Farmers returning from market report the price of leaf tobacco very low. Our "devil" says there is great detention in the mails just now, but none in the females. Farmers and Threshermen look out for the "Starved Rooster Thresher" in mext week's paper. Mr C. Bunker, living near Mt Airy, had three horses killed by lightning one day last week. We learn that some 11 or 12 persons left Surry county recently for Utah, the land of many wives.

Ten prisoners were in jail here last Monday, and the deputy sheriff said that he had room for thirty more.

We learn from Dr. M. R. Banner, who was in town Monday, that there is more sickness south of Town Fork in the neighborhood of Walnut Cove than there has been for several years past Several deaths during the last two or three weeks.

The Prohibition Convention which ssembled in Raleigh week before last was quite an imposing body of men, and gave a new impetus to the temperance movement in North Carolina. A State executive committee of twenty-five was appointed, composed of members from the different Congressional districts.

Persons who abuse stock might profit by posting themselves in regard to the law against cruelty to animals, passed by the late General Assembly. It has by the late General Assembly. It has been truthfully said that a man who will wilfully or wantonly abuse or torture any animal that has a body which can suffer, but no spirit to complain, deserves to fall under the condemnation of the criminal law, and that law should be so exact and comprehensive that there can be no yiolation without feeling its penalties.

Reports received from different por tions of the county from persons attending court this week represent that the farmers are progressing finely with their work. There will be a fair crop of peaches and apples; the wheat crop never presented a more promising ap-pearance; there will be more than an Venuor predicts a cold snap on or average acreage of corn planted, and altogether we never had a better prospect for an abundant harvest

> A vessel in a whisky wagon became uncorked whille passing through Danbury yesterday, and our streets were well sprinkled with the ardent as it drove through town. The man in charge kept straight ahead, apparently unconscious that anything happened.—
> A miserable looking man to doubt A miserable looking man, no doubt very "thirsty" on account of the pre-vious day's debauch, remarked in an earnest tone, as he observed the block-ade new dip trickling upon the ground: "I wish it was in me"

> What a convenient, round-about and seemingly natural nack some men have of letting others know they have been to "college," have visited certain large cticies, are acquainted with certain big men; &c. We know of an individual who is said to be chronically afflicted with the last mentioned ailment—he will inquire after the "Colonels," "Doctors" and "Honorables," whose acquaintance he had the pleasure of making many years ago in a distant section, but keeps as dark as Egypt about his poor kin scattered about in the same county.

> It seems that the very devil has got into the people in some parts of this county. There are three prisoners now in jail (all colored) awaiting their trial charged with committing rapes, and the sheriff with his posse has gone in persuit of another (white man) charged with committing the same fiendish act, his victim being a little girl but nine years old. This state of things points too plainly to the indolence, and may be the corruption of those whose duty it is to see that the laws are enforced. They are certainly more or less responsible We are not of those who believe in running the State and County to heavy expense for every trivial offence, every technical violation, but when men can get drunk, disturb worshiping congrega-tions, cut and shoot, not only those di-rectly concerned, but endanger the lives of innocent persons, and then come to court and get off by paying the cost, is it any wonder that men should think that they may commit any crime and escape unpunished, if they can raise a few dollars. Our court dockets are filled up with little trivial assault and battery cases and others of a similar nature, that should have been disposed of before the township magistrate, some of which require hours to try, while cases which require and should have the closest investigation are allowed to pass off the docket—so one outside knows how—and the offenders allowed to return to their homes unpunished We say again, is it any wonder that there are at large from this county three or four murderers, all of whom have shot down their separate victims in cold blood and then been al lowed to make good their escape. In these extreme cases the law must be enforced, or else civil people had better seek a place of safety among the wild Indians of the far West.

Memorial Day at Danbury.

MESSRS EDITORS -This the 10th of Everett will rejoice to know that his | could be early seen preparing their floral | warehouse charges to the farmer appointment as collector for this district offerings in honor of our dead heroes, whose remains rest in the numerous grave yards and on the numberless fields of carnage of the late war. At half past 8 in the morning, the church ball was heard, inviting those who could, to repare to the church to commemorate the noble deeds of the confederate dead, in a short time the ladies were seen moving towards the church with their floral of-ferings in their hands; the little children (god bless them) had, each their bunch of flowers. About 60 persons in all as-sembled at the church and were seated at 9 o'clock. The object of the meeting was explained, and Col Jas. T Morehead, of Greensboro, (who had been invited by the ladies previously to make an address) was introduced to the audience, who rose and delivered a most beautiful and appropriate address, at the close of which their was a hearty cheer. Then the choir was requested to sing a memorial ode, which was done to the de light of all present, the organ leading the singing.

After the singing, the procession formed and moved out of the church to the grave yard, and the floral offerings were placed on the grave of the only Confederate soldier who was buried in Confederate soldier who was buried in Danbury, after which the people dispersed. It is hoped, that the memory of our noble dead will never be forgotten. Who is there in this sunny land of ours, who has kindred, who gave their lives in detence of their countrys honor, believing at the time that they were doing their duty, who can forget to honor them? who can treat such occa sions lightly? Let the little children be taught by their mothers to celebrate
"annually" this day, in memory of our noble dead.

A HEALTHY STATE .- People are constantly changing their homes from East to West and from North to South or vice versa, in search of a healthy State. If they would learn to be contented and to use the celebrated Kidney Wort when sick they would be much better iff. The whole system can be kept in a healthy state by this simple but effect remedy. See large adv.

great curative effects of Simmons' Liver Regulator. Its virtues are attested by thousands who have used the medicine, and it is now largely in demand. It commends itself to the public by its component parts being entirely vegetable, no injurious effects from its use, being pleasant to the taste, and its operation upon the Liver being perfect, at the same time so imperceptible that it interferes with neither business nor pleasure.

Five hundred acres of land around Yorktown have been purchased by the committee association formed to celebrate the centennial anniversary of Lord Cornwallis's surrender. The land will be beautifully laid off as a parade and camp ground for the French and American soldiers. The new buildings will be erected near the site of the village. Virginia is anticipating a lively celebra | EAST and WEST, MEN'S WEAR, tion of this anniversary.

How to GET WELL.-Thousands of persons are constantly troubled with a combination of diseases. Diseased kid-neys and costive bowels are their tormentors. They should know that Kidney-Work acts on these organs at the same time, causing them to throw off the poisons that have clogged them, and so renewing the whole man.
