C. H. S. BEATEN BY SPENCER IN A 12 INNING GAME

Coach Richard's Changes the Infield Lineup—Defeated in a Very Close and Well-Played Game.

The Concord High School baseball nine went down in defeat before the Spencer high Thursday afternoon at Spencer, in what is known as a "heart breaker," by the score of 3 to 2, after the game had gone twelve innings.

Both teams played good ball throughout the close and hard-fought game. Very few errors were made and the two teams were about equal in hitting, Spencer registering twelve to nine hits for Concord. Coach Richards used a different lineup in the infield, which worked nicely for Concord.

Captain Watts, for Concord, played well around the initial sack, while Nash and Saunders each made beautiful catches. Williams, in the box for the locals, pitched an excellent game, and as for batting honors Melchor got his share with three doubles, a single and a base off balls, out of five trips to the bat.

For the Spencer team, Lanning and Robinson did nice infield work, while Self made two grandstand catches of distant foul balls.

Summary: Score—Spencer, 3; Concord, 2. Hits off Williams, 12; off Grossman, 9. Errors, Spencer, 2; Concord, 2.

SOUTHERN TO PAY $10,200 VERDICT IN LOMAX'S SUIT

Verdict Returned in Davidson Court as Result of Accident Which Occurred in Landis in 1925.

Because of the death of Charles Lomax, young man of Thomasville, at a grade crossing at Landis, May 20, 1925, the Southern Railway was assessed damages in the sum of $10,200 by a jury in Davidson county superior court at Lexington Thursday afternoon. The case was brought against the railroad by J. H. Harrison and L. M. Lomax, administrators of Charles Lomax. The amount asked for in the suit was $40,300.

Young Lomax was killed while crossing the main line of the Southern, in an automobile, having with him Miss Pauline Caster, a young woman of Faith, the car in which they were riding being struck by a passenger locomotive.

Young Lomax and Miss Caster had just secured marriage license and were on their way to a minister to get married when the accident happened. He was killed outright and Miss Caster was seriously injured and for a time it was thought she would die. She was under treatment in the Salisbury Hospital about a year.

HOTEL CONCORD HAD A FIRE IS REPORT GIVEN

Hotel Magazine Mentions Recent Fire in Room of Concord Hotel and Tells of Fire Proof Buildings.

Fire recently originated in one of the guest rooms at Hotel Concord, but due to the fireproof construction of the building the flames were confined to the room in which it started, it was made known here today.

C. R. Wenrick, manager of Hotel Concord, in reporting the fire, stated: "Hotel Advertising of a few years ago always carried the line 'Fireproof' whenever it could be used, although in more than one case or instance it was a misnomer."

"More attention is being paid to guests protection today than ever before, and the wisdom of this was exemplified recently in Concord when a fire originated in one of the guest rooms of Hotel Concord," said Mr. Wenrick.

Commenting upon the incident, "The Hotel World," Chicago, remarks editorially: "Modern hotel construction was given a severe test a week or so ago when a guest of the Hotel Concord, Concord, N. C., set fire to his room on the second floor by smoking in bed, the occupant while not badly burned was aroused by another guest who discovered the fire by smelling smoke in the hall tracing it to his door."

By the time Mr. Wenrick, the manager, could get to the room the mattress and bed clothing were in flames. Yet the fire was confined to the one room, no other spot was even damaged.

Fire may occur, by carelessness or misfortune, almost anywhere. One occupant of a hotel room has no protection against the negligence of another of the hundreds around him or her. But they do have protection against the results of that negligence with current construction and current protection. He is safer from fire in a modern hotel than in his own apartment.

CANTATA A SUCCESS

"Olivet to Calvary" One of Best Cantatas Ever Rendered in Concord.

The sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," by J. H. Maunder, rendered by St. James Lutheran choir Thursday evening, was one of the best ever rendered in the city of Concord. This cantata was based on the passion history of Christ, showing Him on His triumphant march to the city of Jerusalem, and as He stands on the hill overlooking the city He weeps over it. Then He goes into the city and faces the opposition of the people. At evening He crosses the Kedron and goes out to Olivet. Here the chorus showed Him in His deepest sorrows. Then the approach of the soldiers with the clashing swords and torches, followed by the tragedy of His arrest. This particular part was interpreted by the choir with much feeling. One of the best features was shown in the march movement of the soldiers from the judgment hall to Calvary which was introduced by the piano and organ and later taken up by chorus of voices.

The solo parts, by Mrs. Nick Sloan, one of Charlotte's leading sopranos, Wm. Monroe, professional varitone singer, of Charlotte, and Miss Valeta Stout, head of the music department at Scotia Seminary, were interpreted with much feeling as only artists can do.

The organ and piano parts by Dr. H. A. Stirewalt and Mrs. J. Leslie Correll, were wonderfully given by these splendid musicians.

Easter Meeting of Study Club.

The meeting of the Study Club held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. R. B. Rankin was particularly enjoyable. Several important business matters were disposed of. After the reading of the minutes by Mrs. D. L. Bost, Mrs. C. A. Cannon gave the origin of the Easter celebration, both the serious and the frivolous sides. This was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Rankin then invited her guests into the dining room, where a pretty picture met their view. Brightly colored Easter eggs nestled in a mound of green, formed the center decoration of the table, while Easter place cards and small rabbits, and chickens marked each guest's place. An elegant luncheon was served.

Those enjoying Mrs. Rankin's hospitality were: Mesdames I. L. Davis, D. L. Bost, E. Savanion, E. E. Jones, W. M. Sherrill, C. A. Cannon and C. B. Wagoner, and Miss Mary King.

LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO AID INTERURBAN PLANS

Will Do Anything They Can But Can't Have Not Been Asked to Do Anything, Secretary Points Out

The Concord Chamber of Commerce is ready to offer any possible aid to officials of the Piedmont and Northern Railway in their efforts to secure rights of way across Cabarrus county, but officials of the chamber have not been asked to aid in this work in several months, it was stated Saturday by Dr. T. N. Spencer, secretary of the chamber, when asked about a proposed meeting of chamber of commerce officials in Lexington this week.

"When it first became known that the P. & N. might extend its lines through this county we offered full co-operation," Dr. Spencer continued, "and conferred with the interurban officials on several occasions. Rights of way were secured in most instances in Cabarrus and surveys have been made on two proposed routes across the county. We have not been asked by P. & N. officials for assistance in several months, and I know of nothing we can do to further the extension plans."

When asked about land values increasing in Cabarrus county, Dr. Spencer said that no complaint to this effect had been lodged with the chamber by the P. & N. If officials of the interurban have found land owners asking more for their land now than they did when the proposition first came up we have heard nothing of it," Dr. Spencer said.

Dr. Spencer pointed out that several property owners in the county had asked more for rights of way than the rail company wanted to pay but he expressed the belief that the differences could be settled if a determined effort was made. "The chamber of commerce offered to aid in such cases but we have not been called upon for any such aid," he added.

The secretary of the local chamber stated that he and other local members were ready to attend any conference that might be called by the Salisbury, Lexington and Winston-Salem chambers for the purpose of discussing new developments in the project. This conference has been suggested, it was pointed out, because there is one report current that the P. & N. might route its extension from Charlotte to Durham via Stanley and Randolph counties instead of through the upper territory.

It is known that the P. & N. has had a corps of surveyors in this county in recent weeks, with practically all of their work confined to the Poplar Tent neighborhood. A report was current in that community that actual construction work was to begin in a few weeks and that farmers and their teams had been engaged by the interurban for this work. There is no substantiation for such reports, latest developments show.

Many Concord people wonder if the P. & N. really plans to build the extension any time soon and the various delays and excuses offered by the company have served to decrease interest in the proposed extension through this county.

FINDS GREAT SYMPATHY AMONG CONCORD PEOPLE

Stranger Says Everybody Here Seems to Be "A Friend to Man."

I hope that Mrs. Johnson and I may be allowed space in your valuable paper in which to express our thanks to the good people of Concord and vicinity for the unexcelled sympathy and kindness which they have extended to us during the anxious days which were occasioned by the serious injury of our daughter, Maxine.

Both Mrs. Johnson and I have reached the conclusion that the entire citizenry of Concord has formed itself into an association whose motto is to "live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man."

We have been deeply touched by the many evidences of friendship for our daughter which have been displayed, and we are very grateful for the beautiful flowers which have been sent to brighten her room. We hope that disaster in Concord, but if in the course of events such a visitor should enter any of his homes, may we express the hope that the loving sympathy which has been so bountifully bestowed upon us may be returned to them four-fold.

We shall ever treasure the recollection of the sympathetic kindness of the people of Concord in our hearts, and we shall confidently look forward to another visit to your city at a time when friendships so recently formed may be renewed under brighter skies unobscured by any clouds of sorrow.

We want to thank you personally for the many courtesies which you have bestowed upon us, and for the additional favor of printing this letter which we now covet.

Sincerely yours, P. H. JOHNSON.
