Camel

Climbing to new heights of popularity

Government figures show that more Camels are being smoked today than ever before. One after another Camels passed them all.

If all cigarettes were as good as Camel you wouldn't hear anything about special treatments to make cigarettes good for the throat. Nothing takes the place of choice tobaccos.

SEPTEMBER ACTIVE FOR COUNTY AGENT; DUTIES NUMEROUS

R. D. Goodman Traveled Nearly One Thousand Miles to Care For Labors of His Office.

In fulfilling the numerous duties of his office during the month of September, County Agent R. D. Goodman traveled 980 miles, 800 of which were without the bounds of Cabarrus. Chief among the visits out of the county, Mr. Goodman accompanied a group of Cabarrus farmers to the Coker Seed Farm at Hartsville, S. C.

Among the more important meetings held during September were the demonstrations for the prevention of smut in grains. G. W. Fant, authority on plant diseases, visited the county to conduct these demonstrations from which farmers drew much valuable information.

Among the communities in which Mr. Goodman visited to carry on his work were: Wincoff, Bethpage, Mt. Pleasant, Kannapolis, Bethel, No. 3 township, Harrisburg, Gold Hill, and other places. Authorities in agricultural work who called upon the agent included F. R. Farnham, G. W. Fant, M. R. McLeod, D. S. Coltrane and W. R. Bailey. A resume of the September report of Mr. Goodman is given below: Miles traveled in work by auto in the county—680. Miles traveled in work by auto out of the county—300. Days in field—21 1-2. Days in office—4 1-2. Days off duty—0. Visits to demonstrators—59. Other visits—11. Interviews in and out of office—253. Telephone calls—137. Letters written—67. Newspaper articles written—14. Community meetings attended at night—2. Attendance—150. Other meetings attended—3. Attendance—300. Field meetings (smut treatment)—4. Attendance—100.

LARGE ENROLLMENT FOR MT. PLEASANT SCHOOL ON MONDAY

More Than 150 Students Reported at High School and Others Are Expected to Enter Later.

The Mt. Pleasant High School, the last in the county to begin operations this year, opened Monday morning with a record enrollment. County school officials report that 150 were enrolled in the high school during the day and at the elementary school there was also a large enrollment. Each school will operate for eight months this year. There were 35 students in the seventh grade at the high school and about that many in the sixth grade. These grades are being operated at the high school and all pupils from these grades in the one-teacher and two-teacher schools in the district reported for work in the high school. S. G. Hawfield, county superintendent of schools, states that additional students are expected to enroll in the school within the next several weeks.

MISS FULGHAM IN COUNTY TO SERVEY WORK OF SCHOOLS

Spent Monday at the City Schools and Then Goes to Kannapolis to See Work Being Done There.

Miss Susan Fulgham, supervisor of elementary schools for the State, is spending several days in Cabarrus county inspecting equipment and methods of study in the various elementary schools. Miss Fulgham spent all of Monday at the city schools, and Monday night conferred with teachers of the Hart-sell Mill school. Tuesday she visited the schools at Kannapolis in company with S. G. Hawfield, superintendent of the county schools.

Miss Fulgham pays particular attention, it is said, to equipment, course of study and other phases of work carried on in standardized schools. It is probable that she will make later a report covering her survey in this city and county.

TO REPAIR ROAD TO FAIR GROUNDS THIS WEEK, BROWN STATES

Fix Route in Preparation For Heavy Traffic During the Fifth Annual Fair Next Week.

County highway forces will begin repair today of the highway leading to the Cabarrus District Fair grounds in preparation for the expected heavy traffic during next week when the fifth annual fair will be under way. The stretch of road, after leaving the Charlotte route to the fair grounds is about two miles, and some two or three days will be required for workmen to put the road in shape. W. G. Brown, county highway engineer, stated that the county will give the road a coating in salt and sprinkled frequently to keep down the dust menace.

FAIR "BEST EXHIBIT" PREMIUM OPEN ONLY TO CABARRUS FOLK

Co-operative Communities of Cabarrus Will Compete For Four Valuable Prizes Next Week.

In keeping with their policy of encouraging cooperation among the farmers in the differentiated communities of this county, the committee of the Cabarrus District Fair has placed in their premium list one prize event that is restricted to the agricultural folk of Cabarrus. To the best cumulative community exhibit of field crops, garden crops, home industry, fruit, educational value, artistic arrangement and market form will be awarded a first premium of $30. Second best will enrich the competing vicinity by a sum of $20, while third and fourth places will draw awards of $15 and $10, respectively. Listed in the fair book as "Department A," this best exhibit premium event is the only one restricted to a single county. In past years, Cabarrus has demonstrated through this medium that she is capable of community cooperation along with the best and the local exhibits this year are expected to exceed in every way those of previous fairs.

Space has already been reserved for the various cooperating exhibitors and the displays will be ready on the opening day of the fair. Each space will be 8 to 16 feet. The following scale of points will be used by the judges in awarding premiums in this department: Field Crops—40 points; Garden Crops—10 points; Home Industry—10 points; Fruit—10 points; Educational value—10 points; Artistic arrangement—10 points; Market Form—10 points. A new lettered sign giving the name of the community will be placed over each exhibit.

NEGRO COMMUNITY FAIR, AT ROCK HILL SCHOOL ON FRIDAY

Colored Population of Rock Hill Section Plan For a Great Event Friday.—Over $100 in Premiums.

The colored people in the community of Rock Hill school celebrate their sixth annual fair on Friday of this week when they will exhibit their prize agricultural and horticultural products, livestock, poultry, culinary masterpieces, sewing and handicraft. The one-day October festival will be held on the school grounds, beginning at 9:30 o'clock and continuing until late afternoon. Many features are woven into the program of entertainment, chief among which is the grand parade at high noon when a brass band, playing a lively tune, will lead the procession from the Cabarrus County Fair grounds at Rock Hill school. Following the dinner hour several farm experts will address the patrons. The speaking will start at 2 o'clock. Climaxing the program will be a baseball game between the Landis Red Socks and the Rock Hill Giants. The program comments on the game in the following fashion: "This will be the last and best game of the season." Exhibitors are reminded that all entries must be registered at the fair before 11 o'clock Thursday night. Officials will permit, however, livestock and poultry to be entered before 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. More than one hundred dollars is offered as premium awards at the colored fall show.

CABARRUS DOCTORS IN MONTHLY MEET; MILLER, BOST SPEAK

Charlotte Doctors, Guests at Meeting, Give Interesting Addresses in October Session of Society.

The members of the Cabarrus Medical Society held their regular monthly meeting Monday night in the club dining room of Hotel Concord. Dr. O. L. Miller, bone specialist of Charlotte, a guest of the society, gave a stereopticon lecture on the diseases of the bones—technically called osteomyelitis. Illustrated with X-ray slides of bones in various stages of diseases, Dr. Miller's address was both interesting and informative. Dr. T. C. Bost, of Charlotte, counselor of the Seventh District Medical Society, was also a guest of the local organization. General medical subjects were incorporated in his brief but well-chosen remarks to the members of his profession. Preceding the talks, a delightful course-dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Odell and son, John K., spent the week-end in Dillon, S. C. the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown.
