

EUBANKS BROTHERS RECEIVE MEMENTOS OF LINDY'S VISIT

Local Young Men Have Prize Souvenirs of Lindbergh's Visit to Brussels—Sent to Them by Brother.

Souvenirs of the great celebrations attending the visit to Brussels, Belgium, by Col. Charles Lindbergh, intrepid New York-Paris flier, are in the possession of H. E. Eubanks, A. H. Eubanks and W. M. Eubanks, of this city. The prize keepsakes were sent to them by their brother, V. M. Eubanks, who has been living in Brussels for the past two years.

Among the mementoes are two French newspapers, heralding the arrival of Lindy in Europe and the many honors tendered him by the admiring royalty, rich and others. Mr. Eubanks also sent his brothers here the invitation cards which he and his wife received to attend the formal reception rendered Lindy upon his appearance in Belgium.

Mr. and Mrs. Eubanks are proprietors of a large lace business in Brussels, and presented Col. Lindbergh with a hand-made rose point scarf to give to his mother. Pictures in one of the French papers show Lindy holding the package containing the scarf.

Mr. Eubanks sent his brothers several other souvenirs of Lindy's visit to Brussels, including a magazine showing various pictures of Lindy at different points in European countries.

ISSUE 445 PLATES TO CAR OWNERS IN COUNTY TWO WEEKS

Applications For, New 1927 Tags Coming in Slowly at Concord Branch Office of Carolina Motor Club.

A total of 445 license plates through early this morning had been issued to automobile owners of Cabarrus county from the Concord branch of the Carolina Motor Club at the Reid Motor Company, according to Bruce McBride. This total compares about the same with the number of tags which were issued during the corresponding time of last year.

Through orders by R. A. Doughton, commissioner of revenue, personal checks cannot be accepted for the 1927 tags. This is not a ruling of the Carolina Motor Club which Mr. McBride desires to make clear.

All automobiles, according to the State law, must bear the new 1927 tag after June 30th. Prior to this date it is a violation of the law to place new plates on cars. Motorists are urged to apply for their plates at once and avoid the eleventh hour rush when hundreds will pack the local office for plates.

Furrtown Loses Hectic Tilt. Locke Mill, June 13.—Two walks, two errors, coupled with Smith's single, was enough to defeat Furrtown when they hooked up with the pace-setting Locke Mill club. "Doodle Bug" Whittington was as wild as the proverbial March hare, and although he was found for one hit his wildness cost him the game. The score was 4-1.

Johnston "Chock" Irvin, high school flash, was hit rather freely but was invincible in the pinches. Furrtown's lone tally came in the third frame, when with one down, G. Furr beat out an infield hit, stole second and scored on C. Furr's sharp single to center. As a result of this defeat Manager Furr of the Furrtown Rebels announces a shake-up. He has already signed Buck Fink, Mose Wilkins and Swindell Hill, these three coming from the Gibson Mill club. Burgess and Stone have added their John Hancock to contracts and Manager Furr is dicker for the services of Frank "Woman" Misener, former mound ace of Wincoff High. The Rebels will again tackle Locke Saturday, June 25th, Jupe Pluve permitting.

Score: R H E Locke Mill 4 1 1 Furrtown 1 6 3

Miss Roberts Honored. On Tuesday evening Miss Mary Ridenhour delightfully entertained about twenty guests at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Dorothy Roberts, a popular June bride-elect.

A number of games and contests were enjoyed by everyone. After an hour of fun the bride was asked to follow the ribbon which led from the parlor into another room. Just as she entered the door Miss Mary Ridenhour and Miss Ella Bost let an umbrella beautifully decorated with pink crepe paper, down from the center ceiling of the room. The Umbrella contained many useful kitchen utensils, and after the guests gathered in the room, the bride was asked to open the gifts. When the presents had been opened a delicious ice course was served. The guests departed after expressing favorable comments on the evening.

Lutheran Women Make Progress in Work. Salisbury Post. Mrs. J. L. Morgan, of this city, who was elected at the recent convention of Lutheran missionary women of North Carolina, held at Wilmington, is at home, and reports a wonderful meeting, one of the best held in the 42 years of its existence.

More than 200 delegates and visitors were in attendance. Addresses were made by leaders in state and national affairs of the Lutheran church, as well as missionaries to foreign fields. Reports from the different departments showed much progress and increased interest. More than $18,000 was contributed during the past year. More than 200 societies have been formed since the organization of the state body and over $200,000 contributed to carry on the work of the society.

YOUNG MAN IS HELD HERE FOR ROBBING STORE

A Dishonorably Discharged Soldier Admits Breaking Into Filling Station.

Instead of thanking a Cabarrus county man for a kindness done him, Wilbur H. Sheehy, of Huntersville, Ind., showed ingratitude by entering and robbing the filling station of his benefactor Monday night.

That is the story given Tuesday by J. L. Smith, proprietor of the Rocky River Filling Station on the Concord-Charlotte highway, who reported that after he had befriended the stranger by bringing him to Concord late Monday afternoon to keep him from walking in the rain the stranger returned to the station, broke open a window, entered and robbed it.

Sheehy, when seen at the county jail Tuesday, where he was placed by Deputy Sheriff A. B. Medlin and B. F. Widenhouse, sergeant of police, following his arrest by the officers at 9:30 Tuesday, admitted that he broke into the store and took a sum of money and a pocket knife.

Mr. Smith said that approximately $7.50 and six pocket knives were taken from his store. He identified the knife found on the young man and had the warrant sworn out for his arrest.

The owner of the station said today that his place was entered between 9 and 11 o'clock Monday night. A window had been pried up for about six inches and then the glass knocked out of it. Several negroes noticed the man near the store earlier in the evening, Mr. Smith said.

Sheehy, when seen at the jail Tuesday, said that he was on his way to Ohio. A certificate found in his pocket showed that he was dishonorably discharged from the United States army on the 9th day of this month. The discharge was given him at Governor's Island, N. Y., and Sheehy said that he had left New York State and started south to get to Ohio.

PUBLISHERS TO MEET IN ATLANTA IN JULY

S. N. P. A. Will Hold Its Annual Meeting in Georgia Capital This Year.

(By International News Service) Atlanta, Ga., June 13.—Southern newspaper publishers from all over Dixieland will gather in Atlanta July 4th, 5th and 6th for the annual Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association convention which will be held at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel here. Plans are rapidly taking shape and everything will be ready for those of the Fourth Estate when they begin their trek Atlantawards.

Stone Mountain, Bobby Jones, the East Lake Country Club and numerous other things will be served for the enjoyment of the publishers.

Bobby, Atlanta's own, will appear in quite a different capacity at the golf tournament of the newspaper men, that of swinging a mean club and act as official referee, provided he lasts long enough.

Among other features will be a dinner-dance at the Capital City Club July 4th, which is official "Editorial Day," preceded by memorial services and a barbecue at Stone Mountain at 3 p. m.

The second day of the convention will be "Circulation-Mechanical Day," with adjournment at 12:30. At 2 o'clock comes the big golf tournament.

Clark Howell, Sr., of the Atlanta Constitution, will preside at the twenty-fifth annual banquet of the S. N. P. A. at which speakers will be John S. Cohen, of the Atlanta Journal, of Atlanta, and Victor H. Hanson, of the Birmingham News, for the S. N. P. A. The affair will end with a dance.

F. A. Wilson-Lawrenson, of the Atlanta Georgian, will act as chairman on the closing day of the convention, "Advertising Day," and the speaker will be W. A. Armistead, of N. W. Ayer & Son. He will speak on "The Growth of Southern Advertising During the Past Twenty-five Years."

The convention will adjourn following selection of the convention city for 1928.

Negro Drowns at Swift Island Dam. Albemarle, June 13.—The first fatality at the construction work of the new Swift Island Bridge on the Pee Dee River, near this city, occurred yesterday afternoon when a negro, whose name has not been learned, was drowned. The negro was out on one of the coffer dams when he lost his foothold and fell in to the river. He landed in a swift current, which quickly carried him under. The sheriff of Montgomery County has been notified, officials in charge of the work, stated last night. How long it will take to get this morning no investigation has been made and it is said no attempt has been made to recover the body. Sheriff Furr, of Stanly County, stated this morning that the occurrence had not been reported at either his office or that of the county coroner.

They Want What They Want. (By International News Service) New Orleans, La., June 14.—When sailor boys ask for liquor they don't mean perhaps or maybe is the opinion of a local soft drink stand proprietor whose establishment was recently paid a visit by a dozen or so thirsty tars. "We want liquor," was the shout from the boys when with a rush, they took possession of the stand.

Jack Kearney, the owner, made a mistake when he said: "You're out of luck, buddies," he assured police shortly after, for immediately a shot or two rang out and the boys proceeded to smash up things in general.

After publishing the bans of marriage of five couples, a clergyman in Bath, England, announced the next hymn, "Forgive them, O My Father, they know not what they do."

Mrs. Lily F. Blanks, mother of H. W. Blanks, secretary of the Concord Y. M. C. A., is visiting here. Mrs. Blanks lived at Columbia, La., which was partly submerged in the great Mississippi flood.

URGING FOOD CROPS FOR FLOOD DISTRICT

Farmers Urged to Plant Food Rather Than Money Crops This Season. New Orleans, La., June 14.—(INS)—Planting of food crops instead of "money crops" is being urged in the flood area of Louisiana by farm experts with predictions of a new flood crest.

"With a new flood crest, water would remain on the inundated sections of the state longer than expected originally," one prominent farmer said. "Summer planting of 'money crops' will therefore be impossible. Farmers may plant food crops however, as late as August or September."

Root vegetables, such as beets, carrots and turnips, and other crops as lettuce, mustard, spinach and shallots were named as among those which may be planted in September.

By raising vegetable farmers may keep themselves supplied with wholesome food, it was pointed out, and if they can secure cows and chickens to produce milk, butter, eggs and by-products of these foods, the nutrition problem would be met.

UNIVERSITY DEAN RECEIVED DEGREE

Dean A. H. Patterson is Honored With Degree of Doctor of Science. Chapel Hill, June 16.—Another honor came to the University of North Carolina faculty yesterday when Andrew Henry Patterson, Dean of the School of Applied Science, was called to Athens, Ga., to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Science from the University of Georgia.

Dean Patterson was a member of the University of Georgia faculty for 14 years before he joined the faculty here, and it is in recognition of his achievements before and since leaving Georgia that the doctor's degree is being conferred on him there, pro honora causa.

The dean, who was born in Winston-Salem, September 28, 1870, is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He received the degrees of Ph. B. and B. E. with the class of 1891. Later he studied at Harvard where he received his A. B. in 1892, and his A. M. in 1893.

He came to the University of North Carolina in 1908 as professor of physics, and in 1911 was made Dean of the School of Applied Science, which position he still holds.

Dean Patterson is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Physical Society, the American Meteorological Society, and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Man Believed To Be Big Bootlegger Held. York, June 15.—Following a break for liberty, after the negro in whose car he was riding had been stopped for burning only one front light, a white man giving his name as R. P. Keller and saying he was en route from Greenwood to Kannapolis, was captured here at 11 o'clock last night and lodged in jail.

While the charge preferred against him and on which he was convicted in city court here today and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve 30 days, was that of carrying concealed weapons, officers here are convinced that he is a professional bootlegger, basing their opinion on books and papers found on his person, and believe it is more than likely that he is wanted on a charge of this nature at some place in the Carolinas. These papers contain expense accounts showing the purchase again and again of large quantities of sugar, meal, yeast and fruit jars, all of which are used in whiskey making and dispensing, together with a sales account, showing a list of scores and scores of customers in the Carolinas, with a record of sales made them—the number of gallons and the price.

Wife of Man Caught Talking to Girl Strikes Him Twice. High Point, June 15.—A lively scene was enacted in front of the Wachovia Bank and Trust company, on Main street, today when a woman struck her husband twice with an umbrella as he was talking to a young woman. "I've caught you at last. I knew I would," yelled, the infuriated wife, and turning, she presented a third blow upon the young woman.
