SELF-SACRIFICE.

The tower door of St. Leonard chruch Bridgenorth, England, was left open, and two young boys, wandering in, were tempted to mount up into the upper part and scramble from beam to beam.

All at once a joist gave way. The beam on which they were standing be-came misplaced. The elder had just time to grash it when falling, while the younger, slipping over his body, caught hold of his comrade's legs.

In this fearful position the poor lads hung, crying vainly for help, for ne one was near.

At length the boy clinging to the beam became exhausted. He could no longer support the double weight. He called out to the lad below that they were both done for.
