MAD DOG BITES GIRL AND THEN SOME DOGS

Dog was Killed Tuesday Night After Its Activities Were Reported to the Local Police Officers.

A mad dog made its appearance in Concord Tuesday, biting one child and several other dogs and frightening a number of persons before it was killed by police officers.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peele, of North Church street, was bitten on the nose by the dog, and police officers were advised that the dog also bit a colored child. The several dogs which were bitten by the mad dog were located this morning and shot by police officers who were unwilling to take any chances with them.

This mad dog is the first reported in Concord in many months, it was said. Last year the aldermen passed a law requiring all dogs to be vaccinated against rabies and a similar law was passed this year. The law was so nearly perfectly carried out that no mad dogs were reported last year and this is the first reported this year. It is understood that the mad dog wore no tag showing that it had been vaccinated.

The Peele child's nose was badly bitten and she was frightened when she learned the dog was made. However, a physician started her on a pasteur treatment and her condition today is as favorable as could be expected, it is said.

Judge Lane delivers charge to Grand Jury Court convenes and takes up number of cases—W. M. Fisher Grand Jury Foreman. Judge Henry P. Lane, after opening the August term of court here Monday afternoon, delivered his charge to the jury, giving to the jurors an able exposition of crimes and the extent of their punishments. After dividing all offenses into two classes, felonies and misdemeanors, he continued by giving a general review of crimes.

Nothing is more important today, said Judge Lane, than the regulation of motor vehicles. The most common form of manslaughter at the present, he continued, is killing persons in this manner. More people were killed by motor vehicles last year than died from typhoid fever.

The liquor traffic was stressed and the traffic in narcotic drugs was held up as being almost as serious as that in liquor. The jury was charged to investigate earnestly to dumb animals and bring to justice any offender of such a nature. The grand jury was composed of the following men: W. M. Fisher, foreman; W. A. Holland, R. B. McDonald, George A. Beger, R. B. Furr, J. W. Slough, H. C. Clauson, A. G. Clayton, J. C. Hartsell, J. L. Ross, Frank Slough, C. J. Rogers, J. R. Corzine, John Deal, R. Z. Bentley, W. S. Allman, Thomas Blackwelder and J. M. Cade. Immediately after the charge to the jury, Luther E. Barnhardt was presented to Judge Lane. Mr. Barnhardt is a graduate of Wake Forest. Judge Lane made a brief speech welcoming him to the bar.

New System For High Schools For County Is Outlined at Conference

Six High School Plants at Strategic Points Will Be Built Under the Plan as Outlined Here.

HOPE TO START WORK THIS YEAR

A. T. Allen, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Was Present For the Conference.

A system of high schools, situated at strategic points throughout the county, will be built in the near future as the result of the conference held here Tuesday by the county board of education and school committeemen from all parts of the county.

A. T. Allen, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, attended the conference, speaking briefly on the growth of education in this State and the United States and pointing out the need of standardization work everywhere.

The State law requires that before a system of high schools shall be erected in a county the county board of education must outline its plan to school committeemen and if the plan is approved, the work can be started. Prof. J. B. Robertson, county school superintendent, explained the law at the meeting and then outlined to the committeemen the proposed high school units for the county.

Prof. Robertson explained that standard high school plants would be erected at the following places under the proposed plan of the board:

- 1. In No. 10 township at a point on the road leading from Charlotte to Albemarle.
2. At point near Harrisburg.
3. In No. 3 township near forks of road at home of Dr. Gouger.
4. At point near Mt. Pleasant.
5. At Kannapolis.
6. At Wincoff.

The present plan of organization calls for large school grounds at each plant, with modern brick buildings and modern equipment. Special effort will be made to see that each building has a large auditorium. All high school work of the respective district will be centralized at these high school centers together with one or two grammar grades at some of them, Prof. Robertson explained.

It was further explained by Supt. Robertson that the plan provides not only for standard high schools but high schools of that size and organization that will provide for a general course of study to include domestic science, agriculture, music and such other courses as may be needed.

A number of committeemen gave their hearty approval to the general plan as outlined to them, saying in their opinion that such a system is needed and needed at once. The board members assured the committeemen that they proposed to build the units as soon as practical, and with such regularity as will be possible with the money at hand.

In this connection hope was expressed by the board that at least three of the plants can be erected within the next 12 months, and these three, with the schools already located at Kannapolis and Wincoff, will take care of the county until the others can be erected.

The Wincoff School, it was explained at the meeting, will be continued as a high school unit. The present building will be replaced later by a modern brick structure. Of course, the high school at Kannapolis will continue as a standard school.

It was explained at the meeting that all grammar school buildings will be utilized for the present, but it is thought that as soon as the high school units are established there will be done so work toward consolidating all of the elementary schools.

Buses will not be used in the high schools until enough of the plants are in operation to warrant a systematic schedule that will offer service to every high school student who lives beyond walking distance to one of the schools.

No local taxes will be necessary to operate the schools for six months each year, it was explained at the meeting. The State law provides that the county board of education shall have the right to levy such taxes as are needed and the local board feels that plans can be carried out with funds from the regular tax levy. An increase in the school tax becomes effective in this county when the 1925 taxes are paid, and this increase will likely take care of the needs for the present.

The law provides that high schools must operate at least eight months each year if they are to receive standard grades, and all of the proposed schools of the county will have six months terms at least, and it is hoped that a way can be found by which the terms can be extended to eight months. This point will be worked out later, under the present plans of the board.

The definite location of the high school buildings will be left with the board of education. The board members plan, however, to confer with the committeemen and study local conditions in arriving at a decision as to the sites.

About 100 committeemen were present at the meeting and in addition there were present about 25 patrons who were interested enough in the discussion to attend the meeting. If plans of the board of education do not go awry, work on the proposed high school plants will begin without undue delay and it is probable that some of the plants will be ready for work before the expiration of another 12 months.

In the course of his talk Mr. Allen pointed out some of the educational changes that have come during the past two decades, telling his hearers they must provide means of keeping step educationally with the rest of the State. He also commended the kindly spirit of co-operation shown by those present.

JUDGE LANE DELIVERS CHARGE TO GRAND JURY

Court convenes and takes up number of cases—W. M. Fisher Grand Jury Foreman.

Judge Henry P. Lane, after opening the August term of court here Monday afternoon, delivered his charge to the jury, giving to the jurors an able exposition of crimes and the extent of their punishments. After dividing all offenses into two classes, felonies and misdemeanors, he continued by giving a general review of crimes.

Nothing is more important today, said Judge Lane, than the regulation of motor vehicles. The most common form of manslaughter at the present, he continued, is killing persons in this manner. More people were killed by motor vehicles last year than died from typhoid fever.

The liquor traffic was stressed and the traffic in narcotic drugs was held up as being almost as serious as that in liquor. The jury was charged to investigate earnestly to dumb animals and bring to justice any offender of such a nature.

The grand jury was composed of the following men: W. M. Fisher, foreman; W. A. Holland, R. B. McDonald, George A. Beger, R. B. Furr, J. W. Slough, H. C. Clauson, A. G. Clayton, J. C. Hartsell, J. L. Ross, Frank Slough, C. J. Rogers, J. R. Corzine, John Deal, R. Z. Bentley, W. S. Allman, Thomas Blackwelder and J. M. Cade. Immediately after the charge to the jury, Luther E. Barnhardt was presented to Judge Lane. Mr. Barnhardt is a graduate of Wake Forest. Judge Lane made a brief speech welcoming him to the bar.

The court then proceeded with the docket at hand. Wayne Jordan, B. Y. Womach and A. G. Cook, all of Warsaw, were first to come up and plead guilty to transporting and possessing liquor. A fine of $50 and costs was fixed in this case.

B. Y. Womach was charged with driving a car while intoxicated but the court, at the request of the defendants' counsel, waived the finding of the high alcohol. Mr. Womach pleaded guilty of forcible trespass. In this instance he was fined $25 and costs. A. G. Cook, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, pleaded guilty to forcible trespass and was fined $50 and the costs.

Luther West and George Phifer, charged with transporting liquor, pleaded guilty and were fined $50 and costs. Luther West was charged in addition to this with driving a car without lights. In this the defendant entered a plea of nolo contendere to the charge of driving the car while intoxicated which plea was accepted by the solicitor. A fine of $25 and costs was fixed.

F. M. Tucker, charged with possessing liquor, was fined $50 and costs. Sam Ritchie was fined $50 and costs in a gambling charge.

Dave Kiser tendered a plea of forcible trespass and after a prayer for judgment, the case was continued for three years, the defendant to appear at each term and show that he had been "of good behavior."

George Earnhardt, charged with resisting an officer, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to thirty days on the roads, not to wear stripes.

Thomas Daniel, Avery Grass and Clyde Christy, on a charge of forcible trespass, were discharged but were required to show three years good behavior.

MISSING FARMER IS LOCATED IN ST. PAUL

N. A. Blackwelder Sent Word From That Child to Local Relatives—On Way Home Now. N. A. Blackwelder, local farmer who disappeared here ten days ago, has been located in St. Paul, Minn., and funds have been forwarded for his return home. He is expected to return some time this week.

Relatives here were first advised of Mr. Blackwelder's whereabouts in a telegram from a Catholic organization to which he went for aid soon after arriving in St. Paul. The organization advised relatives that Mr. Blackwelder would be cared for until ready to return to his home here.

Upon receipt of the telegram relatives here immediately sent Mr. Blackwelder funds for his expenses home. Just how Mr. Blackwelder reached St. Paul and why he went to that city is not known as no details of his trip have been received. He was last seen here Saturday a week ago, when he got into a car bearing a Tennessee license and started in the direction of Salisbury. Relatives here at the time stated that he had only a small amount of money with him, so it is presumed that he prevailed upon motorists to carry him from point to point until he reached St. Paul, where he decided to ask for aid.

It was at first feared by relatives that Mr. Blackwelder had met with foul play and they are greatly relieved to learn that he is safe.

To Visit Miss Cannon Here. Miss Virginia Page DuBois, of Mansfield, La., is expected to arrive in the city Friday to spend some time as the house guest of Miss Penelope Cannon at her home on North Union street. Miss DuBois has been the guest of Miss Lucy Holmes Carson in Charlotte for some time and has been accorded many social honors during her stay in that city.

Mrs. J. F. Harris is spending the day in Charlotte with friends.

CABARRUS COUNTY FAIR CATALOGUE PUBLISHED

Officials Declare That It Is the Best in the State—Interesting Features Planned This Year.

The Cabarrus County Fair Catalogue, just off the Times Book and Job Presses, is well in-keeping with the ideals set by the Fair Officials and the reputation it has made in the past two years as the best in this part of the State and possibly the best in the entire State.

The catalogue, a book of 76 pages, is attractively bound in a deep red cardboard binding and shows careful editing on the part of persons in charge. As a frontispiece, a full page photograph of the president of the Fair Association, Joseph F. Cannon, is used. Other pictures of the past fairs are used throughout the book to add to its interest.

Most interesting in the announcements made by the Association is that a complete change in the amusement program has been prepared as has been the custom heretofore. The amusement program has always been one of the features of the local fair and the fact that another good one is underway is noted with enthusiasm by Fair patrons.

Co-operation of the people in the county is asked for by the Association in order to keep it up to the standard. "The management," says the catalogue, "is making every effort to make this the most successful Fair we have ever held and indications are that the exhibits will be on a much larger scale than heretofore. Again we ask your co-operation and assure you that our motto 'More Than Advertised' will again be exemplified."

Fair dates are October 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17. Tuesday, the 13th, is Educational Day and Iredell Day; Wednesday is Mecklenburg and Union Day; Thursday is Cabarrus County Day, Stanly County Day, Merchants and Manufacturers Day, and has at the same time the second annual Dog Show; Friday is Farmer's Day; Rowan County Day and Fraternal Orders' Day. Saturday is set as sales day at which time persons having livestock, poultry or other articles on exhibit may conduct sales.

All afternoon programs, it is announced, are to begin promptly at 1:30 o'clock. There will be free acts and racing each day. Night programs begin at 6:45 and will have free acts as well as display fireworks.

All children will be admitted free to the Fair Grounds on Educational day from Cabarrus, Rowan, Mecklenburg, Union, Stanly and Iredell counties.

Amusement attractions include the following: Bernhart Greater Expositions, Shows and Rides; The Dutton Equestrians—six people, four horses; Miss Nellie Jordan and Co., Dancing and Wire Walking; Barney Google and Spark Plug; Miss Divian De Vere, sensational aerial loop-the-loop, 45-foot high; The De Kos Brothers, comedy acrobatic act; Machine Comedy Riding Act; Gene De Kos, famous French clown; Tom, Dick and Harry—Fun on a hay wagon; Old Fashioned Country Dance; the Patentes, high ladder acts; Fisher & Co., wonderful bicycle acts; Tice's Trained Dogs; Hopkins Animal Circus, and one of the best bands in the country. A change in fireworks program is assured every night.

The race program is as follows: 2:23 trot; 2:19 trot; 2:14 trot; 2:10 trot; 2:22 pace; 2:19 pace; 2:15 pace and 2:12 pace. There is to be a purse for all pace also. Purses for each of the races is $300. Prizes are offered for best exhibits from Communities, Farm and Field Crops, Livestock, Horticultural Products, Bees, Home Economics and Educational.

Fair directors are J. F. Cannon, President; H. A. Goodman, vice-president; W. A. Foil, vice-president; H. W. Caldwell, vice-president; Dr. T. N. Spencer, secretary; C. W. Swink, treasurer; J. B. Sherrill, J. F. Daywalt, L. M. Richmond and W. W. Floy.

Fair officials are justly proud of the catalogue this year. They claim that it is the best published in the State and feel that they have a justifiable boast in presenting it to the public.

"If you are not feeling good just take a tip from me and get Karnak—this medicine will fix you up—and won't be long about it, either," says John C. Milton, of 206 Mulberry St., Greenville, S. C., popular engineer on the Southern railroad for the past eleven years.
