PIEDMONT WAREHOUSE

For the Sale of Leaf Tobacco.

Established 1875.

TO THE TOBACCO GROWERS OF STOKES COUNTY:

Winston, N. C., Nov. 18, 1905.

We are now selling tobacco higher than at any time for three years past—in fact we are getting old time prices. Our sale today averaged $12.18 per hundred for every pound on the floor. Our sales for the entire week averaged over 10 cents per pound. And there was lots of common tobacco. We have large orders here not represented on any other market within your reach. We have manufacturers here who do not buy on any market except Winston. We also have factories who do buy on other markets, but as a sensible man you must know they buy it enough cheaper, so that it is delivered to them a Winston price, thus making the farmer pay the buying expenses and freight. When tobacco is high you can get fair prices anywhere, but unless you sell at Winston you are certainly losing money and perhaps much more than you think. Can you afford to stand this loss? Come to headquarters and get the top of the market for your tobacco.
Your friends,

M. W. NORFLEET & CO.

A Marriage At Francisco.

Francisco, Route 1, Dec. 14.—The marriage of Mr. S. E. Smith and Miss Ada Martin, two popular young people, was celebrated at the home of Mr. R. E. Smith, Dec. 3. Esq. Emmet Smith officiated. The groom is a prominent young farmer of this place. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Wm. Martin, the celebrated fruit grower, of Brown Mountain.

Mr. Joe Cox seems very jovial nowadays. I saw him pass through here the other day. He had a red headed—wood, one rabbit and two rabbit hides. Guess he was going to Johnstown. He was whistling Ragtime Medley.

Rev. Glidewell will fill his regular appointment at Brown Mountain.

Great Excitement.

A large number of the citizens of the county who are interested in the big voting contest, will be here during Christmas week to vote and work for their favorites. The contest is attracting a great deal of attention outside of the county, and many people at Winston, Greensboro, High Point, Mayodan, Reidsville, Mount Airy, and dozens of places all over the United States where the Reporter circulates, are discussing the affair with interest and speculating on who will win. In some sections of the county the excitement is equal to that of a presidential election.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Almost every day we receive notice from subscribers to change their address and in many instances they fail to give their former address. Very often it is hard to find where they have been getting their paper, and we would be glad if they would always give both their former and present address when wanting us to change their paper from one office to another.

Webster's Warehouse

Madison, N. C.

For the Sale Of Leaf Tobacco

Bob Webster, late of Winston, N. C., Proprietor.

TO THE TOBACCO GROWERS OF STOKES COUNTY:

This is a free country and you have a right to haul your tobacco to Richmond if you choose to do so. But why haul it so far, when by hauling only 10 to 25 miles and by selling with me you can get just as much money for an equal grade of tobacco as you can get on any market in the United States, and run no risk of being run over by trains, street cars, automobiles, etc. We have established this market here as much for your benefit as for our own and surely you are men of too much sense to be misled by the thousands of letters that are being sent out to prejudice you against this market. The question for you to decide is whether you had rather haul your tobacco 35 to 50 miles in preference to hauling 10 to 25 miles for the same amount of money. I tell you plainly I am in a position to get you as much for your tobacco as any market in the world. If it was not so I would not tell you so. We have orders at Madison for the biggest manufacturers in the world who want your tobacco and want it bad and I never go to sleep when I am selling your tobacco. We are getting for hundreds of people who have just sold on other markets and without exception our markets are up to any of them. We are adding fifty new stalls under our warehouse for the comfort of your stock.

Come and give me a trial—I will do the rest. Remember I do not require you to bring any letter written by me to insure good prices.

Your friend,

R. P. Webster.
