k and Miss Helen Concord visit-

Mrs S. O. Holland, of Friday night with present enjoyed a good s O. Holland on a trip where they visited Mr. Mann and attended When they re-Eddleman spent islting in the home of Holland in Salisbury. to note the serious dest ladies. Mrs.

k, we are glad to say.). Ky., are visiting at the Flora's parents, Mr. and he Sunday School classes eman and J. A. Winecoff layed and lots of real everal comical readings and cake wa hryle Chambers, Mary Pearl Ervin 'allie Winecoff Bertie Ed e Harris and Ruth Brant-

Irs. Gideon Kirk Wednes-Mrs F. M. Cook and two Sunday visiting Mrs

Mrs. W. S. Allison, of be an Easter program a this year, so plan to date will be announced rge Patterson is confined illness. We hope she Mrs L C. Weddington visited at the home of N. S. Caldwell last lrs. J. L. Eddleman and Eddleman and children, dleman and Miss Bertie L. A. Eddleman at his

ir. and Mrs. W. S. Alli H. Earnhardt, who is rom her recent illness. o see the impounding dan ncord. The lake is full ery pretty to see. a box supper at Patter house Friday night. not least in importance h announcement. We School at 10 o'clock and t 11 o'clock every first and s and Sunday School at eaching at 3 o'clock on nd fourth Sundays. Floyd Sunday School superina good one. Rev. E. F. stor. Mr. Roof is a fine d if you haven't heard missed a treat. Just ee for yourself. Every-REPORTER.

NCORD ROUTE 5.

appendicitis at the Conital last Thursday. His Mrs. J. C. Mullis and son at last Sunday in Stanly

Mrs. John Canupp, it a short while Sunday home of J. C. Mullis Mrs. Arthur Baugh and Saturday night in No s, R. S. Bost and families y at Badin fishing. Bost and family spent Mr. and Mrs. Martin ion of Julius Furr is un-wishes to congratulate him always even d of the world.

Fink's is progressing Mr. Marvin A. Starnes Josephine Barnhardt as nd High Point schools riday afternoon. The 3 and 43 in favor of Fink. ELIZA JANE.

10 TOWNSHIP.

s sawing wood, the Church. ns are being made end.

J. R. McAnulty, of Flowe's store, illness for a week or so, is able to walk about the yard.

No improvement is noted in the conditions of J. B. Green and J. C. McEachern. Both have been sick for a long time, and are substantial men of the township.

The second quarterly conference for this year for Bethel was held last Friday afternoon with Dr. Z. Paris, presiding elder of the Salisbury district, in the chair. G. M. Gray, Kendall Eaves, A. O. Carriker and J. M. Santiary Department of the State of the state who will be in attendance imously has voted to recommend to the Hartsell were elected delegates to the district conference which meets some or town in the State, it was said here time next month with the Methodist congregation at Spencer.

weather of last week did serious dam- Santiary Inspector. age to the fruit crop.

and fell striking Mr. Peeler on the officer. head. He was rushed to the Salisbury Hospital in an unconscious condition.

We had a big white frost last night in the other cities of the State. and today is a clear beautiful day. Here is a card we received. A Mr. have to trot out another book.

today. Here is a letter we just received:

Concord, N. C., Route 6. March 23, 1927. with eczema since using your salve, a score of 97.5. This was due to a cord, N. C., Route 6, Norcott Mill.

from the quarries. on Venus to beat it. We give it up.

Venus and Ause Redwine, Sr., of Faith, two of the old Civil War veterans, expect to go to the old solerans, expect to go to the old sol-

Bill Way, of Charlotte, sends Ve- following: nus a post cards "The Darkey Preacher," and says can you pray like this Furr's Cafe, 254 McGill Street, 87.5; brother? Bill Way, but it is copy- Sanitary Lunch, 25 West Depot righted and we cannot put it in our Street, 87.5; Kerr Street Cafe, 176 at W. A. Stirewalt's Sunday March Place, 214 West Depot Street, 85.5;

The weather has turned quite cool A revival meeting is in progress now, with Rev. C. H. Hill, from Cafe, 246 West Corbin Street, 72.5; Pear Earnhardt, Mr. and Friendship Church, doing the preach- and City Cafe, 31 South Church There Street, 57. ing. He sure is a fine man. vill be all day services Sunday 27th and dinner on the ground. Now all the good women are invited to attend and bring well filled baskets. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services. There wil be Street, 71. pent last Sunday after- services in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, also at night beginning strictly at 7 GIRLS OF LOCAL o'clock.

There will be preaching at Allison Grove Methodist Church Sunday April 3rd. Everybody come and hear Rev. Robert Short.

Mrs. Mack Canup is real sick at this time. Hope she will will soon be able to be out again. Howard Short fell out of a barn-loft Sunday and hurt his nose. We hope it is not broken. Mrs. Garner Verble has returned ome, after spending a week in Charlotte with her sister.

HAPPY FARM GIRL. EASTERN NO. 11. We are listening for the chimes of the wedding bells from several direc-Mr. and Mrs. Paul Plott will soon move into their new house they are having erected on the Bost Mill road near his father's, E. A. Plott, Mr. Hubert Faggart bought a lot from Mr. Horace Faggart, near the Cross roads filling station and is having a nice bungalow : built. He expects to have the house finished this

L. A. Plott spent Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Plott. Little Louise Faggart is better, after being so sick with tonsilitis. children, of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. is making good progress in perfecting E. L. Bost, of No. 7, and Miss Lucile the organization of the Assembly Bost, of Concord, visited D. G. Bost here.

Mrs. E. F. Whitley returned to her home Saturday, after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hart-sell, of Kannapolis, we feel we have lost one of our best street. lifelong friends. But we feel that our

ently in The Times. May FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. HOUSTON WHO DIED FRIDAY

ly Short Time.

Houston, well known woman of Har- room. weather, regardless risburg were held Saturday at 11 artistically arranged in a low silver now and then, has o'clock at the Harrisburg Church. In- bowl formed the center of the table, opertunity to do terment was made in the cemetery of and yellow candles in silver holders

g briars and many Mrs. Houston died Friday morning served. so with farming, at 7 o'clock at her home, following much spring plow- au illness of two days. She was sud-Everyone has denly striken Wednesday afternoon E. Sauvain, R. E. Jones, C. B. Wag- road, Tuesday delivered to a Salis- guests of the Charlotte militiamen, and plowed the and remained unconscious until the oner. W. M. Sherrill and Miss Mary bury merchant 200 broilers, for which it was learned.

of J. H. Carriker, of and is survived by her husband and Charlie Paddock is one of the few pounds each. His returns on the eggs with friends during the eastern to write "Maud," is to be demolished. been taking treattwo children, Mrs. W. H. Oglesby, of load approximated $180. The chicks, season is said to have originated in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to their home in the mansion, which is only a short led Friday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Sophia Dorton.

The mansion, which is only a short led Friday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Sophia Dorton.

The mansion, which is only a short led Friday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Sophia Dorton.

EATING PLACES IN CITY GIVEN HIGHER RATING AT PRESENT

State, County and City Officials Inspect Cafes and Other Eating Places and Rate Them.

The City of Concord has cafes which command as high a rating, when inspected by representatives of the State today following the completion of a It is not thought that the cold City by J. A. McLeod, Chife State two days inspection of the cafes of the

The inspection which resulted in the cafes of Concord commanding such high ratings were made in Concord Mr. Monroe Peeler came in one of Phusday and Friday. The inspections getting killed this morning while he were made by Mr. McLeod, Captain and others were loading granite on his motor truck. The derrick broke Dr. D. G. Caldwell, County Health

In making a report of the findings of the inspection that was made, it was said that the cafes of this City had on an average as high a rating as

Announcement was made that the cafes were able to command a higher Brown told you he had a Dutch book rating following the last inspection dated 1791. I have one dated 1530, than ever before on account of having Julian M. Sifford, Route 2, box 57, installed new and modern equipment Rockwell, N. C. Mr. Brown will since the last inspection was made. Appreciation was expressed here to the We met Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Flem- proprietors of the cases for cooperating ing and little Buster, of Greensboro, in every way that was possible with taking lunch at the Salisbury Cafe the City, County and State Health Departments in bettering the sanitary conditions of their places, and thus commanding better ratings.

The scores, or ratings, of the cafes Mr. J. T. Wyatt, Dear Sir :- We of the City were announced today by will write you a few lines and am captain Quint E. Smith. The Hotel glad to tell you that my foot is better Concord led the cafes of the City with Respectfully, Mrs. J. J. Padgett, Con-large extend, it was said, by the Hotel having the latest modern equipment. Following the Hotel in rating came A large number of motor trucks are now hauling granite to the railroad three cafes with the score of 95.5.

They were: New York Cafe, 12 West Pretty Little Girl, the writer of the Depot Street; Richie Cafe, 1 North Poplar Tent Items, says J. W. Barber South Union Street; and Carolina Cafe, 76 set 119 eggs and hatched 97 and calls South Union Street. The following cafes were handicap-reunion at Tampa, Fla., in tions were concerned, the report of April if they keep well and are able the insection states. Other cafes inspected scored the

Morris Cafe, West Street, 89.5 Kerr Street, 86.5; Smith's Cafe, 272 Elmer Yates was a welcome visitor McGill Street, 86; Big Bakers Little Ferris Cafe, 24 South Union Street, Myron Bruce was a welcome visitor 84.5; Forest Hill Cafe, 316 North at J. R. Ludwig's Sunday, March 20. Church Street, 82.5; Cabarrus Lunch Room, 286 West Borbin Street, 81.5; Milton's Cafe, 237 West Depot Street, 84.5; Dutch Lunch, 1 South Church Street, 80.5; Rogers' Cafe, 48 Buffalo Street, 78.5; Cline and Mabry, 51 South Union Street, 78; Laughlin's

> The colored cafes of the City com-Cafe, 200 Tournament Street, 90.5; Boger's Cafe, 91 Chestnut Street, 87; and Shinn's Cafe, 178 Tournament

ASSEMBLY ATTEND CHARLOTTE MEET

Members of Newly Organized Rainbow Assembly Visit Chapter in the Queen City.

Twenty-five girls, members of the Rainbow Assembly, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Towery, Miss Mary McKinley, Mrs. P. M. Lafferty and Mrs. J. W. Pike, spent part of Thursady evening in Charlotte visiting the Charlotte Chapter of the As-

The Concord girls derived much knowledge and pleasure in the initiations that were put on by the Charlotte In addition to learning what proceedure was followed at a meeting of the Assembly, the girls learned Chapter of the Assembly.

It is believed that Mrs. Donnie Rich Patton, State Deputy of the General Assembly, from Elon College, will be present at the meeting of the Concord Chapter to be held Friday, April 1.

Although recently organized, the Concord Assembly is manifesting a Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wensil and great deal of interest in the work and

The Study Club.

The members of the Study Club were delightfully entertained Thurs-In the passing of Mrs. Low Russell Coltrane at her home on North Union

The music room, where the meeting loss is her eternal gain. We offer was held, was lovely with quantities far as can be learned here but there our deepest sympathy to the bereaved of purple and white iries, breath of spring, pink hyacinths and violets. The program was in charge of Mrs.

W. M. Sherrill. Mrs. E. Sauvain read an article on the actors and stage in China. It is interesting to note that fell. the Chinese use no scenery. Each actor has to know from 20 to 200 parts. Mrs. Sherrill read the "Romance of Services Held at Harrisburg the Chinese Rug," which told how the Church of Which She Was rugs are made, and of what materials, a Member.—Was Ill On- Burks Withers, of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., present. They joined the club members for Funeral services for Mrs. Sam lunch, which was served in the dining Daffodils, and purple lilacs were used. / A delicious lunch was

The members present were

BURLINGTON WILL ENTERTAIN STATE S. S. DELEGATES

Annual State Sunday School Convention Will Be Held In Burlington Beginning March 26th.

On April 26, 27 and 28, Burlington s to be host to a large number of These workers will represent all evangelical denominations. The committees in charge o farrangements for the ive Sunday School convention held n the state in recent years. Through he local committee on arrangements of the lot a modern departmentally arn Burlington, it has been announced hat the church people of the city Building in the shape of the letter will furnish free lodging and break- T. The Church auditorium will face the convention is in the hands of the be constructed of tapestry brick of appointed some time ago at a meet- will call for the Auditorium and the ing of pastors, superintendents and Sunday School Building to be of about

The committee in charge of the program for the convention announces for the Sunday School building to and gir's from Scotia Seminary will that the program has been so arranged that officers and teachers in all departments of the Sunday School can get definite help for their work. There will be about $30,000. will be general sessions each morning and evening, when topics of interest to all Sunday School workers present buildings is so intense that will be discussed. The afternoons will be given over to departmental conferise is imperative, it was said today.

Rev. G. H. Hendry, the paster of work of each department of the Sun- the Church, and the official board are day School. The program committee further anounces that the following four Sun- felt need. day School specialists of continentwide reputation have already been se- | CONCORD NINE cured to speak in the convention, and that other prominent speakers will be added to he list: Dr. Norman E Richardson, Evanston, Ill., professor of Religious Education, Northwestern University; Mrs. Maud Junkin Baldwin, Philadelphia, Pa., supervisor of children's work for the United Luth eran Church; Dr. Percy R. Hayward Chicago, Ill., superintendent of young people's work for the International Council of Religious Education; Dr. Selon L. Roberts, Philadelphia, Pa. director of leadership training for the Northern Baptist Church.

J. C. GARMON IS DEAD AT HOME IN CABARRUS COUNTY

Had Been Ill For Several Apoplexy. — Funeral Services on Sunday.

John C. Garmon, one of the best known farmers of Cabarrus county, fied at his home in No. 1 township Friday night at 11:05 o'clock. had been in ill health for several years following a stroke of apoplexy, and his condition throughout the week had been critical. Funeral services were held Sun-ay afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Roberta Methodist Protestant Church, conducted by Rev. A. C. Lindley, of Liberty, N. C., assisted by the pastor, Rev Mr. Short. Interment was nade in the cemetery of the Church. Mr. Garmon was 70 years of age, having been born at Midland January 18, 1857, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Garmon. He was born and reared in No. 1 township and spent his entire life there, being successful as a farmer. Mr. Garmon was twice maried, his irst wife, Miss Sally Carriker having died in 1914. His second wife, who survives, was Mrs. Fannie L. Long. He was a member of the Roberta Methodist Protestant Church. Surviving in addition to his second wife, are the following children: Calvin and Mike Garmon, Mrs. H. F. Plott and Mrs. W. L. Blackwelder, all of Concord; Miss Carrie Garmon, of Charlotte; Mrs. W. P. Ritchie, of something of the work done by a Raleigh; J. B. Garmon, of Steadman, and O. B. Garmon, of Reidsville.

NO SNOW AND ICE IN CABARRUS BUT PLENTY OF FROST

Snow Fell in Charlotte and Nearby Cities Thursday Afternoon. — Low Temperatures in County.

That King Winter is still hanging around was evidenced in this section day afternoon by Miss Jenn Winslow Thursday and Friday when snow and frosts were reported in various parts of the Piedmont section. There was no snow in Cabarrus s was a heavy frost which it is feared caused heavy damage to fruit and

Snow fell in Charlotte Thursday afternoon but melted as rapidly as it From Lancaster, Rock Hill and other points in South Carolina come reports of light snows and heavy

No ice was reported in Concord despite the fact that the mercury tumbled below the freezing point. One thermometer in the city registered 30 degrees at 7:15 Friday morning. This is two points below freezing but there was no evidence of ice.

Blick Alexander Sells Broilers. Mooresville Enterprise.

he received 45 cents per pound. These are milk-fed chicks and averaged two

PLANNING NEW PLANT AT FIRST METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

Be Held Third Sunday in April to Discuss Building of New Plant.

After a number of preliminary meetings the official board of the First Sunday School workers from all parts Methodist Protestant Church unanat the annual convention of the North Church a building program that would Carolina Sunday School Association. give the church and Sunday School o'clock. Departments a modern building. If the propsed building program is carried out it would mean that the convention are of the opinion that his parsonage would be removed and the present Church building would be salvill be the best and most representaall buildings. It is planned to build in the center

ranged Church and Sunday School

fast for all delegates to the conven- on Ann Street and the Sunday School Building wil face on Moore Street. It is propsed that the new buildings other Sunday School leaders in that the same dimensions over all, each to be sufficiently large to accomodate 500 persons. The proposed plans call have a finished basementt with two stories above. It is to be steam heated and have plumbing of modern character. It is estimated that the cost

> The crowded condition in both the Church and Sunday School of the some move as the propsed new plant very optimistic over the outlook for the new Church which will fill a long

DEFEATS TEAM OF DAVIDSON

Local High School Team Wins Opening Game of

Davidson High in the opening game G. M. Hudson, of Concord, Grady, of the season on the home lot by the Marshall and M. L. Brown, Richard score of ten to six Friday afternoon. Newell, Harry and Richard Joyner, Although twenty errors showed the of the county. lack of practice by both teams, the game was hotly contested and filled eral procession, led by the pastors, with many thrills.

the fourth inning the locals were never in doubt of victory. The thing ty and other places up a very strong and substantial staff.
This was proven when Williams, a young right hander, stepped in the box and called himself papa for he was never in a close place. Black-welder a new close place. Black-welder a new close place. welder, a new comer in high school Mr. Loftin and Rev. W. A. Newell, baseball, showed that the right stuff was in him and many eyes will rest ate remarks bearing record of her upon him behind the plate during the remainder of the season. Melchor also example. played an unusually good game, fielding a very difficult chance and getting of Mr. Newell as he spoke with great two of the locals five hits.

fective and was the outstanding star tions he had known her, how her of the visitors, sealing two doubles off Christian influence had affected the of Williams' delivery and sending lives of all who knew her, always eighteen of Concord's batters back quiet, unassuming, she went about doto the bench by the strike out route. ing good and walking in the Master's Mooney also played a fine game for steps. Her Bible was a constant the visitors.

Through the return of seven letter men and many newcomers of practically equal strength, it look as though the locals should send out a band and children and all who knew team that should set the state afire. her have "risen up to call her bless Luck to you; we're all behind you.

Summary: Two base hits, Wilson liam, 13. Hit by pitcher, by Wilson, teem of her host of friends. Cochrane 8. Stolen bases, Concord 14; Davidson 5. Hits off Wilson, 5 SHEEP HUSBANDRY in 8 1-2 innings. Hits off Williams, 7 in 9 innings. Winning pitcher, Williams. Losing pitcher, Wilson. Time of game: 2:10. Umpires, Hitt and McCauley.

Score by illings: Davidson101 020 011-6 7 12 Concord010 132 03x-10 5 8 Batteris: Wilson and McClemore, Williams and Blackwelder.

FORMAL OPENING OF HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING At Mt. Pleasant to Take Place Next Tuesday Night.

There will be a formal opening of Pleasant next Tuesday night, which exercise the patrons and parcordially invited.

school unit of the county school, in-demonstrations. cludes in its area townships No. 6, 7 and 8, also parts of townships 9 and to show the farmers that sheep always

The following invitation is being sent out to patrons of the high school. The County Board of Education and the Teachers

> Mount Pleasant High School request your presence at the formal opening of the High School Building Tuesday Night, March twenty-ninth 7:30-9:00.

High officials of the regular army Washington and Atlanta, lead-Guard activities ers in National Blick Alexander, who farms, runs from a number of towns in a filling station and raises chickens Carolina, Governor A. W. McLean, The members present were: at his home east of Mooresville three of this State, and numerous others Mesdames D. L. Bost, I. I. Davis, miles out on the Salisbury-Prospect in civil life will be distinguished

PLANNING FOR 200 WOMEN AND GIRLS TO ATTEND DINNER

Congregational Meeting to Entertaining Programs Be- Had Been Ill For Several Dr. D. G. Caldwell Welcoming Prepared For Mother and Daughter Meeting to Be Held Tuesday.

Announcement was made today that the meeting of the women and girls Funeral services were held Friday in Concord making inspections of the will be a very entertaining one with a variety of forms of entertainment being given during the evening. short addresses but that none of the talks would last over five minutes. The musical part of the program will be featured, it was said. Davidson College orchestra will be present and play during the dinner and for the reception which follows. In addition to the orchestra music will be furnished by a novelty quarcommittee on arrangements, which was scratched joints. The propsed plans tette, a violin soloist, and a trio of singers. Two young women of Queens College, Charlotte, will also put on a short program of entertainment.

> The tables for the dinner will placed in the ball room of the hotel act as waitresses, it was said today. H. W. Blanks, secretary of the Y M. C. A., said today that every woman and girl in this community was invited to attend the dinner. the dinner may be secured from any member of the Hi-G Club or from the offices of the "Y"

Funeral Services for Mrs. W. M

Funeral services for the late Mrs W. M. Dorton, who died Thursday evening at her home near Flowe's Store, were held Friday afternoon at 3:30 at Boger's Chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. A. G. Loftin, her pastor, assisted by Rev. W. A. Newell, of Mt. Airy, a nephew of the deceased, and Rev. Mr. Avery, of Mocksville.

The Dorton home being very near the church, the casket was carried by alternate sets of pall-bearers, nephews the Season From David- of Mrs. Dorton, as follows: Clifford son High by Score 10 to 6. Newell, of Charlotte, Ralph Horton, of Salisbury, J. S. Dorton, of Shelby, Concord High baseball defeated the Jas. E. Dorton, E. W. Biggers and Unique and beautiful was this funfollowed by about twenty flower girls, The invaders took an early lead, nieces of the deceased and a large but the High's settled down and after concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends from various parts of the coun including Sal Years Following Stroke of Apoplexy. — Funeral Ser- little pitching material, the locals feel Rockingham, Concord, Winston-Salsure that Coach Richards has built em, and Mt. Airy. During the fun-

each making beautiful and appropriimpeachable christian character and Especially touching were the words emotion of "Aunt Annie." Wilson, a port sider, was very ef- ing how from his earliest recolleccompanion and guide and she truly accepted it in the faith of a little child. With this same faith she took all her joys and sorrows to Him in

Many beautiful floral designs were Struck out, by Wilson, 18; Wil- silent testimonials to the love and es-

TO BE DISCUSSED AT IREDELL MEET

Many Farmers of Cabarrus County Are Expected to Go With County Agent to Meeting at Statesville.

A large number of farmers of Cabarrus County are expected to go with R. D. Goodman, county agent, to a meeting to be held at Statesville, Wednesday, April 6, for farmers who raise sheep.

The meeting, according to an an the new High School building at Mt. nouncement by R. D. Goodman, will to be held at the Piedmont Branch Experiment Station,. The morning of ents of the high school district are the day of the meeting will be devoted to practical talks on sheep husbandry This high school, the largest high and the afternoon will be given to

> The object of the meeting will be pay under proper management as they return two profits, one for lambs and one for wool.

The following is a tenative program for the meeting: At the morning features of the evening. session:

Sheep on the Branch Farm, F. T. Meacham; Sheep for Piedmont Farmers, E. S. Milsaps; Winter Care of Ewes, R. S. Curtis; Attention Needed During Lambing Period, George R. Evans; Best Pastures for Sheep, A. R. Morrow; Marketing Lambs for Wool, V. W. Lewis.

The afternoon session will include the following: Sheep Shearing and Wool Tying Demonstration; Drench-North ing Demonstrations for the prevention of stomach worms; Docking and Castrating Demonstration. Where Tennason Wrote "Maud."

London, March 26 .- Harrington Hall, in Lincolnshire, where Tenny- found, son is supposed to have been inspired

MRS. DORTON DIES AT COUNTRY HOME AT FLOWE'S STORE

Days at Her Home.—Funeral Services Held at Boger's Chapel Church.

Arrangements are being made to Mrs. Sophia Dorton, well known care for approximately 200 women woman of the Flowe's Store communand girls at the Mother and Daughter ity, died at her home Thursday night Pow Wow which will be held at Ho- at 7:30 from pneumonia with which the luncheon meeting of the Concortel Concord Tuesday evening at 7 she had been ill for a week. Her condition had been critical for several days.

at three o'clock at Boger's Chapel, of which she had been an active member for many years. Interment was was said that there would be several made in the cemetery of the church. the eating places of Concord and Kan-Mrs. Dorton was 73 years of age, napolis show a great improvement having been born in Cabarrus county over what they were a few years ago.

> life in this county. The deceased was married fifty years a result will command a much better ago to M. W. Dorton, who survives. grade than they did a few years ago." Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. W. G. Newell, of this county, and the following children: Walter B., James R., M. Lawrence and Jarrell Dorton, all of this county, and Misses of North Carolina, Mr. McLeod said: Margaret, Josephine and Mamie Dorton, all of this county.

CABARRUS COTTON CROP TOTAL MUCH LARGER THAN 1925

So Far 19.012 -Bales Have -Final Report Made.

than the 1925 crop. This fact is established in figures carried in the final ginners' report state have recently put in water and for the Census Bureau. From the sewer sysem, Mr. McLeod said. 1925 crop 13.449 bales were ginned in Cabarrus while from the 1926 crop

19.012 bales were ginned. bales against 1.147,340 bales in 1925. Totals in adjoining counties, with the 1926 total being first, are:

Davidson 2.943 against 2,330; Gason 13.489 against 8,856; Iredell 23,-352 against 16,766; Lincoln 16,555 against 12,053; Mecklenburg 31,557 against 21,984; Montgomery 9,194 terson sang "Going Home" as her first 15,706; Staply 15,072 against 9,578; and Union 36,957 against 24,447.

Miss Betsy Davis was hostess Fri- plause. day evening at an informal dance at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Plyler Writes of His Visit to I. I. Davis. Apple blossoms and other spring flowers added their beauty to the lowthrown en suite for dancing. Delightful refreshments were serv- lows about his visit in his paper: ed during the evening.

Laura Mac Sapp, Annie Louise Hoo-Davis, and Ruth Dayvault and George

Surprise Birthday Party. Mrs. R. C. Brown delightfully enome on Kerr street. After many interesting games were eph Canon and Reid Craven.

Those enjoying Mrs. Brown's hos- of 50 and 60 years of his experience itality were; Daisy Furr, Margaret as if all these years were but a hand's Brown, Ethel Howard, Mobe Jenkins, breadth. Ruby Furr, Helen Hinson, Kathleen Teeter, Lilian Eudy, Louise Brown, Rose Hagler, Willie Nash, Eugene ing by Mrs. L. E. Beaver. Celebrates Birthday Anniversary. Miss Nancy Dayvault, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dayvault, entertained nine friends Friday evening at a dinner party at her home on South Union street, casion celebrated the twelfth birthday anniversary of the hostess.

Craig Brown.

The lovely color scheme of yellov and white was carried out in every detail of the beautifully appointed course dinner. The birthday cake, holding twelve candles, was one of the Miss Dayvault's guests included Misses Mary McKay, Lorraine Blanks, Elizabeth Parks, Louise Parks, Ida Patterson, Helen Grady, Lilian Smith, Caroline Ivey and Nancy Haywood. Small Quantity of Liquor Found. County officers found a small quantity of liquor in No. 1 township Friday and poured it into the sewer Sat-There was a little than half a gallon, the liquor having just the same, the Lutheran denomibeen found under some cotton seed nation being one of the strongest in in a seed house.

The officers did not make known the name of the man operating the farm on which the contraband was

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown returned as New Member of the Club.-Miss Helen Patterson Sings.

McLEOD SPEAKS AT KIWANIS LUNCHEON HELD HERE FRIDAY

J. A. McLeod, inspector or the State board of health with headquarters at Raleigh, was the principal speaker at Kiwanis Club held Friday at Hotel

Mr. McLeod, who spent two days eating places of the city and Kannaplis, told something of what the inspec tion had shown. "The condition of on December 25, 1853. She was a The proprietors of the places are co daughter of the late Rush and Betsy operating in every way that they can Boger Hudson and spent her entire with the city health officials to better the conditions in their places and as

In speaking of the improvement in the water and sewer connections made in Concord and other towns and cities "A few years ago on one street in Concord there were only two houses that had sewer connections and today there are only 25 or 30 houses or buildings in the entire city limits that do not have sewer connections. The improvements in the sewers and city water supply of the cities. with other improvements for the health of the community, have done much to Been Ginned in Cabar- make the death rate of the last few rus From the 1926 Crop. years considerable lower than it was ten years ago. "The Bureau of Vital Statistics shows that the death rate The 1926 cotton crop in Cabarrus has dropped in the last few years from was approximately one-third greater 24.2 per hundred thousand to 9.6 per hundred thousand," Mr. McLeod said. One hundred towns and cities in the

Dr. D. G. Caldwell, county health officer, said that in making an inspection in Concord and Kannapolis during the last two days with Mr. There was an increase in the state during the last two days with Mr. also, the 1926 total being 1,238,180 McLeod that he noticed the recent improvements that have been made. The program of the meeting Friday was in charge of Ebb White and C. H. Barrier. Mr. Barrier intro duced Miss Helen Patterson, who, ac companied on the piano by Mrs. Leslie against 6,145; Rowan 18,191 against number and then sendered "I Love a 15,706; Stanly 15,072 against 9,578; Lassie," 'a Scotch number by Sir Harry Lauder, the noted Scotch singer and entertainer. Both the num-Informal Dance Given Friday Eve. bers were enjoyed with the number of Lauder's receiving the greatest ap-

Correll, sang two solos. Miss Pat-

Concord Rev. A. W. Plyler, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate of er floor of the Davis home, which was Greensboro, was an honored visitor to Concord last week and writes as fol-Upon invitation of the

The guests present were: Misses Adelaide Foil, Askins Ivey, Frances Tuesday evening of this week to at-Rowan, Mary Cannon, Billy Sapp, tend a meeting of that choice group Laura Mae Sapp, Annie Louise Hoo, of Methodist laymen. Some of the ver, Mary Lore Flowe, Minnie Hill ladies of the church—their names did not learn, but these names should Patterson, Burnett Lewis, E. F. Cor. be engraven in letters of gold-served rell, Eugene Hoover, Charles Kestler, a shad supper. And what a supper it Fred Howard, Mumpford Ritchie, was! Great plates of fried shad, pip Frances Pickard, Alex MacFadyen, ing hot, corn bread of like quality, John Brown, Rufus Brown, Alex delicious co.d slaw and coffee with Brown and Clarkson Brown, of Gas- the aroma of that famous bean when onia, Jim Willeford, Sinclair Wil- in the hands of our expert coffee iams, Chal White, Jack Whitefi Day- makers, combined to make such a supid Crowell, Livingstone Easley, Jos- per as John Wesley never tasted even in his eventful sojourn at Savannah, Georgia. That Wesley Brotherhood composed of lawyers, doctors, editors, bankers, ained her son, Craig, at a surprise merchants, manufacturers and men of pirthday party Friday night at her sundry other occupations has Lee Crowell, Jr., a young lawyer, for its president and he is strictly on his job played the guests were invited into John B. Sherrill, conspicuous and honthe dining room. In the center of the ored among the editors and publishers table the birthday cake with its fif- of North Carolina, shows his appreciateen pink candles set in pink rosebud tion of his church paper, the pastor colders and surrounded by ferns and told me, by sending it to all memapple blossoms made a very pretty bers of the church who are not able able decoration. The guests were ser- to pay. Brother D. B. Coltrane is ved ice cream, cake, pickles and fruit. the dean of those laymen, who talks

Rev. R. M. Courtney, the pastor, is doing the same high grade work at Concord that has characterized his en-McLaurin, Spencer Barnhardt, Leroy tire ministerial career, which has been Lowder, Oscar Mann, James Black- one of unbroken success. He has sewelder, Carl Furr, Charles Surner, cured $1,000 as his mission special, Derwood Cline, Thayer Brown and will hold revival services just before Easter, with M. F. Miles, of Enfield, Mrs. Brown was assisted in serv- as the leader of the music, and the pastor will preach. The people have only words of praise for their pastor whom they love and delight to follow in every good It was a real pleasure to work.

spend an hour with this choice spirit. Lutheran Conference at West Hick-The Western Conference of the March 29th and 30th, in West Hickory Lutheran Church, Rev. R. M. Carpenter, pastor. Many phases of the church work will come up for consideration at this meeting, the conference embracing all

Lutheran Synod of North Carolina will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, the churches in the western part of the state. J. A. B. Goodman, of Mooresville, s booked for a talk Wednesday mornng, his subject being: "What can and may the Lutheran Church do to reach more of the unchurched?" Cabarrus churches are not in the western conference but the work of the conference will be of interest here Cabarrus county.

ton Lumber Company, Baltimore, Md., spent Friday with his brother, S. A. Wolff, on Tribune street.

D. M. Wolff, secretary of the Can-