SCHOOL SURVEY IN CABARRUS ORDERED BY COUNTY BOARD

Prof. A. M. Proctor, of Duke University, Will Make the Survey.—School Buildings Authorized.

Various important business matters, some of them affecting the entire county, were discussed and acted upon by the county board of education at a meeting Monday at the court house.

One of the most important matters authorized by the board will result in a survey of the public schools of the county, the work to be started in the near future. The survey will be made by Prof. A. M. Proctor, director of Duke University Summer School and one of the best known educators in the state.

Of county-wide interest and importance also, was the awarding of contracts for additional school houses. The board authorized the erection of a five-room building at Kannapolis, to house colored children, and the building of six additional rooms to the Hartsell Mill school. John R. Query, of Concord, was awarded both contracts.

Mr. Query informed the board that work on the two projects will begin at once and it is planned to have them completed in time for the opening of the schools in the fall.

By resolution members of the board went on record as favoring six hours of work in each of the public schools in the county. It was explained that heretofore some of the students were not required to work six hours each day, but under the schedule approved in the resolution the minimum hereafter will be six hours.

Under this schedule the teachers will report at their respective schools by 8:30 a. m., chapel exercises will begin at 8:45 and continue fifteen minutes, and classroom work will begin at 9 o'clock. If the teachers deem it best to have recess periods, and this is usually done, the school must be kept in operation until six hours daily are devoted to school work. That is, if the school has an hour for dinner, it will be kept in operation until 4 p. m., whereas if half an hour is allowed for dinner work will be halted at 3:30 p. m.

The board also approved plans by which county students will be sent to county high schools where it is feasible and possible. Last year, it was pointed out, some rural high school students were sent to the Concord high school which was well filled already, while a county high school, almost as near as the one here, was not filled.

It is better, the board decided, to rural children to go to rural high school where it is possible and where no undue hardship is worked on any one.

The survey by Mr. Proctor, it is pointed out, has been ordered for the purpose of securing a county-wide program of organization, and it may result in changes to the principal school unite of the county.

The survey, S. Glenn Hawfield, county superintendent of schools, stated, was recommended by A. T. Allen, State Superintendent of Schools, and it will be under the supervision of the General Education Board of New York.

This organization will bear all expenses, making the survey cost to the county nothing.

“The survey,” Mr. Hawfield said, “will give us data for a county-wide program of organization, and at the same time will make available for us advice and suggestions from an eminent educator, Mr. Proctor.”

It was explained that Mr. Proctor has had wide experience in survey work, having made surveys for several counties in the State.

MISS WHITE DIES AT HOME IN CITY OF ENCEPHALITIS

Pall of Gloom Cast Over the City by Death of Popular Young Woman.—Funeral Wednesday.

Miss Willie White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. White and one of the most popular young women of this city, died Tuesday at 2:15 a. m. at her home on Georgia Avenue. Death was due to an attack of encephalitis, with which she had been ill for two weeks.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the home, conducted by Dr. J. C. Rowan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Miss White was 19 years of age and was born and reared in this city. She was a graduate of the Concord High School and a member of the Junior class at Converse College. She was affiliated with the Presbyterian Church.

The death of this popular member of Concord's younger set has cast a pall of gloom over the city. For several days her condition had been so critical that little hope was entertained for her recovery, but relatives and scores of friends had watched with unusual interest each development in her case, hoping that each day would bring improvement in her condition. She suffered a relapse about 6 o'clock Monday evening, and died peacefully eight hours later.

Surviving are her parents, three sisters, Misses Jane, Ellen and Isabelle White, and one brother, Jack White, all of Concord.

Funeral services at the home will be held at 10 o'clock Monday, August 7, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cook, 2405 Coltrane, William Flores, Jr., John Brown, Stokes White and Joe Barrier.

LEARN SLAIN MAN ON NORWOOD ROAD WAS FRANK JONES

Victim of Wreck Near Norwood Saturday Night Identified as From Georgia and Not Kannapolis.

The man killed in an automobile accident Saturday night near Norwood has been identified as Frank Jones, of Thomaston, Ga., it has been learned here. His body has been sent to the Georgia town for interment.

Jones had been living in Kannapolis for about three years, it is said, and was known there as Ernest Davis. A story from Albemarle says officers investigating the case have not been able to learn definitely why he changed his name when he moved to North Carolina, but it is believed that he had been in trouble of some kind and wanted to start life over under a new name after becoming a Tar Heel.

Discussing this case and another in which Harlie Rowland was killed, an Albemarle dispatch says:

George Furr, of Kannapolis, who was riding with Jones at the time of the wreck, and who was carried to the home of his brother at Norwood, Dace Furr, immediately after the wreck, has been moved to a hospital at Kannapolis and it has been found that his skull is fractured.

John Austin, who was in the car which collided with the Kannapolis machine and who was brought to the Yadkin Hospital here for treatment, was today able to leave the hospital and is getting along favorably.

Misses Annie Hatley and Ola Lowder, the two young girls who were injured yesterday when Harlie Rowland was killed by the Albemarle-Charlotte bus two miles west of Albemarle, are still in a serious condition, but it is believed will recover, if no complications set in.

The funeral of young Harlie Rowland was held at the home of his father, J. A. Rowland, in the New London vicinity this afternoon. Reports say that a very large crowd attended the funeral. A large number of Albemarle people attended as the young man was well known here and had a large circle of friends.

This hard-to-suit age chooses Camel

MODERN people are hard to satisfy. But Camel has pleased them and they have made it the most famous cigarette of all time.

Present-day smokers are "tasty," and they recognize in Camel the choicest tobaccos grown, blended for smoothness and mellowness. Camel leadership in this modern world is an overwhelming tribute to the taste and fragrance of this quality cigarette.

Camel will prove itself to you. What a cool, satisfying smoke! When you try Camels, you will see why they are first and favorite with present-day smokers. "Have a Camel!"

Hickory Rebels Win Over Kannapolis, 5-4.
Hickory, Aug. 1.—Jim White's timely single in the 14th inning ended Kannapolis' long winning streak and boosted the Hickory Rebels' total numbers of victories for the season to 26 here this afternoon in a thrilling exhibition that ended with a count of 5-4. Jerry Jackson and Fowler started on the mound for the respective teams, but it remained for "Rube" Wilson and Stanley Johnson to render the decision, the former pair giving way to the latter when signs of weakness became evident.

Hickory outfit Towellers 14 to 10, but neither club was successful in hunching safeties effectively. Owl and Clemmer registered three singles each to lead the batting. Sensational fielding was contributed by both clubs, there being little to choose between the playing in evidence.

The King's Daughters.

The following calls from indigent homes wherein there was illness have been responded to by the King's Daughters of the city during the past month:

Milk furnished for infant who has been placed with kind friends; nurse bid met for a worthy but poor T. B. patient; clothes for mother and basket of baby clothes (the baby clothes made and given by the Worth White Club); bed clothes and gowns for two small children of this sick mother furnished; help given to a young woman now unable to work and deserted by husband; funds assembled by the interest of some kind friends to pay the expenses of T. B. Patient one month at the Sanitorium.

The demand this heated term makes upon the physical reserve of the King's Daughters as well as upon their finances has been great but with faith in the work and assurance of material aid from many generous friends the King's Daughters will continue to work as they have in the past.

The local circles of the King's Daughters find pleasure in co-operating with the county welfare officer and the county health department.
