

KANNAPOLIS DEPARTMENT

BY JAMES L. MOORE

Christian. The celebrated Jerry Jackson dropped his first game of the season when Fayetteville blanked Kannapolis, 2 to 0 in the second of a three-game series.

Thursday—Funeral services for C. W. Harrington held from the First Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in the Oakwood cemetery.

Kannapolis returned from Fayetteville after licking the Highlanders in the rubber tilt, 4 to 1. Pitcher Cross was accredited with the victory.

Friday—A terrific storm visited Kannapolis, inflicting considerable damage. A bolt of lightning striking a barn on Dr. Stirewalt's farm electrocuted eight dogs and burned a quantity of hay and grain.

Red Irby, the versatile Piedmont Leaguer, continued to lead the Towelers in clouting, according to official records compiled. This average was 3.87 while Donaldson and McClain, catchers, were second and third in the rating.

Saturday—Jerry Jackson celebrated in hilarious style his 26th birthday by beating the Mt. Holly Yarners, 4 to 1. It was the ex-Piedmont looper's seventh win of the season.

Sunday—Charles Fisher, of Salisbury, occupied the pulpit of the St. John's Reformed Church at both the morning and evening services. He was received by appreciative audiences.
