S. E. ALLEN.

Many readers of this paper in Stokes and adjoining counties do not know that S. E. ALLEN the leading hardware man for this section of North Carolina is in business, since his magnificent store and mammoth stock of goods were burned. To all such we would say when in Winston a just back of the burnt building on the east side and you will find the same S. E. Allen in a large room with a splendid stock ready to welcome you. He is himself again and will furnish you anything you need in the hardware line.
