SALEM.

Salem, Jan. 20.

Mr. Roba Schaub visited Miss Minnie Kallam recently.

We are glad to know that W. T. Carroll, who has made his home at High Point for some time, has now accepted a position with Dr. V. O. Thompson, of Winston.

Miss Mamie Pulliam, of this place, attended a surprise birthday of her father, Mr. B. F. Pulliam, last Wednesday. She was accompanied by Mr. J. A. Gwyn, of Winston-Salem. They report a nice time and a plenty to eat and some to spare. The cake was just fine. We are always glad for Miss Mamie to be invited out for she always brings us a nice box.

Miss Anna Butner was called to her home near Bethania last week on account of her mother's illness. Hope she will soon recover.

I saw in the last list where Mr. Charley Boyles had subscribed for this good old paper. Now, Charlie, give us the news from Slate. We haven't seen anything from there in some time.

Say, what's the matter with you people around Pink? Wake up and give an account of your selves.

We hope Kate, of Pinnacle, does not feel bad over not getting an answer from the old Bachelor. Be patient, Kate, it always takes an old bachelor a long time to decide. But I believe he would have decided before now if you had agreed to make the fires.

SUNSHINE.
