LOCAL MENTION.

No deeds of property transfers in the county were recorded Tuesday at the office of the register of deeds in the court house.

The downtown section resembled the aftermath of a cyclone early Tuesday, what with all the Christmas cedars and other decorations being brusquely torn down.

Marriage license was issued to Harry Lataker, of Kannapolis, and Miss Alice Chester, of Davidson, Tuesday by Register of Deeds Elliott. Permit to wed was also granted a colored couple of the county.

More than 100 unfortunate and underprivileged children received gifts and food for Christmas as a result of the Opportunity campaign instigated by the King's Daughters, in collaboration with Welfare Officer Ray McEachern.

Installation of officers for 1928 will be a feature of the regular meeting Friday of the members of the Concord Kiwanis Club at Hotel Concord. Dr. Tom Rowlett has been elected president of the club for the calendar year beginning January 1.

The whole-hearted response to the food and fuel appeal for the benefit of needy families in this county provided bright cheery Christmas to many deserving persons. Checks and contributions were taken to the various houses early Sunday morning.

Richard Covington, University of North Carolina net star, was easy for Julius Seligson, of Lehigh, defending champion, in the national indoor tennis championship being played in New York City, which reached the semi-finals last year, was badly off form.

27,000 spectators watched Western football prove superior to Eastern as the former all-star outfit defeated the latter 16 to 6 in San Francisco yesterday. Hunt, of the Texas Aggies, was the star of the game, with Bruce Caldwell, of Yale, playing the best game for the Easterners.

The shopping center of the city is back to normalcy following the removal Tuesday of the last of the Christmas decorations. Lighted cedars are still in evidence in widely scattered parts of the residential sections but they, too, are fast disappearing.

Many business houses of the city have already begun inventories and will be in ship-shape condition for the beginning of the new year next Monday. Other firms will wait until next week for their annual check-up of merchandise sold over the twelve month period.

The 8 to 0 victory of the Southern All-Senior football team over the Western All-Seniors Monday gave the South a record of two wins and one tie in three starts over the opponents of the Western game. Alabama beat Washington, 20 to 19, in 1926, and tied Stanford, 7 to 7, on January 1, 1927.

The University of North Carolina flashed another potential team of Southern basketball champions in defeating the crack Monogram five, of Charlotte, 33 to 30, Tuesday night in the Queen City. Spectacular passing and shooting gave the Tar Heels the winning margin. A great rally by Fesser Faul's charges featured an exciting last period.

Attention is again called to the clinic for crippled children of this city that will be sponsored January 19th by the Concord Rotary club. The committee in charge has secured the services of Dr. G. L. Miller, orthopaedic surgeon of Charlotte and Gastonia, who will spend the day here diagnosing all cases for which appointments have been made.

Civil suit for judgment amounting to $1217.50 and the costs of the action has been preferred against Tucker Bros., of Midland, by the Model Flour Mills, of this city, according to papers filed Tuesday in the office of the clerk of court here. The complaint involves the sales and delivery of merchandise by the plaintiff which he claims was never paid for by the defendants.

Although but little outward boisterousness has been noticeable during the holidays, some forty or more have been arrested by city police officers on minor charges. No session of recorder's court will be held this week until Friday, due to the absence from the city of Judge A. B. Palmer. On that day all of the above mentioned defendants will appear for trial.

Jack MacDowall had small opportunity to "strut his stuff" as the All-Southern seniors won from the All-Westerners, 8 to 0, at the Christmas football classic Monday in Los Angeles. In the game but a few minutes of the time, Jack was unable to get his famous passing arm functioning because of the wetness of the pigskin. "Bad Bill" Spears, Vanderbilt candidate for All-American honors, was the outstanding star for the Southerners.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT AS CARS MEET HEAD-ON NEAR CITY.

Charles D'Hollosy, 40, Was Killed Instantly, Child Is Critically Hurt, Wif Suffers Serious Injuries.

Charles D. D'Hollosy, 40, real estate man of High Point, was killed instantly, his 23 months old son, Charles Wayne, suffered a double fracture of the skull, and his wife, 23, sustained a broken arm and a broken leg when the Ford coupe in which they were riding met in a head-on collision with a Pontiac, J. M. Robinson driving, on the Charlotte highway near Jackson Training school, about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon.

A coroner's jury absolved Robinson of the blame for the accident, however, is being detained at the Cabarrus county jail on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. A pistol was found in a suit case in the rear seat of the Pontiac. Robinson received a severe cut in the tragic mishap, 18 stitches being essential to close an ugly wound about the head.

Mr. D'Hollosy's skull was crushed in the collision, death coming to him immediately. He was driving the ill-fated coupe. His small son, in the arms of his mother, was seriously hurt. The child's skull was seriously dash-board of the machine, being fractured in two places. According to reports this morning from the Concord hospital where the injured mother and son were carried for treatment, there is increased hope for the child's life. The mother's left leg and right arm were broken, and she suffered painful cuts and bruises about the body. She will recover.

The accident, it is gathered from testimony at the coroner's inquest, was unavoidable. The eye-witnesses claimed that both automobiles were about the center of the highway when they met, each traveling at rather lively gait. The D'Hollosy family was en route from Charlotte where Robinson was driving his Pontiac toward the Queen City. Upon the impact the cars did not turn over, but each, badly wrecked, bounded considerably in the highway.

None was able to explain the cause of the collision. Mrs. D'Hollosy, who was seen by friends at the hospital, is quoted as saying, "I don't know what caused it." Mr. D'Hollosy had been in the employment of O. E. Mendenhall, operator of a real estate business in High Point, for the past two or three months. Robinson, driver of the Pontiac, is employed in Charlotte as the foreman of a fire extinguisher company, but his home is in Lincoln. It is probable that he will be granted a hearing today before a local magistrate on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Houston-Yates

A marriage of much interest and great surprise was that of Miss Alberta Yates and Sam Houston, Jr., of Harrisburg, which took place in Concord, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Houston is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yates and is well known throughout the eastern part of North Carolina. Mr. Houston is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston and has held a position in the Ford plant.

They left for a short motor trip through eastern North Carolina. After their return they will make their home in Charlotte.

Among the Concord people attending the dance in Salisbury Monday evening were the following: Misses Louise and Bessie Webb and Virginia Reid, and Joe Pohl, Clarence Simpson, Nevill Sappelfield, Paul Gray, William Flowe, Robert Simpson, Lewis Laughlin, James Linberger, Cline Mabrey, Pennut Ridenhour, Billy Caldwell, Billy Denton, Gene Hoover, Livingston Easley, Mack Howard and Zeb Petrea.
