erociously "Get the blazes out of here," she said.

Those are not her exact words). "I hope," continued "Slim," "that we are not intruding." The robust young woman reached out and grasped poker. She addressed the agents brief'y "You go," she said. But she did not give them time to obey. Like a whirlwind, she was upon them. "Slim" bore tle chap replied, edging nearer the door, the brunt of the attack. Twice the iron

You said if I brought a good report from poker descended upon his shoulders. "Lady, Lady," gasped "Slim," and vainly tried to catch the flying arms.

Sixty-five years ago 90 per cent of all carpets and other floor coverings "HANDS OFF" POLICY

FAVORED BY PRESIDENT

Policy of United States Is to Allow Country to Have Any Government It Desires.

Washington, Nov. 13 .-- President Cooldle believes the traditional policy of the American government would preclude it from joining with the allied governments in protesting to Germany against the reor in measures to prevent the reestablish-"'Deed, suh," he ejaculated, "yo' ment of a monarchy.

knows Ah don' want no pay fo' what Ah done. Jes' gimme dat ole suit o' lished tenant that any nation is within its rights in establishing whatever form

ANOTHER $25,000,000 NEEDED TO COMPLETE BOAD PROGRAM

Many Are Hopeful That Governor Will Issue Special Call For Legislature. Rale'gh, Nov. 10 .- Another bond issue or highway construction in North Caro lina, with $25,000,000 as the suggested is laboring with the bool weevil. It has amount, is being advocated as the out-look for a special session of the Legislasuccessfully coped with the plague-bearing rodent, the disease-spreading louse ture next year grows more promising. and other dangerous creatures. It is If prominent friends of the highway proving a valuable asset to farming movement continue their present attiwhere grain weevils are destructive. "Lady. tude, a movement for an additional issue Thus far the boll weevil has resisted the of twenty or twenty-five million will likeattacks with the war gas fumes, but ly follow an announcement from Governor Morrison of his intention to call

General Fries, head of the service, be-lieves that his forces will yet conquer the assembly together. What the gov-The agents said they found two ernor proposes to do is of course not the cotton pest. trucks laden with five gallon bottles of known and will not be in advance of a In a report just issued General Fries moonshine outside in the yard. They report from the ship and water transportook the trucks, liquor and the woman tation commission. But there are many "One of the greatest economic losses uffered by the United States each year hopeful that he will issue the call. of resisting arrest, assaulting an efficer and destroying evidence were placed bonds' now aggregates $65,000,000, and is the damage to growing cotton by the boll weevil. The chemical warfare set vice does not claim that it can certainly supporters of the proposal for another solve this problem, but so far as can be issue contend the state's ability to meet now seen, the chemical warfare service sulted from another well-aimed kick of great obligations is more promising now will be of considerable assistance in its the young woman as the agents were than it was when the first issue of $50, olution.' trying to take her out of the building. 000,000 was voted. At that time many

That the boll weevil is about to ruin ome southern states is manifest from ecent reports on cotton crops. Arkan as is making about half what it did last year; Mississippi, half; Florida, less than half; Georgia about twowould complete the program with a thirds.

moths, testing chocolate made by mathe North Carolina mountains, but none great big bang. The state, of course, North Carolina is making more than the of them acted up like this. This young will be well supplied with good roads 100,000 bales over what it did last with the completion of the present provear.

"Yes, suh," added Slim, "we-all know gram, but the additional expenditure X-rays have been put to many uses the union in the completeness of its highincluding the preserving of furs against way system.

good roads enthusiasts advocated a $75.

for good roads-was a plan of the early

A factory is being built in San Diego chinery, and killing a microscopic insect which attacks cigars. from seaweed on a much larger scale

John H. White, colored, of No. 10 twenty cases of beer. Agents took the name of Gustav Olsen, the steward, for Borrowed umbrellas cast the shawed ored fair last week on his collection of home-made knives

THE ISLE OF RETRIBUTION EDISON MARSHALL R.W. SATTERTIELD OLITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY, 1923

of suspicion

BEGIN HERE TODAY

mushed a few feet behind. She had no sensation of cold; hardened to steel, her muscles moved like the sliding parts of a wonderful machine. The ice was wonderfully smooth as yet, almost like the first, thin, bay ice frozen to the depth of safety. But already the killing pace had begun to tell. She couldn't keep it up forever without food and rest. "And the brute behind her was tirdless, emorseless as death itself.

The Northern Lights died at last in the sky, and the two hastened on in had occurred he did not know, but the wan light of a little moon that BEGIN HERE TODAY Ned Cornet, Lenore Hardenworth and Bess Gilbert are shipwrecked. Together they take refuge on an island. Lenore and Ned are engaged to be married. The island on which the three find themselves is inhab-ited by a brute named Doomsdorf and his Indian wife. Doomsdorf promptly takes Ned and the girls prisoners and tells them he means to use them as his slaves. The prisoners are told to build a cabin for themselves ant, when it is completed, the master of the island says he wants Ned and Bess to do all his winter trapping. had occurred he did not know, but there was no time to tell her now. Nor were explanations necessary: trusting him to the last she would follow where he led. "We'll have to run for it," he whispered simply. "Fast as you dan." Ned had taken in the situation, made his decision, seized the parkas, and guided Bess through the door all in one breath: the drama of Le-nore's tragic dishonor was still in progress in the glare of the North-the tast limits of physical exbuild a cabin for themselves and, when it is completed, the master of the island says he wants Ned and Bess to do all his winter trapping. Lenore is allowed to remain with the squaw. Different trapping routes are given to Bess and Ned. Together they plan to escape from the island and send Lenore to call Doomsdorf to their cabin. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY them. Almost at once they were con- wings of her resolve. Instead, her The man regarded her with quick-flickering shadow: in the snow, be-keep up the pace-until she toppled ening interest, yet without the slight- hind the first fringe of stunted forward lifeless on the ice.

PAGE SEVEN.

CAROLINA CONQUERS BOLL WEEVIL PLAGUE This State is Maaking Hundred Thousand Bales More Cotton Than Last Year. Washington, Nov. 11 .- The chemical warfare service of the war department win souls for Chicago, Nov. 12.-William Gibbs others who know McAdoo, here for a short visit on his levil to try to down way to his home in California told rethe church is power-porters today that he was a "poor polito be powerful. What tieian" and explained his statement, a position. The senior partner came in, country, although in South America the and women all about When he was secretary of the treasury, and, after inspecting the vision, called sessed and as the he explained, a friend said to him. the other member of the firm aside and ing upon the establishment of monarchies want to ask you "You're a poor politician, for you don't whispered : "I'd hire her." not we cast him pass around any cigars." "I took the church cast out hint and laid in a box," said Mr. Mcower of God at Adoo, "but it was no'use. I never re ut use it. The membered at the right time to offer the Where did cigars to anyone. You see, I don't smoke Il you, my friends, myself; somehow never learned. And I refused to bear a am still, as you see, 'a peor politician'."

ore churches. we Wavy-haired girls are usually popular 're organized to death spirited.

Four-Door Sedan Interior Features

A cozy, attractive interior has been achieved in the Ford Four-Door Sedan. Broadcloth upholstery, soft brown with a slightly darker stripe, harmonizes with the lighter shade in the head lining.

Ornamental interior fittings are finished in nickel. Doors are made of one solid sheet of heavy aluminum, very light and strong Cabarrus Motor Co.

CARS · TRUCKS · TRACTORS

A Pretty Girl.

'I have.'

"Can she take dictation?" "We'll find that out later," said the junior partner. "I didn't want any obstacles to crop up.

DR. L. B. M'BRAYER WILL BE SENTENCED TODAY

We don't need more at school; they are optimistic and high- He Pleads Guilty to Trading With Himself in Conducting Affairs of the Sanatorium.

Raleigh News and Obesrver.

Dr. L. B. McBrayer, superintendent of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, who entered a plea of guility Tuesday of government it desires. He has told vis-The junior partner was interviewing itors he believes that the policy should a very pretty girl who had applied for be followed with respect to all European principles of the Monroe Doctrine formshould be the guide. The allied governments in the view of officials here have a right and a duty under the treaty of Versailles to protest and take such measnres as they deem desirable. The United States, not being a party to the treaty, is under no such obligations. FEEL CERTAIN WILHELM

WILL NOT "COME BACK" England Assured by Holland That the Former German Emperor Cannot Escape. London, Nov. 13 (By the Associated Press) .- British government officials reafternoon when arraigned on a charge iterated today that they were entirely of trading with himself will be sentenced satisfied with the adequacy of the assurthis morning upon the completion of the ances given by Holland that ex-emperor taking of evidence, according to state- William will not be allowed to leave ments to the News and Observer last Dutch custody. They say that up to this moment they have no reason to suppose is prosecuting the case. Despite the submission entered by Dr. and if he had such an intention they are McBrayer, Judge N. A. Sinclair directed now confident the Dutch government will that the evidence be put on and made frustrate the attempt. No new represena part of the court record in order that tations therefore have been made to he might have some basis upon which Holland

Not Authorized to Return. to formulate hisjudgment in the case. Berlin, Nov. 12 .- It is officially denied The defense consumed most of yesterday here that former emperor William has been authorized to return to Germany. with character witnesses, and others by whom it was intended to show that he had acted in good faith, and with no intention of wrong doing. Records of the testimony brought out

Spencer Pastor Takes Pulse of Congre-

Records of the testimony brought out during the legislative investigation were offered as testimony by Solicitor McNeil in support of the indictment brought last here, has just completed a very interest-August by a Hoke county grand jury. ing investigation in his congregation. Several witnesses who testified before He distributed to his flock leaflets conthe investigating committee were exam- taining twenty-six proposed sermon ined by the Solicitor. More than a topics and asked that each one check the score of character witnesses were ex- subjects he wanted the paster to discuss. The subjects ranged all the way amined by the defense attorneys.

During the investigation ordered by the General Assembly last February, it was brought out that Dr. MeBrayer, After checking up them Mr. Jimison

After checking up them Mr. Jimison while superintendent of the hospital. has found that only three people want bought from a farm owned by himself him to preach on the atonement, four as an individual certain supplies to be on the inspiration of the scriptures. as an individual certain supplies to be used in the Sanatorium for feeding the patients being treated there. On cross examination he admitted the allegation. This, with other allegations, were tion wants to hear the theater, made the basis of the legislative investi- heaven, the second coming of Christ and The committee sustained the divorce discussed. Also the questions as gation. McBrayer administration of the Sana- to whether the world is growing worse, torium, recommending that he be retained. whether fun is divine or devilish, what Several months later the fact that a is sin, and whether or not God can suf-State official residing within the county fer were checked by the majority of the had admitted a violation of the State folks. Quite a large number wants to laws was called to the attention of the hear sermons on the revolt of youtn. Hoke county grand jury. His indict- Christian Science. Christianization of industry, the international court, and ment and arrest followed. Dr. McBrayer claims that in purchas-

the signs of the times. ing peaches and other vegetables from Editor and Publisher says that Senhis privately owned farm for use at the ator Lenroot, of Washington, recently Sanatorium, the institution profited since paid high tribute to the press of the he sold it a better grade of merchandise he sold it a better grade of merchandlise than could have been obtained elsewhere for the money paid. He insists that he acted in good faith, and that he had no ratention of violating the law. he is sold in good faith, and the be that the be be united States senators than the presno intention of violating the law.

ent incumbents.-The British Trades Union Congress

In Yucatan there are no fewer than dates from 1866, in which year it was sixty-two ruined and abandoned cities. organized at a meeting in Sheffield.

est trace of suspicion.

He got up at once. Lenore stared at him as if in a nightmare. She had hoped in her deepest heart that had hoped in her deepest heart that he would refuse to come, that the to some inhabited island before great test of her soul could be avoid-great test of her soul could be avoid-never in giving him a chase across smooth ice, never daring to halt:

the door. She had done her part: she could wait here, if she liked, till the thing was settled. In a few seconds more she would know her fate.

Yet she coudn't stay here and wait. To Doomsdorf's surprise she followed him through the door, into the glare of the Northern Lights. She did not know what impulse moved her; she was only aware of the growing cold of terror. Not only Ned and Bess would pay the price if the plan failed. She must pay, too. The thought haunted her, every step, every wild beat of her heart.

Doomsdorf was walking swiftly: already he was halfway from the door. The desperate fight for freedom was almost at hand. But what was freedom compared to that fear and darkness that is death?

There were no depths of ignominy beyond her now. She cried out shrilly and incoherently, then stumbling through the snow, caught Doomsdorf's arm. "No, no," she Doomsdorf's arm. cried, fawning with lips and hands. MUSHED A FEW FEET BEHIND. "Don't go in there-they're going to try to kill you. I didn't have any- his own tundras.

thing to do with it-I swear I didn't They halted a single instant in the death. Doomsdorf himself can't do -und don't make me suffer when shelter of the thickets, slipped on their snowshoes, then mushed as "But he can-" I've saved you-"

He shook her roughly, until the fast as they could on to the beach. torrent of her words had ceased, and In scarcely a moment they were venshe was silenced beneath his lurid furing out on the ice-bound wastes. gaze.

for me?" he demanded.

Her hands clasped before him. "Yes, but I say I'm not guilty-" He pushed her contemptuously He pushed her contemptuously the fugitives, they were already out forces of both their bodies. Ned from him, and she fell in the snow, of effective pistol range. He fired was suffering scarcely not at all as Then, with a half-animal snort that impotently until the hammer clicked yet, but he had caught the first danrevealed all too plainly his murder. ous rage, he drew his pistol from his then, still senseless with fury, dart- proaching the danger point of holster and started on. ed down to the cabin for his rifle.

6.

A artic

WATCHING through the crack the door. After all, there was no ing pace. in the door Ned saw the girl's particular hurry. He knew how They mushed on in silence, not act; and her treason was im many miles of ice-some of it almost even glancing back to keep track of mediately evident to him Whatever impassable-lay between his island Doomsdorf. And it came about, in darkness engrossed him at the sight and 'Izar Island, far to the east. It the last hours of the night, that the of the ignoble girl, begging for her was not the journey for a man and rest both of them so durely needed little life even at the cost of ber woman, traveling without supplies was forced upon them by the powers lover's, showed not at all in his white. There was no need of sending his of nature. The moon set; and genset face. Whatever unspeakable sinusing lead after them. Cold and erally smooth though the ice was, despair came upon him at this ruin hunger. If he gave them play, would they could not go on by starlight. There was nothing to do but rest till' of his ideals, this destruction of all slop them soon enough.

NED BROKE TRAIL.

his hopes, it was evidenced neither He had, however, other plans. He dawn his hopes, it was evidenced neither the near nowever, other door, spoke "Lie down on the ice," Nea age vised. "and don't worry about wak

No other crisis had ever found him make preparations for a journey He ling up." His voice moved her and better disciplined. His mind seemed look a cold-proof wolf-hide rote. to dircumscribe the whole, dread situ wrapped in it a great sack of pen-ation in an instant. The turned met mican, and made it into a convenient Bess' straightforward gaze saw ner mack for his back. Then he feloaded She let her tired body slip down on half-smile of complete understanding inis pistol, took the rille down from the snow, relying only on her warm As she leaped toward nim, he the wall, and started forth down the Ned quickly settled beside her. "And snatched up their two booded outer train that Ned and Bess oad made. coats, and his arm hait encircling | Tired though Bess was from the her, he guided her through the door day's toil, she moved freshly and can."

would master herself until death

On and on through the night strange, wandering figures in the moonlit snow. But Bess was not to carry her brave intent through to the end. She had not counted on Ned's power of observation. Hè suddenly halted, turned and looked into her face.

It was wan and dim in the pale light; and yet something about its deepening lines quickened his interest. She saw him start; and with a single syllable of an oath, reached his hand under her hood to the track of the artery at her throat. He needed to listen but an instant to the fevered pulse to know the truth. "We're going too fast," he told her shortly.

"No-no!" Her tone was desperate, and his eyes narrowed with suppicion. Wrenching back her selfcontrol she tried to speak casually. "I can keep up easily," she told him. "I don't feel it yet-I'll tell you when I do. We can't ever make it if we slow up."

He shook his head, wholly uncon-SHE vinced. "I don't know what's got into you, Bess. You can't fool me. I know I feel it, good and plenty, and

"We're going to hit an easier pace Believe me, he's not running his heart out. He's planning on endur-Doomsdorf encountered their ance, rather than speed. 1 was a "You say-they've got a trap laid tracks us he reached the cabin door, fool not to think about you until it and guessing their intent, raced for began to get me."

the higher ground just above the lit was true that the killing pace eabin. But when he caught sight of had been using up the vital across It was true that the killing pace down against an empty breach, and ger signals. Bess was already epfatigue. When Ned started on again

But he halted before he reached he took a quick but fairly easy walk-

"Lie down on the ice." Ned ad-thrilled her in the darknes. "I'll set myselt to wake up at the first ray: that's one thing I can always do.' She let her thred body slip down on you d better lie as close to me as you

(Continued in Our Next Issue)

Whether or not she realized what easily at first. Ned broke trail she meers de constant de la constant de