Common tobacco is very low on the market. We would advise farmers, if compelled to have money out of their tobacco crop, to send only the bright grades to market. It may be that the low grades will pay for hauling in the spring; they will not now.

Mr. J. M. Linville, one of our ex-county Commissioners, was in town last week, he informs us that there is a perfect rush about the head of the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad, speculators taking hold of every thing that there is any money to, says that even now, wagons are running all the time hauling to the road hickory, dogwood, persimmon, and other timbers. The farmers in the neighborhood get $7.00 per cord for sticks 42 inches long, and for pieces 8 feet long they get more. At these prices there has been enough hickory and other valuable timbers burned in logheaps in Stokes since the war to have paid for all the tobacco grown on the land from which it was cut, and pay for the building of a railroad clear across the county, but thanks to the timber. Give there are millions left yet if taken care of.

We hear that 20 or more hands will be put to work cutting cross ties for our R. R. near town. This looks like business—Germantown Times

Some will get fooled on tobacco this year, if the crop is everywhere like it is in this section. We have yet to hear of any 2000 lb crop weighing out more than from 900 to 1000 lbs.

Germantown Times: The cars passed over the trestle at Robinson's Mill on last Thursday morning, the cross ties have been laid nearly 2 miles this way, we hope to publish the fact that the cars will steam up to Germantown before the leaves put out in Spring

A destructive fire occurred in Reidsville, on last Sunday (Jan. 23), by which the Piedmont hotel, Star Warehouse and fourteen stores were totally destroyed. The fire originated in the bar-room belonging to Overy. The loss is estimated at from fifty to seventy thousand dollars—amount of insurance unknown.

We all know that Winston is our corn crib, smoke-house, wardrobe, and closet where we keep our sugar, coffee, spices, and medicine for the sick babe. There too is our workshop where we keep our farming tools, and our banks (warehouses) from which we draw money to pay for every thing we need to eat, wear, or work with; therefore every farmer, mechanic, or professional man who reads this paper in Stokes county, (and all do or should), if not well acquainted with the place should consult its columns to know exactly where to find such things as he wants for the least trouble, or money. Not from "here say or there say" but from actual experience, those who advertise in this paper will as a general thing furnish what you want, as low, and very often lower than you can get the same article at other places. Reason why,—because they tell the people, the hundreds or may be the thousands of people in their advertisements what they will do, and when called upon do what they say, thereby sell so much more, and sell for a smaller profit. We therefore say to the thousands and one readers of this paper when in need of any thing, consult its columns.

Why the State and C. F. & Y. V. Co. should build us a Railroad.

Stokes county is nearly one hundred years old, and ever since, she has had a name, has been paying tax to build up, improve, and beautify other sections of the State without hardly receiving directly one dollar of the public funds to develop her own resources. Now that the Legislature is in session, the convicts are being apportioned, and the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad Co. is asking for further time to complete its road, which time we learn has been granted by one branch of the Legislature, with a smaller number of convicts than it formerly had the promise of. We think it but justice that an amendment be added, increasing the number by at least fifty convicts, and requiring the C. F. & Y. V. Co. to work these on the branch road, from the main line at Walnut Cove, to Danbury, from the time the cars reach that place, until the branch is completed to Danbury. We do not think the Co. should object to this, when they remember that many of our people who live at, and far north from the center of the county, voted for, and have paid their tax to help build its road along the extreme southern border. Then as a matter of remuneration, not only to the Company, but the whole State, this road will penetrate a section abounding in valuable minerals, timbers, water power, and mineral waters, to say nothing of its agricultural possibilities, to that extent, that capital, and enterprise, will flow in and add hundreds of thousands to the wealth of the State, and the thousands of tons of freight, and tens of thousands of health, and pleasure seekers, who will visit this section, will in our opinion make it the best paying short road in the State. We hope that not only our members from Stokes, but all those who feel an interest in the general welfare of North Carolina, will consider this matter, and if our claims are right, and just, will lend a helping hand.

THE MAN THEY THINK TO FOOL EACH OTHER BUT FOOL THEMSELVES.

A lot of farmers get together and curse the warehouse men, manufacturers, fertilizer men, the government, or party in power, for the low price of tobacco, and swear they will never buy another pound of fertilizer, or stick another plant of tobacco, each goes going home thinking the other fellow meant what he said, and that a hundred or a thousand others thought the same way. Each says to his old woman, "every body is out with tobacco, and is not going to stick a plant; let us raise a big crop, it will be so scarce this year that we will get a big price for our crop." So all go to work, acting under the same belief, but when selling time comes around they find that each has made more "stuff" which he calls tobacco than he made the year before. Now farmers, your success or our hope for a living, poor as it may be. If you will not get and we will give you one word of advice. First, remember the day for common tobacco has passed in North Carolina, and that if your experience or your land will not admit of your making fine tobacco, you had better let it alone and not stick a plant. Let your neighbors do as they please, but don't you touch it.

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday the temperature was spring-like. On Sunday morning clouds obscured the sky and fog draped the mountain tops so much so that the outline of Pilot Mountain was only dimly visible from the Brown Mountain county. There were light rainfalls throughout the day. Sunday night the wind blew its roughest and rain fell its heaviest. At Walnut Cove a new building that had been roofed was blown down. It seemed that another piercing cold spell similar to those we had experienced during this month was about to set in. On Monday the bright sunshine and fitful gusts of wind continued all day and the atmosphere became colder than it had been the latter part of last week. Tuesday was a bright, genial day, for though the wind continued to blow with March like force all day the weather was only moderately cold. The wind lay Tuesday night and though the sun rose upon a clear sky Wednesday the clouds soon collected but at the time we write there is an indication of clear cold weather.
