Mr. Southern Replies To Mr. Pulliam.

Pink, Aug. 5.

Mr. Pulliam, what did I say in my article of July 20th that give you any grounds to say that I think crime is taught in Sunday School? If crime is not taught by Sunday School teachers you are not one, for any man that can't instruct pupils, the difference in teacher and friend can't instruct pupils carnal things, much less the word of God.

Well, you say I can't say anything against Sunday School for you think you are safe in saying that I never was in Sunday School not even to hear the roll called. Well, I can say that I was in what D. W. Hall and B. F. Pulliam call Sunday School, and O. L. Pulliam was there and I can tell you the first chapter that D. W. Hall and B. F. Pulliam read. It was the fourth chapter of Matthew and the reading was all right, but look out for time to come for the rest. God forbid that I should ever risk myself in hands of Sunday School teacher, yet I think there is seventy-five per cent. of the rising generation risking that for their salvation. John 10-26, "But ye believe not because you are not of my sheep as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice and I know them and they follow me."

His sheep will not follow the Sunday School teacher by the laws of God now for by grace they are saved through faith and that not of the Sunday School teacher, lest they should boast.

F. G. SOUTHERN.

KING ROUTE TWO.

King Route 2, Aug. 5.

Mr. Editor:

Again I ask for a small space in your paper to say a few words that come to my memory now. If I could only recollect half that occurs to me while out on my route, I could write lots more. I am now enjoying the greatest pleasures of the R. F. D. for peaches, apples and other nice fruits are in season and my patrons do not fail to remember No. 2 with such good things to eat. Never shall I forget the way some patrons of my route appreciate the R. F. D. service. They do not neglect to repair the roads when they need it. I'm sure some realize how important it is to the carrier, who has to travel a road six days in the week, to have a road that is kept in good shape. And I'm sorry to say it seems to me that some people only say "oh! well, that boy travels this road every day and he's got so he don't mind it now if it is rough and washed out in gulleys." Yes, certainly we get used to such, but wouldn't there be some change in the sweet bye and bye.

When he started home he had twenty-five cents in his pocket and that was the last quarter; his mother-in-law met him at the door, and that was a total eclipse—he saw stars."
