LEGISLATURE OF 1927 EXPENSIVE TO STATE

Famous Economy Body Did Not Hold Down Its Own Expense Account.

The $12,568 bonus voted by the last Legislature in bonuses to its employees put it over the top as the most expensive General Assembly in the history of the state.

The combined expenses for the 1924 special session and the 1925 regular session amounted to $165,528 and the bills already paid for the 1927 Legislature bring the total to $165,000, and there are still some outstanding accounts.

The estimated expenses of the 1927 session, outside of printing, estimated at $116,754, and the actual amount paid out so far is $129,257.31, the difference being $12,493, which is almost identically the same as the amount of bonuses paid. If no bonuses had been paid, the estimate would have been substantially correct.

The Legislature appropriated $125,000 for its expenses, and this amount has already been exceeded by $5,000. If no bonus had been paid, there would have been a balance left; as it stands there is a deficit.

Original estimate as to the cost of printing was $50,000, which was subsequently reduced to $31,500. The printing bills are not yet all available, but the printing costs will run up to $35,000. This will bring the total to $165,000, but there are other items to be paid that will bring it in excess of that amount. The various items follow:

Printing (estimate)	$35,000.00
Enrolling office (both houses)	10,661.85
Investigation (visiting State institutions)	627.19
Rent and equipment	1,024.50
Senate per diem for members	12,360.00
Senate mileage for members	1,442.40
Senate personal service	29,231.50
Senate miscellaneous expenses	2,891.39
House per diem for members	28,928.00
House mileage for members	3,801.00
House personal service	34,401.60
House miscellaneous expenses	3,287.88
Total	$164,257.31

The expenses for the Legislature as summarized for each branch follow:

Enrolling office and equipment	$ 12,913.54
Senate (members and employees)	45,925.00
House (members and employees)	70,418.77
Total	$129,257.31

As stated above, there are still items for expenses though the members of both houses have been paid off.

Barrier, Jr., Buford Misenheimer, Dugan Misenheimer, Ray Lippard, Spencer Barnhardt, Harold Fisher and Roy Watts, and Misses Margaret Ellen Mabry, Nellie Blackwelder, Mary Alice Moore, Helen Bostian, Ponza Fuller, Idaleine Martin, Robbie Misenheimer, Margaret Royster and Mary King Hathcox; and by baptism and confirmation Misses Dorcas and Edith Love. The pastor announced the following receptions by letter from other churches: Mr. and Mrs. M. Hugh Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Goodman and Kenneth Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mrs. Carl Moore, Mrs. Howard Untz and Mrs. Zela Misenheimer. The following were received in recent Sundays by letter: Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Hartwood, Misses Elizabeth and Louise Hayward, Sam Harwood, Mrs. D. C. Dayvault, Lee Blackwelder, Mr. and Mrs. George Barnhardt and Miss Ruby Barnhardt.

The pastor states that the attendance at all services, beginning at the early service at 6 a. m., when 145 members and friends were present and closing with the evening service exceeds that of any other day the church has had excepting the day of the formal opening of the new church more than a year ago. The total attendance at the two communion services far exceeds any communion service. The members were moved with a spirit of joy, many expressing their surprise as well as their praise. Especially was this so since the services were planned, not for a big day, but for the praise of God on Easter Day. The music by the choir at the main service at 11 a. m. was very much appreciated. The music at all services added much to the spirit of praise.

FAIR THIS YEAR WILL BE BIGGEST IN ITS HISTORY

Many New and Better Attractions Will Be Added at 1927 County Fair, Is Announcement made.

The Cabarrus County Fair, which will be held this year October 11th to 15th, will be the biggest and best in the history of Cabarrus fairs, it was announced here today by an official of the Cabarrus County Fair Association.

In speaking of the 1927 fair, the official said: "There is no doubt but that the Cabarrus County Fair this year will be the largest in the South. We have strengthened every phase of fair, and have added new and larger attractions. Due to the fact that the attractions at the fair this year will be so much larger, it will necessitate the moving of many of the home concessions to make more room for the big attractions."

The Rubin-Cherry Company, the largest organization that will play in the South this year, will be at the local fair offering a midway that will be twice as large as any that has previously played here. This company carries about forty cars of paraphernalia, and the Cabarrus fair will be the only stop it will make in this state. They will play the Virginia State Fair the week before and the South Carolina State Fair the week after they are here, it was said.

The free acts are all booked and the fair will have this year the biggest line of free attractions ever held here, it was stated. Some of the attractions booked are: "The Riding Room," a feature of the Reading, Pa., Fair, and will return immediately after the fair here to Allentown, Pa., this being their only appearance in the south. "Fred's Pigs," the educated pigs. This attraction was at the Barnum and Bailey circus for a number of years. "Gaudsmiths," a comedy acrobatic act which features all kinds of acrobatic stunts, air circles and flips in the air; "Watson's Comedy Dogs," a group of educated dogs in an act; "Levan Rome and Van," a comedy acrobatic troupe with lots of stunts; "La Nole," in the famous high ladder act, which is a thriller; and "Chic Overfield" in a tight wire performance.

The fireworks, always one of the chief attractions at the fair, will be put on by the Ohio Display Fireworks Company, and a complete change of program will be offered each night of the fair, it was said.

Last year six counties competed for premiums offered at the fair. The counties were: Cabarrus, Rowan, Stanly, Mecklenburg, Iredell and Union. This year three more counties have been added to the list, Montgomery, Anson and Davie, which makes a total of nine counties that will compete this year.

It is planned that this year the community singing contest will be made one of the main features of the fair. This contest was held last year and much interest was manifested. The schools of the city and county have asked for more room this year and it will be given them, it was said. This promises that there will be more exhibits offered than ever before.

Also the Berkshire hog show, which has always attracted much interest, will be on a greater scale, and many hogs will be exhibited.

SPECIAL SERVICES FOR EASTER HELL AT FIRST BAPTIST

A Special Program of Music Was Given to Celebrate the Day of Resurrection of Christ.

Special services were held Sunday at the First Baptist Church by Rev. C. Herman Trueblood, the pastor.

A feature of the services was the numbers given by the church choir. The numbers rendered by the choir, under the direction of G. F. Agee, were greatly enjoyed and the congregation, by vote, requested that the musical program which was presented be repeated next Sunday.

At the morning service, Mr. Trueblood preached on the subject of "What is a Christian?" and at the evening hour a brief message was delivered on "Personal Easter." At the evening service four new members were received into the church and seventeen were baptised.

The number received into the membership of the church and those baptised are the partial result of the ten days series of meetings that were conducted at the church by the pastor and Dr. John R. Jester, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Winston-Salem.

Death of Mrs. Hettie Coley.

Mrs. Hettie Coley, of Concord, died at 12:10 a. m. Sunday while visiting at the home of a son in Charlotte. She was 56 years of age, having been born July 6, 1868.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. F. J. Atkinson; four sons, J. M. C. G. F. G. and H. L. Coley; one brother, W. L. McCorkle; and two sisters, Mrs. A. A. Gilbert and Miss Maggie McCorkle.

Mrs. Coley lived in Concord with her son, C. G. Coley, and had been in declining health following a stroke of apoplexy suffered three weeks ago. She was a member of the McGill Street Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 in the First Baptist Church at Newton.

SERVICES CLOSE AT THE CENTRAL CHURCH SUNDAY

Evangelistic Meetings Close at the Central Methodist Church With the Sunday Service.

The Evangelistic services, which have been conducted at the Central Methodist Church here for the past week by the pastor, Rev. R. M. Courtney, came to a close at the evening service Sunday.

These services have been conducted twice a day, at eight o'clock in the morning and seven-thirty in the evening, and have been attended by large congregations throughout the week. The early morning services were especially well attended, this being an hour of the day that was most suitable for the business men, and also a time when one seemed to feel more the Spirit of God, it was said by Mr. Courtney.

As last week was Holy week, the subjects at the morning services dwelt about the Cross of Christ, which was very fitting during the week preceding Easter, the day which is celebrated as the resurrection day of Jesus Christ. The evening services were given over to a study of "The Person and Work of the Holy Spirit."

A special Easter service was conducted Sunday morning, at which time four members were taken into the church on profession of faith. The members received were: Lillian Batte, Rebecca Bodenheimer, Edward Davis and Carol Hayward.

Mr. Courtney in speaking on the results of the week's messages said, "I am sure that a Spiritual toning up of the congregations attending has taken place, and the services were a great success in every way."

LANDIS GIRL WAS KILLED SATURDAY WHEN HIT BY CAR

Mary Frances Goble, Aged Five, Fatally Struck By Car Driven by H. C. Deal At Landis.

Mary Frances Goble, five-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Goble, of Landis, was killed Saturday afternoon when struck by an automobile on the national highway in Landis. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Landis Methodist Church and interment made in Greenlawn cemetery at China Grove.

The child was born in Salisbury on September 9, 1921, but had lived in Landis for the past several years. She died almost immediately after being struck by the car about 5:30 Saturday afternoon.

Reports from Landis said the car which struck the girl was driven by H. C. Deal, of Charlotte. The little girl, say the reports, stepped from behind a wagon directly in front of the car and Mr. Deal could not stop his car before striking her. So far as is known in Landis no arrests were made in the case, several eye witnesses being quoted as saying the accident was unavoidable. Mr. Deal and two women companions were en route to Winston-Salem to attend the Easter services and they were allowed to proceed after Coroner Summersett, of Rowan, made an inquiry, witnesses telling the coroner that the accident was unavoidable.

"Children of Divorce" Cast Holds Group of Headliners

Hedda Hopper ran away from her home in Antona, Pennsylvania, to realize her theatrical ambitions. She arrived on Broadway when she was eighteen and because of her peculiar type of beauty was given a part in Edgerton Selwyn's production "The Country Boy" before completing the rounds of the booking offices. Following the close of this show she was cast in "The Quarker Girl" and next in "The Matinee Idol."

It was in this De Wolfe Hopper starring vehicle that she met the noted actor and they were married after a whirlwind courtship conducted behind the footlights. The young actress became much in demand both on the stage and at the New York studios. At one time she played a part in "Six Cylinder Love" while appearing in three motion pictures,—"Sherlock Holmes" with John Barrymore and in two independent productions, simultaneously.

She came to Hollywood in 1924 as a free lance player. Her first part for Paramount was in the Frank Lloyd production "Children of Divorce" in which she plays Mrs. Flannery, Clara Bow's mother. Miss Bow is co-starred with Esther Ralston. "Children of Divorce" reaches the Star Theatre today. Gary Cooper, Einar Hanson and Norman Trevor are featured. Special Easter picture.

ONE KILLED AS TWO CARS CRASH

Paul Lackie, of Statesville, Victim of Accident in Greensboro.

Greensboro, Apr. 16.—Paul Lackie, 20, Statesville man, was instantly killed at 7:45 o'clock here tonight when a Ford coupe occupied by him and two other Statesville young men crashed with a Ford coupe occupied by two young men and one woman from Jamestown.

John H. Modlin, John Slack and Miss Blue Smith, those in the Jamestown car, are all unconscious in a local hospital, with Modlin suffering from a punctured lung and internal wounds. Miss Smith hurt internally, and Slack about half-conscious, but apparently not as badly hurt as his two companions. Russell Kennedy, 20, driver of the coupe, is being held by the police pending investigation, but charges will likely not be filed against him tonight.

There is no indication that the members of either party were under the influence of whisky. Kennedy is not hurt outside of bruises and scratches.

Infant Operated on For Appendicitis in N. C. Hospital

Lenoir, April 17.—An operation on a baby three months and ten days old for appendicitis was one of the outstanding occurrences at the Caldwell hospital here. The operation was performed by Dr. J. D. Huddisill and the baby is getting along nicely, according to Dr. C. Baues McNairy, who was present at the operation, and will be able to be taken home in a few days, perfectly recovered. The little patient was the baby of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlton of Patterson. As soon as discovery was made that the child was afflicted with this trouble the parents brought it to the local hospital.

Grocers who charge exorbitant prices are now penalized by the Paris police, who deprive offenders from showing their wares on the pavement outside their shops.

Miss Ethel Honaker has returned from a few days visit in Washington, D. C.

Resentment Against Wage

Raleigh, April 16.—The resentment has been stirred in many of the state employes most recent memorandum by the Salary and Wage Commission, and signed by Julian Pritchard, in which department cautioned against employers of families of state employes. It further calls on department to notify the Salary and Wage Commission of their intention before any person is employed.

The more radical of the employes, always rabid in their general knowledge as the "salary commission," are particularly at this latest order, able to line with the "populist" in this last legislature. Grier. Some even have urged the legislature abdicate all entire powers over to the wage commission.
