A large number of class members were present and with them, to enjoy this happy occasion, were many friends of the hostesses.

An attractive program of music and readings was carried out. The musical numbers consisted of piano solos and the singing of Christmas carols, but possibly the outstanding feature of the evening's program was the readings given by little Miss Lorraine Blanks. Each number was beautifully given and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. A reading by Mrs. J. W. B. Long was also splendidly given.

Another enjoyable feature of the program was a "Word Contest" which was entered into by all present, but when the words were counted it was found that Mesdames R. A. Brower, and J. W. Pike had tied for the prize, but when the cut was made Mrs. Brower was the winner and was given a large stick of Several stunts, calling forth much merriment, were pulled off.

The serving of delicious sandwiches and hot chocolate brought to a close this most delightful party.

BILLY SUNDAY

The Charlotte Observer

SIX WEEKS FOR $1

Every sermon delivered by the world's greatest evangelist during the six weeks' revival campaign he will open in Charlette, December 30, will be printed in full in the issue following

Billy Sunday's thrilling phraseology, his striking gestures and platform antics, and the manner in which his sermons are received by the thousands who will jam the specially constructed tabernacle, will be duly recorded by an Observer staff reporter.

The fact that The Observer is a morning paper will enable it to give a more complete report of the services than any other Charlotte newspaper.

In addition to the complete Billy Sunday reports, The Observer will carry every piece of news developing in North and South Carolina, the local news handled by a large crops of reporters, and the world news gleaned from a complete Associated Press service. Features, comics, special articles of general interest and an editorial page second to nine in the South, make up a paper that is more than desirable.
