A fumble on the nine-yard line prevented Concord from pushing another touchdown across early in the third period, but a break, however, in punting allowed the Spiders to regain the pigskin on the enemy's 45-yard line. From this point the Leggett-Green machine romped wildly over the visitors for another and final touchdown. Sanders, Kestler, Pike and Howard, each figured prominently in this goalward march Concord's heavy offensive punch was its sweeping end runs. Time after

GETS HIS SENTENCE OVER THE TELEPHONE

W. A. Bennett, of Georgia, Fined Over Telephone by Federal Court Judge. (By International News Service) Valdosta, Ga., Oct. 17 .- "Lo Judge, want to plead guilty in my case, what's the bad news?"

"I fine you $50, pay the court clerk."

W. A. Bennett, of Tifton, is believed to be the only man in the South who has the distinction of telephoning a plea of guilty and receiving sentence in federal court over long distance telephone.

The records in the office of Clerk W. E. Perry, of this city, show that Bennett was charged with violating a section of the Volstead act.
