DEATH OF WILLIAM COX.

Big Birthday Dinner at Francisco—Other Items and Personal.

Francisco, Jan. 16.

There is a good deal of sickness in this neighborhood, mostly deep colds.

Miss Willie Wright, of Big Creek, visited Misses Emma, Savannah and Esther Beasley Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. William Cox, an old and highly respected citizen of this community, died last Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock. The end came not unexpected, as he had been very sick for several days. Mr. Cox was in his eighty-first year. He leaves a wife and two sons and two daughters, besides many friends and relatives to mourn his death.

A big birthday dinner was given to Mrs. Harrison Nunn, of Big Creek, last Tuesday. A large crowd attended. There were about 200 people who ate dinner at the same time.

Rev. Billy Adkinson preached a very able sermon.

Messrs. Alonzo Ward and wife and Alex Ward and wife have gone to house keeping together.

All of Rev. W. H. Collins' family have been on the sick list the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Collins, J. K. Smith and the youngest child of Mr. W. T. Ward have all been on the sick list the past week, but they are all better now, we are glad to note.

Dr. J. J. Leak, of Asbury, was right sick last week. He was taken sick at Stuart, Va., and came from there to his father's-in-law, Mr. Bill Waller's. We hope he will soon be well and able to attend to the sick again.

Mr. Charles Blansett, of the State Line vicinity, has a child very sick with pneumonia fever. Hope it will soon be better.

Mr. Joe Ward and family visited at W. R. Beasley's, of Brown Mountain, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. They had a rough time for their visit.

Miss Pearl Massey, of Critz, is attending school at the S. N. C. this winter.

Mr. J. Brockley Smith, who has had the blues for the past two weeks is some better.

Mr. Robt. Wimbish was in town Sunday evening. What's the attraction Bob?

As news is scarce I will ring off and come again, soon.

RAILROADER.

To the Public!

We don't wish to insult your intelligence by claiming to sell goods lower than any one else in the county, but we wish to call your attention to our large stock of general merchandise—dress goods of all classes and colors, a special line of broad cloth, flannels, morehairs, worsteds, mercerized silks, bought especially for winter season, hoes in great variety, ready made clothing for men, youths and boys that are made to wear, hats, caps, big line shoes of best makes for ladies, gentlemen and children.

The buyer who goes by us is sure to pay more for his goods than if he give us a look and gets prices.

Thanking you for past favors, we assure you appreciation and right treatment in future.

JACOB FULTON & SONS.

DEATH OF J. W. PRATHER.

Expired At Greensboro Friday—One Of The Leading Business Men of Mt. Airy and Conducted One of The Largest Clothing Businesses in The State.

The rather sudden death of Mr. J. W. Prather occurred at Greensboro Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. He was surrounded by Mrs. Prather and all the members of his devoted family, besides a brother, J. H. Prather, and other relatives, and several friends.

Two months ago Mr. Prather submitted to an operation at John's Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, for an internal affection, since when he had remained at the hospital for treatment except for a few days previous to his death, when he returned home, apparently improved in health. But not satisfied with his condition, on Thursday morning he went to Greensboro for consultation with a specialist of that city, accompanied by his son, Jesse F. Prather. Soon after reaching Greensboro Mr. Prather was taken ill, and on Friday morning his symptoms became so alarming that the family were wired, who came on a special train. At half past three in the afternoon Mr. Prather breathed his last, not having recovered consciousness since Thursday night.

The deceased was one of the leading merchants of Mt. Airy and had conducted one of the largest clothing businesses in the State. He had been very successful, and his affairs at his death were in the finest shape.

The funeral was conducted from the home Sunday evening, by Rev. Mr. Winecoff, of the M. E. church, and was attended by a large number of relatives and a great concourse of friends.

The interment was made at the Salem cemetery, with impressive religious rites and Masonic honors, the deceased being an honored Mason.

A wife and the following children survive: Misses Nellie, Lilla and Josie Prather, and Messrs. Jesse F. and Charley Prather.

CONSENT, VA.

Consent, Va., Jan. 16.

We are having rough weather, and the roads are in such a bad condition it is almost impossible to pass.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Handy.

Messrs. Elmo Marks, Cable Lawson and Cleve Sheppard called in our midst last Sunday.

Were glad to have you call boys. Messrs. Jas. Handy and Hoytt Rodgers called on Misses Lillian and Hester Gunter Sunday last.

Mr. Bass Morris was in our little village quite awhile ago, would be delighted to have you come again.

Mr. Ernest Smith called on one of his best friends a few days ago. Messrs. Robt. and Deshazo Wimbish made a fashionable call on Misses Kate Handy and May Tatum last night.

Miss Mary Lou Tatum is visiting her aunt in North Carolina this week. Cheer up, Grover, she will return soon.

Mr. Ben Mays has left for Rocky Mount where he expects to remain for quite a while. He left several hearts broke, (too sad).

Miss Maggie Tatum is visiting Miss Kate Handy this week.

Mr. Abel Cassel and Miss Daisy Craddock were married Thursday. Wish them a long and happy life.

Miss Lillie Frazier, as her best beau has gone to Danville, is almost heart broken. Cheer up, he will come back.

Misses Julia and Jennie Howell were the guest of Misses Kate Handy and May Tatum Sunday night.

Miss Edna Wimbish spent Thursday night with her brother Mr. Lee Wimbish.

C. R. WALL'S FARM.

Calls It Knowl-hurst—"Mc" Wants to Know Where that Magistrate Lived.

Saxon, Jan. 17.

Mr. C. R. Wall has named his farm Knowl-hurst.

Henry Coon, a young man of about 18 summers, recently decided to try his luck in the wild West, or at least some where in the mountains of West Virginia, so he gave his father "the slip" and got aboard the north bound "free train" at Pine Hall. His father, Mr. T. S. Coon, got an inkling of the young man's intention and when the train drew up at Maydan Chief of Police, Hub Brown, went in and brought the young man out and gave him back to his father.

Now, while, we are perfectly sure Prowler did not mean Beaver Island when he said "one of our back townships," because we claim to be one of the foremost in several respects. We have railroad, telegraph and telephone connection with the outside world. We are close up against the good old Democratic county of Rockingham, and always send up a Democratic majority, and while we admit we are behind in the number of children (as reported by the School Board), we are sure Prowler didn't mean us in reporting his interview with the Danbury lawyer, but we are curious to know whether the J. P. referred to was one of the appointed or elected ones, just that. We don't ask for his name nor his township.

It is now getting late in January and T. J. G. has not yet given us his "early in December" reason for wanting over two thousand names in the jury box. We are sure he has not got a good reason and we accept that as sufficient excuse for the delay, and since the political whirlwind has passed over we hope he sees more clearly, as Judge Cloud did, if not as our County Commissioners now do, in regard to efficient jurymen.

SANDY RIDGE.

Sandy Ridge, Jan. 14.

Mr. Josiah Knight, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is improving, we are glad to learn.

Mr. Matt Newman and Miss Annie Durham were united in marriage last Thursday. We wish them much success.

G. A. Hutcherson, of Bluefield, W. Va., is spending a few days with friends and relatives at Sandy Ridge.

Wonder what has become of Grub, as we haven't seen him in a few weeks. Guess he is going to Widow's of late.

Wonder what has made Jimmie Billy change his route. Instead of going down the road, he is going up the road. Perhaps Miss W-n-e would tell us.

Say, Jonny, what are you looking so sad about, of late? But cheer up old fellow, maybe she will love you yet.

Two of our boys didn't tarry very long at Sunday School last Sunday. Guess their best girls were not there.

Say, Richard, did you go to see Miss O. last Sunday.

PHYLIS.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAINS MERCURY.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
