More Than 200 Persons Present for First Session Held in Forest Hill Meth- odist Church.

FINE ADDRESSES FOR FIRST NIGHT

Another Session Will Be Held Tonight at 7:30 With Final Session To- morrow Night.

More than two hundred persons representing twenty Sunday schools attended the opening session of the Concord Sunday School Institute held at Forest Hill Methodist Church last night.

The opening address of the institute was given by Miss Flora Davis, of Raleigh, Associate Supt. of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, her subject being "The Wide-Awake Sunday School."

But the wide-awake Sunday School not only has something, but it does something. One important thing that it does is to increase its attendance. This is done by first getting a better average attendance of those already enrolled in the school, and then by getting more people enrolled as new pupils.

Speaking on the subject, "The Young People's Challenge to the Church," Frank D. Getty, of Philadelphia, Associate Director of Young People's Work for the Northern Presbyterian Church, said:

"The young people are challenging the church for recognition. They want to be regarded as young people of today with all their present capabilities and enthusiasm, not as the men and women of tomorrow with the necessity of waiting until tomorrow comes before they can render service."

Baker, of the Rhode Island Superior Court, and the Newport members of the Rhode Island General Assembly, said they suffered no discomfort from the cold, but would have liked a little food during their 12-hour vigil.

NO CLEMENCY TO THE ASHEVILLE MOB MEMBERS

Men Who Stormed Asheville Jail Must Serve Terms—Took Law in Own Hands.

Governor McLean had few backers in this case. There was such terrific pressure on him as no executive has ever had. The executive utters a beautiful sympathy for the innocent families of these grotesque defenders of the home. Just offhand we would guess that one of these days his excellency will be thinking of some state action for the smitten members of society, victimized by notice or wrong doing of their own. He gives the hint to the Asheville people. But he cannot turn the State over to the mob.
