HURRAH FOR OLD YADKIN.

The Reporter learns with a great deal of pleasure that at the next meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, Yadkin township will set the pace for progress in Stokes county by asking the commissioners to grant an election on the question of working the public roads of Yadkin by taxation. We believe there is a law allowing a township the right to vote a tax on itself for roads irrespective of its sister townships, and the commissioners are empowered to call such an election without the authority of the legislature, or rather, the legislature has already conferred this right upon the township.

Hurrah for old Yadkin. Rich in good lands, hospitable citizens, up-to-date ideas and pretty girls. May the election carry with an overwhelming majority, and the other townships quickly catching the spirit, old Stokes will walk to the front where she rightly belongs. The old system of working the roads by free labor is impracticable, worthless and absurd. The world is marching on. We cannot afford to lag behind. The greatest tax we are paying today is the mud tax. It is bearing harder on us than all our assessments for bridges, court house, jail, and schools. The man who puts himself up against better roads is unpatriotic and unworthy of being esteemed a citizen of this enlightened and progressive age.

WALNUT COVE.

Our Walnut Cove correspondent told last week of several new enterprises to be established at that place when the weather gets better, among the number a chair factory. We have often wondered why Walnut Cove's business men have not organized a furniture factory. Furniture manufacture is becoming to be one of the most prominent industries of the South. Walnut Cove has excellent advantages for this business. The very best of railroad facilities, within easy reach of the raw material, labor as reasonably-priced as anywhere. A furniture factory is a great stimulus to the trade of a town. Walnut Cove has lots of stores, and her merchants would do well to cast about them for other customers besides the farmers, who have money only at certain flush seasons of the year. Walnut Cove has the nerve and the money to "do things," besides every natural advantage, and the wonder is that she do not get down to business.

PINNACLE AFTER THE M. P. COLLEGE.

The Reporter hopes that the people of Pinnacle will be successful in their efforts to get the new college to be established by the Methodist Protestants. No section of the State is more deserving of the location of the school. Situated in a high and dry locality, well drained, with the best water and the purest air, in view of magnificent scenery, and in a moral atmosphere not surpassed by any community, Pinnacle is an ideal point for a great seat of learning. Let her citizens not desist in their fight until they shall have the assurance of success. The location of the Methodist Protestant college will mean great things for Pinnacle, and will be a distinguished honor to Stokes county and this section of the State.

SIN IN THE CAMP.

Why the Church is Not Fulfilling its Mission—Strong Sermon By Rev. Mr. Albright.

Rev. W. T. Albright delivered a strong sermon at the M. E. church Sunday night on the subject of spiritual inactivity or stagnation in the church. His meaning was in its broadest sense, as this condition, it was alleged, exists to an alarming extent in all the churches.

Mr. Albright read the eighth chapter of Second Corinthians. He took for his text the 17th verse: "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you."

The church is not doing its duty in reaching out after the souls of men, and the cause was attributed to sin in the camp. The preacher strikingly illustrated the situation by recounting the Biblical instance of Achan, a captain of Joshua's army, who on being sent against Ai with 3,000 soldiers, met with crushing defeat. The disaster was a judgment of God sent on the Israelites because of Achan's sin in appropriating the "goodly Babylonish garment," etc. In like manner the church is stagnant and its efforts to convert the world for Christ are ineffectual because of sin in the camp. No church can be spiritually stronger than its average individual membership.

The preacher closed with an earnest and eloquent plea to the members to do their duty.

DALTON.

Dalton, Feb. 12.—Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Phillips are visiting Walnut Cove at present.

Mr. Oscar and Miss Georgia Keiger were in town yesterday. Come again, glad to see you.

Mr. Press Barber and Mr. Percy Smith were seen in Dalton Saturday evening. Wonder what the attraction is with them.

Mrs. Coe and Miss Loucile Cardwell visited Pinnacle Friday and Saturday. Report a pleasant trip.

Miss Lula Shultz is all smiles as Mr. Edgar Spainhower called Sunday evening.

Mr. Ross Hamm and Miss Maud Coe visited Mr. S. M. Goff's Sunday. Report a very pleasant trip.

Mr. Jim Cook has a very sick babe, we are sorry to note.

We are having a fine school at Chestnut Grove under the direction of N. R. Hamm, the best teacher and school any where near. All his scholars love him and delight in going. It is very fortunate to have a good teacher these days. So many are no good and have such sorry schools.

Rev. Mr. Keever filled his regular appointment at Trinity Sunday. A good sermon was heard by a good attendance considering such cold weather.

Mr. Walter Sally and wife started house keeping last week. Wish them much success in their future life.

Miss May Ola is looking quite blue of late. Cheer up, old girl. Mr. Tuttle will return again.

Mr. L. R. Coe went to Rural Hall Saturday night to ride the goat again, I suppose.

KING ROUTE 2.

King Route 2, Jan. 29.—I see in the Reporter of Jan. 25, a letter from "Capella Sport" asking me to tell him how to make our schools better. Now, just with a few lines I want to tell him our experience with schools. In the first place we always let our teachers teach the schools and we do the sending of the children. If they get in a racket we let them get out the best they can. We never go to the teacher with any complaint over trifles especially as trifling a thing as a little courting spree. If our children get a little warm we cool them down with a little shawney tea and send them back to school you see. I would like to ask "Mr. Sport" one question: Who's at the helm in our country—the children or the parents. We as parents should say go and see them move right now and have them to come back at the right time. If the teacher happens to fall off of a log don't roll another one on them, but get them up and see that they are not hurt. If you will follow this rule I think you will have better schools in old Stokes. When I wrote last we had no school nor any sign of any but next day about 5 o'clock a young man Mr. R. E. Faw, from Ashe County, arrived in the neighborhood for the purpose of teaching our school. Next morning the school opened with 30 students. The number is now doubled and the school is progressing nicely under perfect discipline. We hold up the teacher's hands and he holds up the school. With best wishes to the Reporter, I will close.
