

M. W. NORFLEET & CO. PIEDMONT WAREHOUSE

For the Sale of Leaf Tobacco.

Established 1875.

TO THE TOBACCO GROWERS OF STOKES COUNTY:

Winston, N. C., Nov. 18, 1905.

We are now selling tobacco higher than at any time for three years past—in fact we are getting old time prices. Our sale today averaged $12.18 per hundred for every pound on the floor. Our sales for the entire week averaged over 10 cents per pound. And there was lots of common tobacco. We have large orders here not represented on any other market within your reach. We have manufacturers here who do not buy on any market except Winston. We also have factories who do buy on other markets, but as a sensible man you must know they buy it enough cheaper, so that it is delivered to them at Winston prices, thus making the farmer pay the buying expenses and freight. When tobacco is high you can get fair prices anywhere, but unless you sell at Winston you are certainly losing money and perhaps much more than you think. Can you afford to stand this loss? Come to headquarters and get the top of the market for your tobacco. Your friends,

M. W. NORFLEET & CO.

Oyster Luncheon at the McCanless House New Year's Day.

An oyster luncheon at the McCanless House Monday, New Year's Day, was one of the pleasantest social functions of the holidays. The spread had been arranged by the Stokes County Medical Society, which was to meet here Monday, and all the physicians of the county, with their wives, were expected. But owing to the severe weather and much sickness in the county, only a few physicians were present, the occasion nevertheless being a most enjoyable one.

The guests present were: Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Moore, of Smith; Dr. J. H. Ellington, of Sandy Ridge; Drs. W. V. and W. L. McCanless, of Danbury, and Messrs. J. D. Humphreys and Eugene Pepper.

If there was anything in the article in the last issue of the Reporter regarding the disturbance of the negroes here during Christmas, that may have seemed intended to reflect on the officers or magistrates, this paper disclaims any such intention. The article was given merely as legitimate news, and the facts were printed without any editorial mention by this paper, and without any intention to tread on anybody's toes.

Paid To October 4, 1912.

Mr. D. F. Tillotson, of King R. F. D. No. 1, has the honor of standing the highest of any one on the Reporter's roll of honor, having paid his subscription in advance to Oct. 4, 1912.
