THE GRAVE.
JAMES LES HUNT.
A realm where conquests never bring
The triumph of their power—
The throne whereon a worm is king,
The prince and plebeian's dower.

A LOVE-LEAF.
SWEET, let me take that little hand so fair,
And whilst I slip the ring upon its place—
The pledge to seal our truth—lift thou to mine Thy pure, proud, faultless face.

Behold, the gemmed hand so sweetly bled
Within mine own, I raise it to my lips,
And swear life's own eternal shall go down
Ere my love knows adieu.

THE CROSS-EYED CLERK.
During the late Christmas holidays a large firm in B—, employed as an assistant clerk a young man who was exceedingly cross-eyed.

The special duty assigned to him was to act as watchman and prevent the penetration of all sorts of small fancy articles that were lying about the counter for exhibition at that time.

One day a half grown boy came into the store, and after looking all around picked up first one thing and then another, among which were some very nice socks, he finally started to go out of the door.

At this moment the new clerk touched him lightly on the shoulder, and inviting him to come to the back part of the store, said to him politely:
"Oblige me by giving me at once the socks that you have in your back pocket."

"How do you know I have any socks in my back pocket?" demanded the boy in a bold tone.
"I saw you put them there," said the clerk very gently.

The boy looked up in the young man's face in utter amazement. "Are you looking at me now?" he asked earnestly.
"Do you see me this very minute?"
he asked still more earnestly.

"Of course I do," replied the clerk.
"Good Lord, mister!" cried the boy with a blanching face, "here's your socks!" And with a bound he was out of the back door and over the fence and away, having learned a lesson concerning all-seeing eyes, which it is to be hoped he may never forget.—Harper's Magazine.

SEARCHING FOR PAPA.
A lady in the street met a little girl between two and three years old, evidently lost, and crying bitterly. The lady took the baby's hand, and asked where she was going.
"Down to find my papa," was the sobbing reply.
"What is your papa's name?" asked the lady.
"His name is papa."
"But what is his other name? What does your mamma call him?"
"She calls him papa," persisted the little creature. The lady then tried to lead her along. "You had better come along with me. I guess you came this way."
"Yes, but I don't want to go back, I want to find my papa," replied the little girl, crying afresh, as if her heart would break.
"What do you want of your papa?"
asked the lady.
"I want to kiss him."
"Just at this time a sister of the child, who had been searching for her, came along and took possession of the little runaway. From inquiry it appeared that the little one's papa, whom she was so earnestly seeking, had recently died, and she, tried of waiting for him to come home, had gone out to find him.—Ex.

NORTH CAROLINA GRANGE-ENCAMPMENT AND FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

To be held at Mount Holly, Gaston Co., on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th 1887. The main purpose of this Encampment is:

FIRST.—To enable the farmers of North Carolina to annually meet together at a time when there is little work to do on the farm and compare experiences. To hear addresses from practical men, who have given special study to some particular branch of agriculture.

SECOND.—To see the latest improved machinery used on the farms, which will be exhibited in large quantities by manufacturers from every section of the Union.

THIRD.—To exhibit their stock, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, turkeys, etc., and make sales of some or to exchange for some breed they think will be of advantage to cross with their own.

FOURTH.—To aid farmers who have not yet secured improved stock by showing them all the different breeds and in this way encouraging the purchasing of good varieties of cattle, sheep, swine, &c.

FIFTH.—To annually stimulate and strengthen the farmer's organizations throughout the State, by putting new energy and determination into the breast of every farmer who attends.

According to the recent acts concerning the State Agricultural Board, the Farmers' Institute Department of this Encampment will be specially under State supervision.

All those desiring to make displays of machinery, stock, &c., should apply at an early day.

Exhibitors of machinery desiring to make a circuit of fairs can readily arrange to display their goods at the Encampment of Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, North and South Carolina, to be held at Spartanburg, S. C. which is not exceeding one hundred miles distant from Mount Holly, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the week preceding our Encampment, and at Atlanta, Ga., the week after our Encampment.

There will be no admission fee to the grounds or charge on entrance of stock or articles exhibited by farmers. There will be a very moderate charge made on exhibitors of machinery, eating house and restaurant keepers, just enough to aid in defraying the necessary expenses, which will be very light, as no rent is charged by owners of grounds for their use, and no officer's salary to pay, as Mr. J. T. PATRICK, Commissioner of Immigration, has kindly consented to do all the clerical work, and persons desiring special information should address him at Raleigh, N. C.

Very truly,

The children are getting more precocious every day. On returning home from his office Col. Yeager found his 10-year-old boy Tommy in the front yard playing marbles with a strange boy of about his own age.

"Bill" said Tommy, "allow me to introduce you to my father. You two gentlemen ought to know each other."

PICKINGS.

From the Wilmington Star.
Henry W. Ravenel, LL. D. a very distinguished S. C. botanist, is dead, aged 78.

Mr. Blaine is reported in ill health. His appetite has given way.

A colored picnic near New York ended in the usual way—the razors filled the air and many were hurt.

The New York World is writing up "Slavery in Pennsylvania" among the murders.

The way to build up a town is to keep on building and not charge too high rents.

In Secretary Lamar's department there are 834 Union veterans. Under Arthur there were but 770. This passes for "reform."

That horrible murder of a boy by a North Carolina preacher and teacher turns out to be a regular Munchausen yarn all through.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt is very hopeful of the near overthrow of the Tory party. He says the hour of Liberal victory is now.

Belgium and Switzerland will send an infantry company each to attend the international drill in October next at Chicago.

On the 1st of July the currency in actual circulation amounted to $1,318,784,931. The metallic increase was from $457,416,404 to $482,172,189.

In 1880 there were 310 furnaces producing 71,950 tons of iron per week. In 1887 there are 314 furnaces which produce 104,928 tons per week.

The late R. M. T. Hunter was the youngest Speaker the house has ever had, even younger than Mr. Clay was. He was elected in 1849 when not thirty one years old.

Mr. John S. Barbour, of Va., is for Cleveland. He is friendly to the Administration. Unless you blow over all that is done the organs will write you down as hostile and bourgeois and silly.

Miss Dorothea L. Dix, a sister of Gen. Dix of N. Y., is dead, in her 86th year. It was Miss Dix who visited North Carolina and was chiefly instrumental in having the N. C. Insane Asylum erected. She was who prompted Mr. James C. Dobbin's eloquence that carried the bill through the Legislature.

Is Pasteur's famous theory as to inoculation for rabies sound? So says a British commission of men of science, composes of Sir James Paget, Dr. Lauder Brunton, Dr. George Fleming, Sir Joseph Lister, Dr. Richard Quain Sir Henry E. Roscoe, and Dr. J. Buron Sanderson, with Prof. Victor Horsley as Secretary.

Lord Salisbury in his speech to the members of Parliament on the 19th inst., admitted that his party was at the mercy of the Unionists—that is of the Liberal bolters. Is day breaking for Ireland?

FRUITS OF THE STOCK LAW.
Dr. H. B. Weaver, who spent some days last week among the mountains at head of Reems' Creek in this county, tells us of the positive good effects of the operation of the stock law in that section. The ground which for some years had become bare from depasturing, has now become coated with a spontaneous growth of red clover, the result of former droppings; and the wild pea vine, almost become extinct is making its reappearance with luxuriant growth. The former rich coating of the mountain sides and tops is being renewed through the absence continued and indiscriminate grazing. After a while the cattle can be turned out occasionally for a grand bucolic picnic. —[Asheville Citizen.]

The advisability of an ordinance prohibiting women from wearing Mother Hubbards on the streets has been under consideration by the commissioners of the town of Mocksville.

A Greensboro fruit grower in two weeks shipped to Richmond 143 crates which netted him $2 each.

PROPER TESTING OF BUTTER COWS.

Great stress is laid upon the amount of butter a cow will make in a trial of seven days or a month. The milking weighing of the milk the salting and working of the butter are under supervisions, as if the quantity and quality of the butter decided the profitableness of the cow, and the price she ought to bring in the market. We have many registered cows that produce fourteen pounds of butter in a week, and a few go up into the twenties. A very few are stated to have produced twenty-five pounds in a week. It is thought to be within the range of probability that a cow will get make 900 pounds of butter in a year. These large figures have set the old heads upon the farm to serious thinking, which is a very good thing, and started some doubts, which is better. They begin to question, whether, fourteen pounds of butter in a week on selected rations, in addition to grass pays any better than seven or eight pounds on grass alone. They want a cow that will make the most butter on a given value of food. It is the exception rather than the rule in the record of these large yields of butter, that we have any fair statement of the rations or the result of these large yields upon the condition of the cow. They wish to know what a pound of the tested butter yield costs. There is a demand for trial of these cows upon grass alone. That would not fairly decide the comparative merits of the cow. One animal might weigh a thousand, and another but five hundred, and of course it would take a much larger portion of the rations to keep up the condition of the former than of the latter. One cow might have accumulation of fat, while the others was in poor condition. There might be as much difference in the pastures as in flesh of cows, of if the grass was equally lush, pasture might be worth twenty-five cents in a rural district, and a dollar a week near a city. The cry for trial "on grass alone," will not give us the light we want. We desire to know just what it costs Mr. Bonanza to get a hundred pounds of butter out of his $1,000 cow, "Magnificent." There is interest on the investment during the butter trial—the cost of pasturage in his vicinity, the quantity of the additional rations, and their value, and, finally, the cost of manufacture and marketing the butter.—Ex.

STATE NEWS.
The first number of the Transylvania Pioneer, published at Brevard, has appeared.

All the Southern stocks are booming on Wall street.

New Bern Journal. Mr. R. C. Cleve of Vanceboro, sends three huge Irish potatoes, the product of his farm, down to M. F. Ulrich. The three together weigh five and three quarter pounds, the largest weighing two and one quarter.

Fayetteville News: The architectural beauty and finish of our new hotel will compare favorably with any like building in the South. It is nearing completion.

Raleigh News-Observer: Capt. Wm. Smith reports that the crops along the line of the R. & G. railroad are looking splendid. So far the continued hot weather has not affected them for the worse.

Lenoir Topic: Mr. James A. Houck, of Caldwell county, recently lost two cows from eating sugar. He was thinking out his sugar cane, and what he pulled up he left lying in the sun for a couple of hours, after which he threw it over the fence to his cows, which ate it readily. In an hour or two they began to swell up and very soon died.

Weldon News: During the extreme heat of last week the stock that were at work suffered extremely. Maj. Emory lost one of his fine black horses; Dr. Green lost a fine gray mare; Mr. T. A. Clark lost one of his horses, B. F. Gray of Halifax, lost a horse and John Dickens, who lives near Halifax, also lost a horse.

Brevard Pioneer: The locust as a shade tree has had its day. There are many other better kinds. Tourists and health-seekers are moving about through the valley almost daily now, and the unflattering expressions, "This is the most beautiful country I ever saw. Why, I thought the French Broad Valley was away up yonder at Asheville!" Not a bit of it; the French Broad Valley is right here in Transylvania County, where it will remain for the future.
