On Thursday afternoon the Towelers will play host to the Statesville Hustlers in the main attraction of the week. The Hustlers come here with the imposing record of having won nine out of ten games this year. They lost to the Concord Weavers Thursday last by experiencing one bad inning, which was the eighth. Five runs were scored, bursting a 2 to 2 deadlock, after one of the most beautiful Church, led in prayer. slab duels seen around here in years had been enacted.

The Hustlers will be smarting from this sole defeat when they invade Toweler Town Thursday and fans may look for one of the hardest fought tilts of the season.

McLaughlin, the Oak Ridge sensation, will ascend the mound for the visitors but it is unknown just who Boss Kirke will call on to protect the native interest. He will have in stock the old reliable "Rube" Wilson, Flake Laird, Slim Antley, Henry Newberry and Peck Parker.

Kannapolis, June 13.-Making good n one of their hardest tests of the season, Bobbing Bob Kirke and his Kannapolis Towelers are now in a commanding position in the state semipro championship race.

After winning over Fayetteville earlier in the week the Towelers hoisted triumph over the Concord Weavers Saturday afternoon, following the fatter club's oversized victory in a tilt with the fast stepping Statesville Hustlers, who, by way of facts, had previously rang up a total of nine straight wins.

Mt. Holly, a corking good outfit last year, came in for recognition last week by handing the fast Charlotte Firemen a 13 to 12 licking in a dozen frames contest. Joe Westnedge, Chieago Cub rookie; Ferguson and Hudson, star sandlotters, played with the nook and ladder performers, but the heavy artillery of the Yarners was not to be denied.

Siler City showed brilliant signs of sticking in the race when Burrow, oremier moundsman, twirled a no-hit no-run game against Burlington Saturday, the final verdict being 9 to 0. Fogleman, former Elon Collège lummary, continued his fierce clouting for the winning crew, shelling out a homer and a blazing single in three times at bat.
