

Conference Ends Delegates Fail To Agree On Major Matters

THE COTTON MARKET. Opened Firm at Advance of 38 to 43 Points Covering or Rebuying By Recent Sellers.

Just One Week in Which Counsel For Sacco and Vanzetti Can Save Them From Death.

PROTESTS ARE MADE OVER CASE Brazil Pleads For Men in Appeal Signed by Municipal Council—Federal Court Could Save Them.

Boston, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Exactly one week from today, Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti's seven-year battle to escape death for murder, which has had its trial in every country on the globe, will end in the electric chair at the Charlestown state prison, unless their counsel can discover an avenue of appeal to the federal court. That prospect is admittedly a slender one.

LIFE IS CRUSHED OUT BY BUNDLE OF STEEL

Roy Tisinger Meets Death at Swift Island Bridge While Taking Noon Rest. Albenarle, Aug. 3.—Roy Tisinger, 34, an employe of the Hardaway Construction company, was killed at the Swift Island bridge today at 12:15 o'clock where the new bridge is under construction, when a heavy bundle of reinforced steel fell upon him.

RECOVERY IN STOCK PRICES MADE FURTHER ADVANCE TODAY

New York, Aug. 4.—(AP)—The recovery in stock prices which set in soon after the drastic opening break yesterday made further recovery today under leadership of the industrials, more than a score of which were elevated to record high levels.

THE STOCK MARKET

Table with columns for stock names and prices. Includes items like American Tobacco, American Smelting, and various bonds.

SEEM CHANCE THAT CONDEMNED MEN IN JAIL CAN ESCAPE

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 4.—(INS)—Sweeping investigation into the accounts of the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial Association and probes into the affairs of the Association, by a subcommittee of the Georgia State senate judiciary committee, has been asked by Senator John L. Kelley in a resolution which he introduced in the senate.

IS THERE SURPLUS OF TEACHERS IN STATE?

There is a Shortage of Real Teachers, Says Superintendent Allen. Raleigh, Aug. 4.—Is there a big surplus of teachers in the state as many of the county and city superintendents claim, or is there a shortage of teachers, as claimed by the State Department of Public Instruction?

GENEVA CONFERENCE TO COME TO CLOSE

Final Session Will Be This Afternoon But Decision to Adjourn Already Reached. Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 3.—The tripartite naval conference tonight reached an impasse. It was stated in authoritative American circles, and the last session is planned for tomorrow. This later received confirmation by the Japanese spokesman.

DOSS GUILTY

Sentenced to Serve 8 to 10 Years in Flogging Case. Oneonta, Ala., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Eugene Doss today was found guilty of assault and battery and kidnapping in the Blount County circuit court in connection with the flogging of Jeff Calloway, farm youth, several weeks ago.

Baptism of Stars and Stripes

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—One hundred and fifty years ago today began the defense of Fort Stanwix, N. Y., against an attack by the British, an engagement notable in history as the first occasion that the Stars and Stripes was flown in the face of an enemy and the occasion on which it received its baptism of fire in a land battle.

With Our Advertisers

See Pat Covington's ad. today for some interesting "do's". Sale of high class millinery at $1, $2 and $3 is now going on at the Gray Shop. Over 200 hats to select from.

Sweeping Investigation into Affairs of Stone Mountain Memorial Association

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 4.—(INS)—Sweeping investigation into the accounts of the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial Association and probes into the affairs of the Association, by a subcommittee of the Georgia State senate judiciary committee, has been asked by Senator John L. Kelley in a resolution which he introduced in the senate.

STOCKHOLDERS OF A. AND N. C. ROAD MEET

Will Elect Officers and Transact Routine Business at Morehead City. Morehead City, N. C., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad met here today in annual session for routine business, appointment of directors, and election of officers.

MINE OPERATOR SHOT BY HIS SON-IN-LAW

C. J. Merz Killed by Jim McManaway Following Quarrel Over Operation of Mine. Columbus, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Differences of opinion regarding the operation of the Lick Run mine near Nelsonville resulted today in the killing of C. J. Merz, president of the Lick Run Company.

Tom Bost a Captain

The Tribune Bureau Raleigh, Aug. 4.—W. Thomas Bost, dean of Raleigh newspaper correspondents, political sage and known personality by many people in this state as one in it, has recently been elevated to a captaincy in the United Confederate Veterans.

Ants Blamed For Loss of Strawberry Crops

Wilmington, Aug. 3.—Ants are believed to be largely responsible for the damage being done to the strawberry crops in the Chadbourne section by the root louse which has made its appearance in a distressing manner this year.

Style to Place Knees Only in Partial Ellipsis

New York, Aug. 4.—The up-to-date mistress in coats were displayed half a knee beneath her fall ensemble, the annual fall fashion show of the Garment Retailers of America has revealed.

Ants Blamed For Loss of Strawberry Crops

Wilmington, Aug. 3.—Ants are believed to be largely responsible for the damage being done to the strawberry crops in the Chadbourne section by the root louse which has made its appearance in a distressing manner this year.

Dempsy To Start Training Soon

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—Assured that his actress wife—Estelle Taylor, was recovering rapidly from an illness that kept her in bed for two weeks, Jack Dempsy today said he probably would be ready to leave for Chicago August 15 to start training for his fight there with Gene Tunney September 22.

Maid Marian, who appeared in London about forty years ago and measured eight feet two inches in height, was probably the tallest woman that ever lived.

STACKED DEMANDS FOR FREED GUY L. NORTHCUTT

Winston-Salem, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Members of Forsyth Superior Court jury who acquitted Guy Northcutt, High Point man charged with violating the prohibition law, were reprimanded severely by Judge A. M. Stack here.

JUDGE SAYS THE VERDICT WRONG

Judge Said He Didn't See How Law Could Be Enforced If Such Verdicts as This Are Returned. Speaking to the jury in a body Judge Stack asked if there is any man on the jury who did not believe in the enforcement of prohibition law, and if there were such a man to hold up his hand. No hands were raised.

Three More Bodies Found Today by Rescue Workers in West Kentucky Coal Mine at Clay, Ky.

Clay, Ky., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Three unidentified bodies were found early today by rescue workers in the No. 7 mine of the West Kentucky Coal Company, where an explosion occurred yesterday. The total number of known dead was seven, with nine men still missing.

IDENTIFY SOME OF THE BODIES

Rescue Workers Find Difficulty in Reaching Point Where Men Were Working at Time of Explosion. The explosion yesterday occurred on the 10th entry of the mine, and the four bodies were found on the seventh level. The rescue workers were hampered in their progress as all the brattices of the pit shaft were destroyed in the explosion.

OPINIONS ON COOLIDGE ANNOUNCEMENT DIFFER

Some Hold That It Leaves President Open to Accept Nomination of Officers. Washington, Aug. 3.—As many political observers here view it, President Coolidge's statement that he does not "choose" to run in 1928 has created a most unique political situation.

Has Lived Intermittently Conscious Since Suffering Broken Neck on July 12th

Florence, S. C., Aug. 4.—(AP)—No marked change today was noted by attending physicians in the condition of W. W. Register, 19, who has lived intermittently conscious since suffering a broken neck July 12th in a shallow water dive in a swimming pool here.

NO MARKED CHANGE FOR W. W. REGISTER

Has Lived Intermittently Conscious Since Suffering Broken Neck on July 12th. Florence, S. C., Aug. 4.—(AP)—No marked change today was noted by attending physicians in the condition of W. W. Register, 19, who has lived intermittently conscious since suffering a broken neck July 12th in a shallow water dive in a swimming pool here.

Ants Blamed For Loss of Strawberry Crops

Wilmington, Aug. 3.—Ants are believed to be largely responsible for the damage being done to the strawberry crops in the Chadbourne section by the root louse which has made its appearance in a distressing manner this year.

Dempsy To Start Training Soon

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—Assured that his actress wife—Estelle Taylor, was recovering rapidly from an illness that kept her in bed for two weeks, Jack Dempsy today said he probably would be ready to leave for Chicago August 15 to start training for his fight there with Gene Tunney September 22.

Maid Marian, who appeared in London about forty years ago and measured eight feet two inches in height, was probably the tallest woman that ever lived.

SEVEN ARE KNOWN TO HAVE PERISHED IN MINE DISASTER

Clay, Ky., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Three unidentified bodies were found early today by rescue workers in the No. 7 mine of the West Kentucky Coal Company, where an explosion occurred yesterday. The total number of known dead was seven, with nine men still missing.

IDENTIFY SOME OF THE BODIES

Rescue Workers Find Difficulty in Reaching Point Where Men Were Working at Time of Explosion. The explosion yesterday occurred on the 10th entry of the mine, and the four bodies were found on the seventh level. The rescue workers were hampered in their progress as all the brattices of the pit shaft were destroyed in the explosion.

OPINIONS ON COOLIDGE ANNOUNCEMENT DIFFER

Some Hold That It Leaves President Open to Accept Nomination of Officers. Washington, Aug. 3.—As many political observers here view it, President Coolidge's statement that he does not "choose" to run in 1928 has created a most unique political situation.

Has Lived Intermittently Conscious Since Suffering Broken Neck on July 12th

Florence, S. C., Aug. 4.—(AP)—No marked change today was noted by attending physicians in the condition of W. W. Register, 19, who has lived intermittently conscious since suffering a broken neck July 12th in a shallow water dive in a swimming pool here.

NO MARKED CHANGE FOR W. W. REGISTER

Has Lived Intermittently Conscious Since Suffering Broken Neck on July 12th. Florence, S. C., Aug. 4.—(AP)—No marked change today was noted by attending physicians in the condition of W. W. Register, 19, who has lived intermittently conscious since suffering a broken neck July 12th in a shallow water dive in a swimming pool here.

Ants Blamed For Loss of Strawberry Crops

Wilmington, Aug. 3.—Ants are believed to be largely responsible for the damage being done to the strawberry crops in the Chadbourne section by the root louse which has made its appearance in a distressing manner this year.

Dempsy To Start Training Soon

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—Assured that his actress wife—Estelle Taylor, was recovering rapidly from an illness that kept her in bed for two weeks, Jack Dempsy today said he probably would be ready to leave for Chicago August 15 to start training for his fight there with Gene Tunney September 22.

Maid Marian, who appeared in London about forty years ago and measured eight feet two inches in height, was probably the tallest woman that ever lived.

BUSINESS MATTERS GET ATTENTION OF VETERANS OF GRAY

Raleigh, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Confederate Veterans in the final session today of their 20th reunion, North Carolina division, settled down to the business of passing resolutions of reaffirmance of principles; election of officers; selection of a meeting place next year, and closing colorful ceremonies.

STATE CONFEDERATE VETERANS WILL END REUNION AT STATE CAPITAL SOMETIME DURING THE DAY

Raleigh, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Confederate Veterans in the final session today of their 20th reunion, North Carolina division, settled down to the business of passing resolutions of reaffirmance of principles; election of officers; selection of a meeting place next year, and closing colorful ceremonies.

PAGEANT GIVEN LAST EVENING

Election of Officers and Selection of 1928 Meeting Place Business of Importance Today. Raleigh, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Confederate Veterans in the final session today of their 20th reunion, North Carolina division, settled down to the business of passing resolutions of reaffirmance of principles; election of officers; selection of a meeting place next year, and closing colorful ceremonies.

BYRD'S NEXT FLIGHT TO COST FORTUNE

Scientific Expedition Into Antarctic to Be Stupendous Undertaking. New York, Aug. 4.—(AP)—The New York Evening Post today says Commander Richard E. Byrd's scientific expedition into the Antarctic promises to be one of the most stupendous undertakings in history and will cost about a quarter million dollars.

W. W. REGISTER

Has Lived Intermittently Conscious Since Suffering Broken Neck on July 12th. Florence, S. C., Aug. 4.—(AP)—No marked change today was noted by attending physicians in the condition of W. W. Register, 19, who has lived intermittently conscious since suffering a broken neck July 12th in a shallow water dive in a swimming pool here.

Ants Blamed For Loss of Strawberry Crops

Wilmington, Aug. 3.—Ants are believed to be largely responsible for the damage being done to the strawberry crops in the Chadbourne section by the root louse which has made its appearance in a distressing manner this year.

Dempsy To Start Training Soon

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—Assured that his actress wife—Estelle Taylor, was recovering rapidly from an illness that kept her in bed for two weeks, Jack Dempsy today said he probably would be ready to leave for Chicago August 15 to start training for his fight there with Gene Tunney September 22.

Maid Marian, who appeared in London about forty years ago and measured eight feet two inches in height, was probably the tallest woman that ever lived.

WEATHER

Probably showers tonight and Friday.