

SERVICE WILL... CAPITALS ON... PHONE SYSTEM... President Calles... Do Not Use Same... Reports 12 Gum Ships From Canada... Will Umpire in World Series...

In Kidnapping Mystery

New photo of "Sonny" Pierce of Hagerstown, Md. He was thought to be kidnapped Von Maluski boy of New York, but Mr. Von Maluski was unable to identify him.

DISCUS COTTON COVERING FOR THE COTTON BALES

Resolution to This Effect Adopted by Southern Commissioners of Agriculture Meeting in New Orleans. The Tribune Bureau, Raleigh, Sept. 28.—(AP)—The Southern Commissioners of Agriculture met in New Orleans today to discuss the cotton covering problem.

WILL NEAL IS AIMED TO RUN FOR CONGRESS

Very Much in Notion of Tackling Race Against Congressman Zeh Weaver. Raleigh, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Observation of Ambassador Will Neal which took place when a combination of schools, roads and religion worked him into the minority in 1923, has ended, and it comes to the capital from the far country that Mr. Neal is very much in the notion to try Congress against Zeh Weaver.

ACOSTA AND FRIENDS OFF FOR RICHMOND

Left Danville, Va., This Morning, After Exchanging Starting Fields. Danville, Va., Sept. 29.—(AP)—Bert Acosta and four companions took off from field near here at 10:17 o'clock today for Richmond, taking the air in a giant Fokker monoplane after a run of an eighth of a mile. The plane cleared the trees and climbed steadily.

REPORT SAYS DEAD BODY IS FLOATING AT HARBOR GRACE

Men Going Across Conception Bay Saw Body and Tried to Pull It Into Their Boat. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

PRINTING TANGLE NOT SOLVED DESPITE THE NEW CONTRACT

The Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel By J. C. BASKERVILLE Raleigh, Sept. 29.—To print or not to print still remains the question of the hour, as far as the State is concerned. And despite the fact that an entirely new printing contract and specifications have been submitted to the printing commission along with a new proposal from the present State printers, the tangle seems as far, if not farther, from solution than it has been at any time yet.

SAYS AIR SERVICE OVER ATLANTIC TO COME WITHIN YEAR

Capt. Rene Fonck, Noted French Pilot, Says He Hopes to Start Service Sometime Next Spring. New York, Sept. 29.—(AP)—Regular passenger and mail service by air between America and Europe, a vision born of the recent trans-Atlantic aerial triumphs will be a routine reality next spring, if the plans of Captain Rene Fonck materialize.

STOPS PLANNED FOR THE PLANES

Fonck Hopes to Put Six Planes into Service and to Carry Mail as Well as Passengers in Them. The French war ace said he has unlimited financial backing both in this country and France for his project, which would put six planes into commercial cross-seas service, and obtain added revenue from mail contracts for which he is now negotiating with the American government.

HELMET ON HEAD OF DEAD BODY

Report Leads to the Belief That Body May Be That of Some Aviator Lost Over the Atlantic. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Decline of 14 to 31 Points Under Realizing by Recent Buyers. New York, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 14 to 31 points under realizing by recent buyers and Southern or local selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables, and reports of warmer weather in the South-west.

STATE TROOPER GUARDS MRS. LILLIENDAHL NOW

She Is Out on Bond in Murder Case But Trooper Will Follow Her Constantly. Hammonds, N. J., Sept. 29.—(AP)—The state trooper is stationed on guard today at the home of Mrs. Lilliendaahl in South Vineland, where she has remained since her release on $25,000 bail as a material witness in the shooting of her husband, Dr. A. William Lilliendaahl.

THE STOCK MARKET

Reported by Fenner & Beane. (Quotations at 1:20 P. M.) Atchison 89 1/2 American Can 153 Allied Chemical 169 1/2 American Smelting 175 1/2 American Tel. & Tel. 192 Atlantic Coast Line 192

REPORT SAYS DEAD BODY IS FLOATING AT HARBOR GRACE

Men Going Across Conception Bay Saw Body and Tried to Pull It Into Their Boat. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

HELMET ON HEAD OF DEAD BODY

Report Leads to the Belief That Body May Be That of Some Aviator Lost Over the Atlantic. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Decline of 14 to 31 Points Under Realizing by Recent Buyers. New York, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 14 to 31 points under realizing by recent buyers and Southern or local selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables, and reports of warmer weather in the South-west.

STATE TROOPER GUARDS MRS. LILLIENDAHL NOW

She Is Out on Bond in Murder Case But Trooper Will Follow Her Constantly. Hammonds, N. J., Sept. 29.—(AP)—The state trooper is stationed on guard today at the home of Mrs. Lilliendaahl in South Vineland, where she has remained since her release on $25,000 bail as a material witness in the shooting of her husband, Dr. A. William Lilliendaahl.

THE STOCK MARKET

Reported by Fenner & Beane. (Quotations at 1:20 P. M.) Atchison 89 1/2 American Can 153 Allied Chemical 169 1/2 American Smelting 175 1/2 American Tel. & Tel. 192 Atlantic Coast Line 192

PRINTING TANGLE NOT SOLVED DESPITE THE NEW CONTRACT

The Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel By J. C. BASKERVILLE Raleigh, Sept. 29.—To print or not to print still remains the question of the hour, as far as the State is concerned. And despite the fact that an entirely new printing contract and specifications have been submitted to the printing commission along with a new proposal from the present State printers, the tangle seems as far, if not farther, from solution than it has been at any time yet.

HELMET ON HEAD OF DEAD BODY

Report Leads to the Belief That Body May Be That of Some Aviator Lost Over the Atlantic. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Decline of 14 to 31 Points Under Realizing by Recent Buyers. New York, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 14 to 31 points under realizing by recent buyers and Southern or local selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables, and reports of warmer weather in the South-west.

STATE TROOPER GUARDS MRS. LILLIENDAHL NOW

She Is Out on Bond in Murder Case But Trooper Will Follow Her Constantly. Hammonds, N. J., Sept. 29.—(AP)—The state trooper is stationed on guard today at the home of Mrs. Lilliendaahl in South Vineland, where she has remained since her release on $25,000 bail as a material witness in the shooting of her husband, Dr. A. William Lilliendaahl.

THE STOCK MARKET

Reported by Fenner & Beane. (Quotations at 1:20 P. M.) Atchison 89 1/2 American Can 153 Allied Chemical 169 1/2 American Smelting 175 1/2 American Tel. & Tel. 192 Atlantic Coast Line 192

PRINTING TANGLE NOT SOLVED DESPITE THE NEW CONTRACT

The Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel By J. C. BASKERVILLE Raleigh, Sept. 29.—To print or not to print still remains the question of the hour, as far as the State is concerned. And despite the fact that an entirely new printing contract and specifications have been submitted to the printing commission along with a new proposal from the present State printers, the tangle seems as far, if not farther, from solution than it has been at any time yet.

HELMET ON HEAD OF DEAD BODY

Report Leads to the Belief That Body May Be That of Some Aviator Lost Over the Atlantic. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Decline of 14 to 31 Points Under Realizing by Recent Buyers. New York, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 14 to 31 points under realizing by recent buyers and Southern or local selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables, and reports of warmer weather in the South-west.

STATE TROOPER GUARDS MRS. LILLIENDAHL NOW

She Is Out on Bond in Murder Case But Trooper Will Follow Her Constantly. Hammonds, N. J., Sept. 29.—(AP)—The state trooper is stationed on guard today at the home of Mrs. Lilliendaahl in South Vineland, where she has remained since her release on $25,000 bail as a material witness in the shooting of her husband, Dr. A. William Lilliendaahl.

THE STOCK MARKET

Reported by Fenner & Beane. (Quotations at 1:20 P. M.) Atchison 89 1/2 American Can 153 Allied Chemical 169 1/2 American Smelting 175 1/2 American Tel. & Tel. 192 Atlantic Coast Line 192

PRINTING TANGLE NOT SOLVED DESPITE THE NEW CONTRACT

The Tribune Bureau Sir Walter Hotel By J. C. BASKERVILLE Raleigh, Sept. 29.—To print or not to print still remains the question of the hour, as far as the State is concerned. And despite the fact that an entirely new printing contract and specifications have been submitted to the printing commission along with a new proposal from the present State printers, the tangle seems as far, if not farther, from solution than it has been at any time yet.

HELMET ON HEAD OF DEAD BODY

Report Leads to the Belief That Body May Be That of Some Aviator Lost Over the Atlantic. Harbor Grace, N. F., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A report that the body of a man with a helmet on the head, similar to those worn by aviators, had been seen floating between Belle Island in Conception Bay and this town on the mainland, was current here today. There was no early confirmation.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady at Decline of 14 to 31 Points Under Realizing by Recent Buyers. New York, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 14 to 31 points under realizing by recent buyers and Southern or local selling inspired by relatively easy Liverpool cables, and reports of warmer weather in the South-west.

STATE TROOPER GUARDS MRS. LILLIENDAHL NOW

She Is Out on Bond in Murder Case But Trooper Will Follow Her Constantly. Hammonds, N. J., Sept. 29.—(AP)—The state trooper is stationed on guard today at the home of Mrs. Lilliendaahl in South Vineland, where she has remained since her release on $25,000 bail as a material witness in the shooting of her husband, Dr. A. William Lilliendaahl.

THE STOCK MARKET

Reported by Fenner & Beane. (Quotations at 1:20 P. M.) Atchison 89 1/2 American Can 153 Allied Chemical 169 1/2 American Smelting 175 1/2 American Tel. & Tel. 192 Atlantic Coast Line 192

HELD IN MYSTERY

Harris Hayes (lower) and his wife (upper) of Blakely, Ga., are held during the investigation of the death of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Amos Hayes, in whose body traces of poison were found.

Another report in Mary Jane Bailey Case. Chemist in New Report Says Body Did Not Contain Enough Poison To Cause Death. Enid, Okla., Sept. 29.—(AP)—Faced with a revised pathological report showing there was not enough poison in the viscera of Mary Jane Bailey to have proved fatal, the state today announced it would continue the preliminary hearing of Mary Atkinson, nurse, charged with slaying the 18-year-old minister's daughter.

EXPECT WIFE NO. 1 TO APPEAR AT TRIAL

Mrs. Jordan of Columbus, Ga., Implies She Will Testify Against Her Husband at Charlotte. Charlotte, Sept. 28.—Willis T. Jordan, of Columbus, Ga., is expected to testify against her husband, evangelist and Methodist minister, when he is brought to trial here on a bigamy charge. Information received here tonight intimates she not only is ready to present evidence against her husband but is eager to be present.

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES "ECONOMY" POLICIES

Says He Has Not Been Too Economical—Regrets That He Has "Been Misunderstood." Charlotte, Sept. 28.—Replying to critics of his financial policies, Governor McLean, in an address at a luncheon in his honor here today, declared, "I have not been too economical," and expressed regret that he "had been misunderstood" by what he meant by "constructive economy."

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES "ECONOMY" POLICIES

Says He Has Not Been Too Economical—Regrets That He Has "Been Misunderstood." Charlotte, Sept. 28.—Replying to critics of his financial policies, Governor McLean, in an address at a luncheon in his honor here today, declared, "I have not been too economical," and expressed regret that he "had been misunderstood" by what he meant by "constructive economy."

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES "ECONOMY" POLICIES

Says He Has Not Been Too Economical—Regrets That He Has "Been Misunderstood." Charlotte, Sept. 28.—Replying to critics of his financial policies, Governor McLean, in an address at a luncheon in his honor here today, declared, "I have not been too economical," and expressed regret that he "had been misunderstood" by what he meant by "constructive economy."

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES "ECONOMY" POLICIES

Says He Has Not Been Too Economical—Regrets That He Has "Been Misunderstood." Charlotte, Sept. 28.—Replying to critics of his financial policies, Governor McLean, in an address at a luncheon in his honor here today, declared, "I have not been too economical," and expressed regret that he "had been misunderstood" by what he meant by "constructive economy."

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES "ECONOMY" POLICIES

Says He Has Not Been Too Economical—Regrets That He Has "Been Misunderstood." Charlotte, Sept. 28.—Replying to critics of his financial policies, Governor McLean, in an address at a luncheon in his honor here today, declared, "I have not been too economical," and expressed regret that he "had been misunderstood" by what he meant by "constructive economy."

GIRL BANK ROBBER INSANE, SAYS HER COUNSEL TO JURY

Husband of Texas Bank Robber Joined Others in Declaring His Wife Apparently "Unbalanced." Georgetown, Tex., Sept. 29.—(AP)—A form of insanity, made Rebecca Bradley Rogers incapable of understanding the difference between right and wrong when she is alleged to have set fire to a house as part of a plan to rob a bank, her attorneys contended in completing testimony at her trial on a charge of arson.

BURNED HOUSE BEFORE ROBBERY

Husband Says She Seemed to Feel That She Was "Incapable of Wrong."—Case to Jury Soon. Rogers, who gave up his law practice to come to his wife's defense as associate counsel, testified she seemed to feel that she was "incapable of wrong." This condition existed, he said, prior to December last, when she is charged with burning a house near a bank at Round Rock, Texas, and of the robbery of a bank at Buda, Texas, of $1,000, the following day.

MAY ASK GOVERNOR FOR SPECIAL TERM

Such Action Expected in Case of Mrs. Eugene Gatlin, Charged With Slaying Her Father. Raleigh, Sept. 27.—(AP)—While Governor McLean has received no request to order a special term of Rockingham County court, it is not improbable that such a request will be made soon, it was learned here today. Mrs. Eugene Gatlin, bride of fire chief of Reidsville, and accused as the slayer of her father, may be brought before special term of court even before regular January meeting date, according to advices here today traceable to Solicitor Allen Gwynn, who led in the investigation which unearthed the discovery of the body of Smith Petty, cotton mill foreman.

ASSEMBLY OF LEAGUE COMPLETES SESSION

Optimistic Note Sounded by President of Assembly Who Predicts Armament Reductions. Geneva, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The 8th assembly of the League of Nations which have been considering disarmament and security problems for the past few weeks, came to a close shortly after noon today with an optimistic note sounded by its retiring President, Albert Guani, Uruguayan ambassador to France.

WITH OUR ADVERTISERS

EIRD's Department Store is now showing the latest things in fall fashions. In a big ad today they tell you about the fall coats selling at $9.95 to $22.50. These include all the very latest styles and materials. Fall dresses are also being shown at prices ranging from $4.95 to $19.50. They are in a number of new lines and all the newest fabrics.

IT IS SAID SHE SHEDS TEARS OF BLOOD EVERY FRIDAY SINCE VISION RETURNED

Paris, Sept. 29.—(AP)—The case of Theresa Neumann, blind girl of Honners Reuth, Germany, who suddenly recovered her sight in 1924 after a period of intense religious devotion, has attracted the attention of the International Congress for Psychical Research to such a degree that an international committee has been appointed to visit her at the close of the Congress.

MRS. SUMMERS' FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

Winston-Salem, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The body of Mrs. Bessie Hall Summers, 53, who died in a hospital at Baltimore last night, will arrive here Wednesday morning for burial. Mrs. Summers was the wife of Dr. Chas. L. Summers, head of the children's department of the medical department of the University of Maryland. She was born March 3, 1874, in Mecklenburg county, the daughter of the late Willis and Sallie Carter, of Brown Hall. She and Dr. Summers lived in Winston-Salem until about twelve years ago when they went to Maryland.

WEATHER

Mostly cloudy with showers tonight or Friday in west and north central portions; somewhat warmer tonight in the interior.