

ROBT. SLATE'S HORSE STOLEN.

The Animal Was Driven to a Point Near Walnut Cove then Turned Loose to Go Home—A Farmer's Tobacco Plantbed Robbed—News Items From Walnut Cove.

Walnut Cove, May 30.—Mr. R. A. Mills, of Winston, visited our town two days of last week.

Mr. Geo. Davis, of Martinsville, Va., spent Monday night at the Bailey House.

A Mr. Tutor, representing some of the leading life insurance companies, spent a day here recently.

Mr. Frank Vaughn, conductor on the Southern railway, who was painfully hurt up near Rural Hall a few months ago and who has been with his people here, left for Greensboro last Wednesday.

Miss Mabel Vaughn, after spending several days in Winston, returned last week.

Mr. J. F. Fulton, of Greensboro, spent a few hours among us last Wednesday. Mr. Fulton remarked that 15 cents looked bigger to some people in Walnut Cove than 15 dollars would in Greensboro.

Mr. Jno. G. Pepper, of Winston, was out selling life insurance and looking after other interests Friday.

Some unprincipled wretch visited the house of Mr. Robt. Slate, of Piney Mt., one night during the past week and stole his horse. The animal was driven down in the neighborhood of Walnut Cove and then back to Wilson's Store. There they unhitched and headed him towards Mr. Slate's. When found the horse was very much worn out.

Mr. Ab McGeehee, of Madison, spent a few hours in our town Wednesday, leaving on the 6:00 o'clock train for Mt. Airy.

Mr. DeWitt Tuttle, one of Germanton's prosperous farmers, was here a few hours Wednesday.

Mr. Charlie Krautz, conductor on the N. & W. railway and a former citizen of our town, was visiting friends at Stokesburg Thursday.

Uncle Bill Wetsch, one of our oldest citizens, was seen on the streets one day recently. He talks seriously about the recent storm, and has quit swearing as a result of the scare. He says it was the hardest wind known during his 81 years existence and that it blew down trees that had never been blown down.

Another life insurance man, Mr. Joe Hill, of Arcadia, was here Friday.

Mr. Jim Tuttle, living near here, lost all of his early tobacco plants. Some cropper took the liberty to draw them for him during the last season.

There was night here Saturday until 10 o'clock. We mean Mr. Knight, selling buggies for the J. H. Hampton Buggy Co., of Leaksville.

A certain young man of our town was bold enough to ask the mother for her daughter before he consulted the girl. He was doubtless a very vain fellow, drawing largely on his imagination.

A mysterious incident was the death of Mr. R. P. Joyce's two tame squirrels. Judging from their actions they must have been poisoned.

Mrs. Ann Rierson ties a red flannel string around the right leg of all her fowls, presumably to ward off rheumatism.

Mr. W. B. Vaughn lost two fine Plymouth fowls the past week. The peculiar thing is they were missed in broad day-light.

Messrs. D. P. Reid, Will Reid, Will Brown, Hugh Heath, O. J. Cates, J. A. Whitten, J. G. H. Mitchell, R. P. Joyce and Jno. G. Fulton are witnesses in the murder trial of Joe Hammons at Winston this week.

The mayor showed good judgment this week in releasing the worthless negro, Will Moore. The negro was convicted of a violation of one of the town ordinances. The fine and costs amounted to $8.00. The first thought of the mayor was to imprison him in the county jail, but later he remitted the fine, releasing the prisoner on condition that he never return to our city without the $8.00. As soon as our city prison is completed we can attend to prisoners in a manner profitable to the city.

Mr. Luther B. Hester was here pricing groceries to our merchants Friday.

Messrs. J. W. Morefield and Luther Mitchell spent a few days last week in Guilford county. Mr. Morefield has already purchased a magnificent home there. His son-in-law, Mr. Mitchell, is looking out for a small farm at same place.

Two religious services were held here Sunday. Rev. Mr. Clark preached at the M. E. Church at 11 o'clock. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Rev. Mr. Berkley preached at the Episcopal church.

Misses Lillian Vaughn and Lola Martin, of Sauratown, returned from Winston Sunday afternoon, where they have been spending several days visiting.

GREAT VICTORY FOR JAPANESE.

Nineteen Russian Warships Sunk and Over 3,000 Prisoners Taken.

According to the latest information, the battle between the Russian and Japanese naval forces for the supremacy of the Oriental seas, on which hangs the outcome of the far Eastern struggle, has begun, if it has not terminated decisively. All the dispatches received point to a Japanese victory, though it is not yet known whether the full force of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's fighting ships took part in the contest, which, according to the dispatches, took place in the comparatively narrow waters of the Straits of Korea. The first information came in a dispatch from the American consul at Nagasaki to the State Department at Washington, telling that the Japanese had sunk one Russian battleship, four other warships and a repair ship in the Korean Strait, and this was followed by a dispatch received by the State Department, the date of which was not given, that the "Japanese government had made the announcement that its fleet had engaged the Russians in the Straits of Korea Saturday and had held them." The State Department also received information that two of the vessels reported to have been sunk were the sister battleships Orel and Borodino, and that three of the other ships were cruisers. From Tsingtau, the German port on the Shantung peninsula, came a report that a running naval engagement took place near the Island of Oki, in the Sea of Japan, 200 miles north-east of the Straits of Korea, and that the whole Russian fleet did not participate, the slow vessels having been sent around Japan. Russian sources give no news of the battle, while the Japanese government, following its custom, is silent as to either the battle or its outcome.

GERMANTON ROUTE ONE.

Germanton Route 1, May 24—I am not a subscriber to your paper but a reader. I enjoy reading it very much. Most especially Dog-Killer's letters. And right here I want to give you my decision. I think Dog-Killer has made a clear case and has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the whiskey business is condemned by the Bible. I think I should forfeit the five dollars as agreed upon, and cheerfully send his name to the Reporter along with many others which we hope to see.

Friends of temperance, let us in this simple way show the world that we are not in sympathy with this monstrous evil that is wrecking the lives of so many and bringing to want so many precious mothers and helpless children. This is my first attempt to write for publication.

Hope to see a long list.

DYING OF FAMINE

is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Ceorfoos, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me. Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc., positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at all drug stores, price 55c and $1.00 a bottle. Trial bottle free.
