Rain and mud 'till you can't rest.

The last sounding was 52 x 65.

Burke Superior Court is now in session.

Two droves of horses in town last week.

Who is the Grand Mogul of Stokes? Don't all speak at once.

Miss Bettie Pitzer is visiting her friend, Miss Phoeba.

Trade has been brisk for the last week, say our merchants.

There is still an increasing interest in our Sabbath School.

Spotty Taylor has "struck" the horse, at last. Lucky Spot.

Jane, a colored woman of our town, is now confined with Pneumonia.

We are glad to welcome Miss Kate Grogan among us again.

The youths of Danbury are very shy of the "little elephants."

Mr. Baine, of the Germanton School, was in town on Monday.

Thos. B. Pepper has one of the finest young nags in this section.

Last Saturday cleaned up the deck for "fence corner" caucuses.

Sergeant Blair will furnish Low's liniment on short notice. Good enough.

"Susan Jane" strikes the Presbyterian Synod a dreadful thump.

We with pleasure place the Statesville American on our exchange list.

Mr. H. M. Joyce has a small boat under full sail on his ice pond.

Mr. Jack Duggins has a promising boy bearing the name of Hayes.

"He ends justify the means," as the man said who was tied to the cow's tail.

Sheriff Estes has been in a rush all the week distributing the registrars' books.

John Taylor and Prof. Willis, spent Monday collecting fine specimens of chickens.

Mr. Joseph Covington now brings up our mail, vice Jack, the giant killer, resigned.

Caldwell and Watauga counties claim to be banner counties, as regards morality.

Go to the polls and vote for the man of your choice—there is certainly a variety.

Prof. Willis, of New York, is now gathering specimens of iron in our county, for the 10th census.

We mourn the loss of one of our most amiable ladies, with the consolation that our loss is her gain.

Frederick Muller, a shoemaker of our town, has disappeared, leaving a young wife. Let the press pass him around.

Our press has been howling all week, moulding election tickets. There are four or five candidates.

The people of Stokes would like to know what has become of the Baker matter. Tell us, somebody.

The American Farmer, published by Sam'l Sanders, Baltimore, Md., should be in every farmer's house.

Mrs. W. W. Moir, and Mrs. W. B. Rucker, of Patrick C. H., Va., are at present the guests of Dr. McCaules.

Mr. J. B. Whitten is very much pleased with his new situation at the jail. Has more room and a good garden.

After a suspension of several months the Mt. Airy Visitor is again welcomed among our exchanges, with Mr. P. T. Lehman as editor.

The Salem Academy, for February, is on our table. We are continually on our head about the "school girls gossip, pure, innocent, and white as snow."

The Governor having ordered a special election to be held in this county today, the Commissioners met at the Court House on Saturday and appointed registrars and judges of election.

Danbury beats any little place for wire-working we have ever seen. Some can tell you what you dreamed of the night before, while others can tell you things you never did dream of nor never will.

And now, he sings at the midnight hour, "I never loved a tree or flower but 'twas the first to fade and die."

A silly woman in a fine dress bears a very strong resemblance to a fifteen cent dahlia in a $2 flower pot.

Our colored orators made things lively on last Friday night over fire and water. The ox, it seems, will drink water, but will never eat fire! We'll give it up.

J. H. Greenwood, of Union Hill, Va., says he desires to visit Danbury at some future day for the purpose of "securing the shadow ere the substance fades."

Regular debate came off Saturday night, and the Right Worthy Grand Committee decided that Cortes was not justifiable in taking the Montezumi Empire. Well, dat vas all right.

The matrimonial fever is raging and a number of our youths are discussing the propriety of having their meals served them near Wagner's pond, as there are many bushes there. Capital idea.

I. T. Crumpler, of Germanton, writes us that he intends putting out one hundred thousand tobacco plants on a one-horse farm. He understands raising the weed, as also other things in proportion.

It is gratifying to learn that Miss E. of Leasburg, is rapidly recovering from an attack of Pneumonia. Leasburg will confer a favor upon us by sending in a club of recruits to the REPORTER.

LEARNING.— In the course of events we learn. Learn what is best for us. Learn what will "pan out" best. Learn where it is kept. Learn to go to S. E. ALLEN'S Hardware Store.

ABSCONDED.— Moody Linkford, the man recently confined in our jail for six months, has deserted his wife, and, taking his children, left with a Miss Brown, for parts unknown.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad will go under the N. C. Railroad, instead of crossing over it as first surveyed. This is fortunate for both roads. It crosses West Market street on "a grade just at the foot of College Hill.—Beacon.

President Gray went out yesterday to locate the first stockade on the Mt. Airy end of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. The grade is so light the stockade will be placed six miles from town, instead of 2 1/2 as first contemplated.—Greensboro Beacon.

SEED CATALOGUE.— Joseph Harris, of Moreton Farm, Rochester, N. Y., sends us his Catalogue of Choice, Garden and Flower Seeds for 1880. It is sent free of charge to all applicants. Prop him a postal card with your address, and tell him you saw this notice in the REPORTER.

ABOUT CORN AND WHEAT.— Corn loses one-fifth drying and wheat one-fourteenth. From this the estimate is made, it is more profitable for farmers to sell unshelled corn in the fall at 75 cents than at $1 a bushel in the following summer; and that wheat at $1.25 in December is equal to $1.50 in the succeeding June. In the case of potatoes—taking those that rot and otherwise lost—together with the shrinkage, there is a but little doubt that between October and June the loss to the owner who holds them is not less than 13 per cent.

"TRUE, O KING!"— An exchange well says that a large proportion of the people do nothing to support their local newspapers, and yet reap the benefit every day of the editor's work. A man will say advertising does not pay in my business, and yet the fact is that the town in which he does business would be unknown, and he himself would be unheard of if it were not for the newspaper, which he says does him no good. The local paper is of advantage to every man in the community, and when a man refuses to subscribe to or advertise in the paper on the ground that it "does him no good," he might just as well refuse to pay his taxes for the support of the courts and police force, on the ground that he never breaks the law and does not need the officers.

The Bro. Room! Hiss Pisses!— In these days of big Booms and high prices, it is gratifying to know there yet remains in the country one merchant who in nearly all cases yet sticks to old prices and whom others for so doing may term an "old fogy." Yet he is not by any means since by his foresight, and prompt action to lay in an immense stock at old prices and in many instances at less than cost of production he is enabled to do so.

We refer to S. E. Allen, wholesale and retail dealer in Hardware &c., Winston N. C., and in whose behalf we would solicit your patronage.

The Montgomery Messenger say that blue-backed money is dead. Yes, we remember some thing about the death of blue-backs in 65—but those servants were not dogs.

That new Hardware Store of Brown & Vaughn, at Winston, is receiving another car load of Stoves, Axes, and all the new goods for the season, as low as ever. Call and be convinced.

ALL ABOUT YELLOW TOBACCO.—W. A. Davis, Editor of the Oxford, (N. C.) Torchlight, has just published a handsome little book containing the experience of fifty of the most successful yellow tobacco farmers in Granville county, N. C. If you want to learn All About tobacco from the plant bed to the sales-room floor, you should enclose 25 cents in postage stamps to W. A. Davis, Publisher, Oxford, N. C., and receive his book, post-paid. The tobacco grown in his county (Granville) has a greater reputation than that of any other county in the United States.

FROM A DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN.— Prof. Green, a distinguished allopathic physician, wrote to the Medical Record to the effect that after all other means had failed he sent for the Kidney Cure (Safe Kidney and Liver Cure), and to his astonishment cured a serious case of Bright's Disease by administering it, and afterwards found it equally beneficial in other cases.

Died, in Wilkesboro, on the 22d ultimo, Mrs. Nancy A. Welborn, widow of the late Montgomery Welborn.

We had a short call from Dr. Dicks, on Saturday. The Dr. was in fine spirits.

WINSTON, March 8

The weather for the last two days has been quite rainy and unpleasant, putting quietus to the gardening business which, owing to the warm spring-like weather, had become the order of the day.

The bustle and stir on our streets during the past week, indicated a fine run of business, both in the warehouses and in the stores.

Quite a number of changes have taken place among our citizens. Mr. S. H. Smith has moved into his new, cozy and handsome residence on Shallow Ford street. This building is quite a stylish architectural design and finish, and is certainly a great improvement to that portion of town where the beauty of the adjacent dwelling was so much marred by that unsightly corner, made so fir want of suitable building, now so well supplied by this new residence.

Mr. A. F. Benton occupies the dwelling on Cherry street, recently vacated by Mr. Smith. Mr. R. Cottin has rented the property on Cherry street, formerly owned by Mr. Simms.

The Court House Square is receiving a thorough plunging preparatory to a general "do up." It is, indeed, time that this butt of so many hard jokes should receive some attention, being in the center of the business part of the town.

The stores injured by the fire are not ready to be occupied yet, and may not be for weeks.

Mr. R. J. Reynolds has purchased the fine pair of fast trotters of Mr. H. S. Foy. They are too fine to be used in the "livery business," to be driven by reckless persons.

Our esteemed friend, Mr. Stephen Neal, is now with Mr. Rucker in the new store in the Brown building.

T. L. Vaughn & Co., have just completed their factory, which is now one among the best in town.

The general prosperity of our town is onward and upward. In our last year type made us send 25 instead of 5 civvies to the penitentiary.

DALTON-MCCAULES.— On Tuesday evening, the 9th inst. Mr. Rufus Dalton, of Dalton, N. C., was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to the amiable and accomplished Miss C. A. McCaules, daughter of Dr. W. W. McCaules, of this place, Rev. T. H. Pogram officiating.

ATTENDANTS: Mr. W. V. McCaules and Miss Maggie Dalton, H. M. Joyce and Miss L. E. Bates, S. A. Moir and Miss S. E. Pitzer, Dr. Joseph Hill and Miss Etta Joyce.

The marriage ceremonies were performed in the sitting-room of the hotel, which was crowded to its utmost capacity with invited guests. The room had been tastefully festooned and decorated with rich evergreens, while above the mantel was to be seen standing out in bold relief a beautiful circle of spruce pine, in the center of which was two united hands, signifying the union of hearts, while on either side were ever green letters, "D M." Beneath this display of ferns stood two large vases of flowers, as exquisite as those we read of having been in the vale of Cashmere.

Space will not permit us to describe the solemn brilliancy of the occasion, as the glistening lights shown over fair women and brave men. It seemed to rival in gorgeous splendor and chivalry the gathering at Belgium's capital.

The bride's dress consisted of a handsome costume, trimmed very elaborately with shearing of white satin, lace, and white flowers, with her orange wreath, beautiful veil, kid slippers and of r gloves, made her one of the most charming of brides.

Miss Dalton, first brides-maid, was dressed in white alpaca, with trimmings of white silk. Miss Joyce, white bunting trimmed with satin. Miss Estes and Miss Pitzer, white, with trimmings of lace and pink flowers.

The table (at which we did ourselves justice) groined under all the delicacies of the day, consisting of ices, jellies, floating island, Blanche Mange custard, handsome cakes, fruits, baskets filled with confectioneries of all kinds.

It was, upon the whole, one of the most festive occasions ever witnessed in Danbury, and all present will ever delight to re-weld the associations of that evening in the forge of memory.

May this the spring time of their married life be prolific of pleasure and happiness, their summer warm in affection and devotion to each other, their autumn rich with the fruits of industry and prosperity, and their winter made pleasant by the recollection of a life well spent.

PASS HIM ROUND.— We add our testimony to other journals that have been swindled by H. T. Helmbold, that he is a fraud and a rascal, and is deserving a berth in a penitentiary. He is the "Buchu" man, and has swindled many journals in this State, and not one has been successful in collecting a bill. His "Buchu" doubtless is as worthless as himself.—Statesville American.

The candidates for the Legislature are Dr. M. K. Banner, M. I. Stewart, J. W. Preston, J. D. Elyat and James W. Davis. Politics are discarded, and free fight the motto.

And, the school girls of the Salem Female Academy have "pneumonia in the jaws!" We have a young man afflicted with Typhoid of the heart.
