Corn at 62 cents per bushel at the Red Store.

We hear that Piedmont Springs will open about June 1st.

There are four convicts all colored working the public road.

It is quite warm during the day but the nights are quite cool.

It was cool enough to enjoy a fire later than this last season.

Big stock of Ladies spring hats at the Red Store Germantown, N. C.

Mr. N. A. Martin's baby has been quite sick this week of pneumonia.

THE DELICIOUS odor of the locust blossom is now wafting on the breeze.

It is so quiet here at this time that one can almost hear the dropping of a leaf.

There will be preaching here next Sunday morning by the pastor Rev. Mr. Snow.

Dr. W. W. McCasless who has been much indisposed is again about we are glad to see.

Dr. V. O. Thompson, Winston, N. C., is selling cabbage seed (two papers) for five cents.

THE Guilford Battle Celebration brought a large crowd of people together; a number went from here.

A full line of garden seeds of all kinds at wholesale and retail by Ashcraft & Owens, Winston, N. C.

We acknowledge the reception of an invitation to the annual May races of the Gentlemen's Driving Club of Charlotte.

BALL playing seems played out this season, but marbles are indulged in by the boys including the old boys or married ones.

WE HEAR LITTLE COMPLAINT about the tobacco fly destroying the young plants; the prospects are that the crop will be large.

THE past season has not been a good one for bees—the scarcity of sourwood blossoms last year has been suggested as the cause.

Cotton checks 51; nails $2.20 to $2.72; calico from 41 to 61; 4,000 yds. plant bed cloth at 21c at the Red Store, Germantown, N. C.

THE APPLE AND PEACH trees seem to have resisted the frost of last week hereabout; the vegetation to the north-east did not fare as well.

OUR road overseers have done something within the last two years towards putting up sign boards at the forks of roads, but much remains to be done.

THE picnic at Piedmont on Easter Monday having proved just so nice, there is talk of another at an early day. A large number of "blades" is expected.

In a nursery wherein all is life and laugh instead of crying and fretting there is sure to be found Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents a bottle.

No one can think clearly when suffering with headache. Laxador will banish this disagreeable ailment. Price 25 cents a package.

Capt John L. Smith, of Westfield, N. C. sold at Piedmont Warehouse, Winston, N. C. on April 29th, 4427 pounds of tobacco for $1450.37, making an average of over $35.00 per cwt. This is the biggest average for the same amount of tobacco that has been made in Winston this year, and is the largest check any farmer has drawn. Picl. ment is the place.

Do not consult any body, but invest twenty five cents in a bottle of Salvation Oil. It kills pain!

When we reflect that so many human beings die of Consumption we must come to the conclusion that every body should be provided with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the poor consumptive's friend.

A full report of the proceeding of the late meeting of the Board of County Commissioners is given on another column of this issue of the REPORTER.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been returned to the Register of Deeds since our last report:

Henry Yates and Nancy Lillie Fulton; Thomas Martin and Mary Golden; William Thomas Neal and Ella Carter.

Home Supplies.

There has never been such a curse in this section as the tobacco craze. It is well for the farmer to have some good tobacco, but the bad effects of ALL TOBACCO is demonstrated by the fact that this country is worse off for money than in 1868; and three out of four of our people are a cove and a cove buyers, and would buy peas, beans, potatoes and other things if they were to be bought.

Plant Irish Potatoes.

Before you plant twice as much tobacco as you can manage just think that one acre in Irish potatoes if on good land, with one working, will bring you from $150 to $400 before this time next year. What will the same land in tobacco bring? We just mention potatoes as one crop out of many that would pay the farmer to grow.

Stock Law for Danbury.

We should have the stock law for Danbury, and pave some of its gutters. The proprietor of the REPORTER would not mind paying a little, but he never could put down rock to resist a job, for about two hours after completing a ten days job for four hands, an old sow would come along and turn over in two hours the last rock put down.

Afternoon Tea.

Said Mrs. G. to Mrs. D. ("Twas o'er a cup of fine Bohica): "Our pretty hostess yonder, Has gained in looks surprisingly; She seems as well as well can be! What is the cause, I wonder."

Said Mrs. D. to Mrs. G., "She's changed indeed, but then you see She put aside objection, And tried that famous remedy, Which did so much for you and me— Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

For biliousness, sick headache, indigestion, and constipation, there is no remedy equal to Dr. Pierce's Little Pills.

Frequently accidents occur in the household which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises; for use in such cases is Dr. J. H. McLean's Volucina Oil Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy.

You will have no use for spasmodics if you use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Eye Salve; it removes the film and scum which accumulates on the eye balls, subdues inflammation, cools and soothes the irritated nerves, strengthens weak and falling sight. 25c. a box.

For sick headache, female troubles, neuralgia pain in the head take Dr. J. H. McLean's Little Liver and Kidney Pills. 25 cents a vial.

If you spit up phlegm, and are troubled with a hacking cough, use Dr. J. H. McLean's Tar Wine Lung Balm.

In cases of Fever and Ague, the blood is as effectually, though not so dangerously poisoned by the effluvia of the atmosphere as it could be by the deadliest poison. Dr. J. H. McLean's Chills and Fever Cure will eradicate this poison from the system. 50 cents a bottle.

Croupy suffocations, night coughs and all the common affections of the throat and lungs quickly relieved by Dr. J. H. McLean's Tar Wine Lung Balm.
