

Briefs Adrift.

Mr. J. D. Humphreys visited Dellar Monday.

Mr. Rufus C. Mounce, of Mead-ows, was a visitor here today.

Mr. M. T. Chilton attended services at Davis Chapel Sunday.

Winston's big hotel is expected to be completed in September.

Mr. Jno. M. Taylor, of Winston, spent Monday night in Danbury.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Davis and Mrs. C. M. Jones spent the day Monday at Walnut Cove.

Miss Rachael Moore, of Smith, is visiting Miss Rachael Hollingsworth at Mount Airy.

Miss Claudia Smith, of Francisco, spent several days in Mount Airy last week visiting relatives.

Mr. R. F. Fulk, of Perch, was here yesterday enroute home from a trip in the northern part of the county.

A Primitive Baptist Association will be held at Sardis church near Madison, Saturday and Sunday, 18th and 19th.

Register of Deeds Jones is sending out the tax abstracts to the list takers this week. Get ready to list your taxes.

Almost every one had to replant their gardens this week on account of the frost. Vegetables will necessarily come in late.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Joyce, formerly of Danbury, are entertaining a fine boy at their home in Wheatland, Oklahoma. He arrived last week.

Mr. J. H. Robertson, who has just closed a successful school at Bombay, Randolph county, returned to his home in Stokes this week.

Mr. J. W. Baker tells the Reporter that he has a sow that has produced seven litters of pigs within 2 years, which were sold for $85.

Dr. W. A. Lash is visiting Capt Murphy and family at Walnut Cove. Dr. Lash's health, it is hoped, is improving, but he is yet quite feeble.

Pastor W. T. Albright expects to begin a series of revival meetings in the M. E. church here on Wednesday night, May 23rd. He will be assisted in the meeting by Rev. W. L. Hutchins, of New London, N. C.

Rev. W. T. Albright preached at Davis Chapel Sunday at 11 o'clock and at the M. E. church here at night. Mr. Albright was accompanied by his family as far as Danbury. They returned to their home at Stokesburg Monday.

Rockingham county would have come nearer voting $300,000 in bonds to macadamize her roads if the election had been held during the winter season. The roads are in fairly good order at this season of the year.

It snowed in Tennessee last week, just as Mr. John Will Baker said it would snow in May. He also predicted the frost which was general all over the county last week, biting tender vegetables to death and seriously injuring tobacco plants in some sections.

Sunday, May 6, was Mr. John Henry Fagg's 62nd birthday and he had with him on that day all his children and grandchildren, and all sat down to a good, old-fashioned dinner, and the occasion was one of pure delight to all.

The Reporter received a letter Tuesday from Yadkin township in which the writer stated that a prominent citizen of that township had announced himself as a candidate for county Treasurer, but as the real name of the writer did not accompany the letter, it of course had to be assigned to the waste basket.

Money to Loan to Farmers.

The Bank of Stokes County has money to loan the farmers to make their crops on, on 3, 6, and 9 months time. Any amount from $5.00 up is loaned, on reasonable terms.

Farmers' Association Meets.

The Farmers' Association for Danbury township met Saturday, and a number of new members were enrolled. Some very enthusiastic talks were made by Mr. J. H. Fagg and others.

The next meeting will be held on the first Monday in June, at which time Prof. J. M. Sharp, of Intelligence, has been invited to speak for the Association.

A big crowd from all over the county is expected, and many new members will doubtless join. Prof. Sharp is enthusiastic in the cause of the farmers, and is a gifted orator.

Ice Cream Party Monday Night.

A very enjoyable ice-cream party was given in the Presbyterian church annex Monday night by some of the young men complimentary to the girls.

Among those present were Misses Cora Young, Martha Smith, Fannie France, Mary Shelton, Flora Hutchens, Mary Shough, Hattie Coleman, Mary Martin, Jessie and Blanche Pepper, Mary Joyce, Sadie Petree, and Messrs. Duncan, Petree, Joyce, Dr. W. V. McCannless, Pepper, Martin, Young and others.

Bond Issue Defeated in Rockingham.

Rockingham county held an election Saturday on the question of issuing $300,000 in bonds to macadamize the roads of the county. The opposers of the bond issue proved to be in the majority and Rockingham will have to continue to work her roads in the same old way. However, it is learned that the good roads advocates express determination to push the measure again as soon as the law will permit. The majority against the bond issue was about 400.

Big Interest.

When you buy your fertilizer and pay 50 cents per bag more on time than it would cost you for cash, and get about 6 months in which to pay it, do you know how much interest that is? It is 50 per cent. No wonder the farmers are poor.

If you would save this great tax, call on or write to either of the cashiers of the Bank of Stokes County, Danbury or Walnut Cove.

Not the Right Man.

Mr. D. C. Taylor, of Stokesburg, arrested a negro near his home last week, who was supposed to be Ed Davis, the murderer of Conductor Wiggins, of Salisbury. The negro has been held in jail at Winston since, but it turns out that he is not the right man, and will be released. A reward of $550.00 is offered for Davis.

One Cold and Another

The season's first cold may be slight—may yield to early treatment, but the next cold will hang on longer; it will be more troublesome, too. Unnecessary to take chances on that second one. Scott's Emulsion is a preventive as well as a cure. Take

TO JUMP THE BROOM SOON.

A Certain Couple at Walnut Cove Making Preparations—Another Candidate Out For Treasurer—Personals.

Walnut Cove, May 15.—A Mr. Yarbrough, an employe of the N. & W. Ry. received a very painful (though not a serious) wound yesterday morning while unloading a trunk, the trunk falling on his head cutting a gash about 4 inches in length. Dr. A. G. Jones attended the wounded man.

Mr. L. B. Middleton, while in town yesterday, received a message from relatives in Greensboro that Mrs. Calhoun was not expected to live. Mrs. Calhoun is the mother of Mrs. Middleton.

Mrs. Sterling H. Gentry, of Richmond, Va., is here visiting the family of Mrs. Ann Rierson.

Mrs. J. Wyatt Fulton and children visited Mrs. Fulton's brothers, Messrs. W. B., W. L. and W. S. Vaughn, Saturday and Sunday.

Say, ain't you a candidate for county Treasurer? Chas. Sisk, of Hartman, is the last heard of in these diggings. More expected.

You can go it quietly and talk but little still the people of Walnut Cove will find out the plans of the young people. There is a certain couple in this community that will jump the broom this summer. Guess.

Shall We Allow This State Of Affairs to Longer Exist.

The Reporter is in favor of liberal game laws, but feels it its duty to call the attention of the authorities to the wholesale slaughtering of one of our choicest articles of food in Dan river these nights, and this by men who stand in high positions of trust and who should set a better example. We refer to fish. At this rate the finny tribe is liable to become extinct. The government, which looks after our fisheries, ought to take a hand. Now only last night Sheriff Petree, Deputy Davis and Messrs Dodson and Fry, in all the panoply of war, armed with hideous three-pronged weapons, and with fierce torches a-cracklin' and a-splutterin', invaded the lucid waters of the Dan at Davis' ford and harpooned (rocks and snags) up the stream nearly as far as George's mill, a distance of 40 miles, more or less. Nobody knows how many fish were killed. Of course, people living in the neighborhood of the Seven Island and Buck Island fords, say that as they passed along that region, the giggers had not yet found any game, but were mad and shivering, yet it is known for a certainty that there were at least one catfish and some ten or twelve minnows infesting the waters of Mounce's bluff, and these poor creatures are believed to have met a sad fate at the hands of the cruel men.

Gentlemen, we must rise up and act. This thing must be stopped.

Pulliam-Gibson.

Mr. Luther K. Pulliam and Miss Bessie M. Gibson, both of King R. F. D. No. 1, were married at the residence of Mr. F. M. Eaton on the 13th inst. Elder P. Oliver, of Dalton, performed the ceremony. The contracting parties are both popular young people and their many friends wish them much happiness.

Funerals to be Preached at Flatshoal.

The Reporter is requested to state that the funerals of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Southern, deceased, will be preached at Flat Shoal church on the first Sunday in June by Elder Adkinson and others.

Examination of Teachers.

Supt. of schools J. T. Smith will conduct an examination of public school teachers here on Friday and Saturday, May 25th and 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gales, of Winston, are spending some time at Moore's Springs.
