A GOOD STOMACH.

A BABY AT MT. AIRY WHO SWALLOWED A WHOLE SEWING SKET.

Richmond State.]

Leo, the eleven months-old baby of Oscar M. Spauld, register of Mt. Airy district, swallowed a number of needles, pins, buttons, &c., on Saturday morning last while Mrs. Spurrer was doing her usual cleaning up for Sunday. About 10 o'clock she placed the little fellow in an adjoining room on the floor to play while she did her work. She gave him a glance quite often to see that he did not get near the stove. She saw that he was quiet and contented beyond the table, and considered him quite safe from harm. She did not notice that he had pulled off the table spread, with the sewing basket on it. The little fellow swallowed paper, buttons, tacks, and even took pins from a paper bag, swallowed them without complaining. The mother later on discovered what had been done. She examined his mouth and found nothing in it, and felt sure that he had not swallowed anything until about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, when the child cried with pain, and emitted from its mouth a number of buttons and pins. Dr. Ben Todd was immediately sent for, but could not do anything much beyond giving an emetic and letting nature take its course. Within thirty-six hours afterwards the little fellow had emitted thirty-six various-articles. They had to keep moving the little fellow almost constantly, and he bore the pain heroically, scarcely crying. At 8 o'clock this morning he was quietly sleeping, and it is hoped that the worst is over.

Here is a list of the things he swallowed:

- 18 pins. 4 needles. 8 tacks. 7 wads or particles of paper. 2 wads or particles of muslin. 8 china buttons. 1 vest button. 4 pearl buttons. 1 shoe button. 1 piece of bark. 5 pieces of cork. 1 piece of feather. 1 piece of match. 1 shank button. 1 brass pants button. 2 pieces of chips. 1 piece of wrapped cotton. 3 spools of silk thread. 1 shoe hook.

The Raleigh Chronicle is reliably informed that steps are being taken to organize a strong fruit growing company for Moore county. It is proposed to plant fifty thousand peach trees, thousands of grape vines, and also to cultivate on a large scale other small fruits. Mr. J. Van Linley, the proprietor of the largest nurseries in Guilford county, is one of the stockholders. He is one of the most successful fruit tree growers in the South, his business some years reaching very near a hundred thousand dollars. His father, Joshua Linley, was the pioneer nurseryman of the South and established his nursery about six miles from Guilford and by honest dealing and industry, built up a large business which he left to his son. He originated some fine varieties of fruit but never endorsed any until he gave it through trial. The old gentleman lived honored, and died respected a good old Quaker, and a Jefferson Democrat from the soles of his shoes up.

AS A SCENE IN COURT.

What pathetic incidents occur almost daily in our police courts! One morning a short time ago a woman was arraigned before a justice on the charge of having been found drunk in the street the previous night. When asked if she had anything to say for herself she flushed and trembled, but looked the judge steadily in the face as she replied: "I can say nothing. I forget myself and must bear the consequences. She was fined five dollars, and was not allowed to pay; was about to be conducted to prison when a man, having the appearance of a hardworking mechanic and accompanied by pretty little girl rose in the audience and offered to pay it for her. It was her husband. Hearing his voice, she hid her face in her hands and said hastily: "You must not pay it."

"But we want you at home," replied the man smiling at her pleadingly. "No, you must not pay it," insisted his wife. "Don't waste the money on me use it at home. Buy a new pair of shoes for baby with it. "Please come home, mamma," said the little girl, and the father silently drew money from his pocket and handed it to the clerk of the court. But the woman still protested, declaring that she would not go home, and she would go to prison and it was not until the little girl began to cry and the judge begged her to think of her children that she consented to return. Her husband at length took her by one hand the child by the other, and between them she was led slowly from the court, Oh, the course of intemperance!—Work at Home.

CLOTHING! :- :- CLOTHING! There was a time when ready-made clothing was regarded as worthless. Home-made suits were all the go. But of late that confidence has been restored by offering grades of goods, both in color and in make-up. But few knew how this change of affairs came about. Some would claim it on account of the prosperity of the country. This is partially true but the principal cause is in the fact that THORNTON & CO., the gentle clothes of WINSTON have placed on the market clothing that is more returned or people disgruntled about. It is generally conceded by people in Winston and in Stokes County that THORNTON & CO., BEST CLOTHING FOR THE LEAST MONEY! Our earnest hope and special desire is to please our customers and we know we cannot do this unless we keep as good stock as we have kept in the past. Mr. Thornton is constantly in the North purchasing fresh goods, and consequently no cause for having old goods on hand. We feel truly grateful to Stokes and adjoining counties for past patronage and earnestly solicit a continuance of the same. Hoping our former friends may come in to see us at Clark & Ford's old stand, we are Your Friends Truly, THORNTON & CO.
