Master Carl Joyce, of Walnut Cove, is visiting his cousins, William and Robert Joyce.

A private letter from Mr. I. M. Gordon, of Winston, states that he expects to be among us soon.

The Danbury Union Sunday School picnic will be held at Piedmont Springs Friday, June 1.

John Bray, of Mount Airy, eloped with the wife of his brother Milt Bray, to parts unknown Saturday.

Miss Beulah Hardison, of Mocksville, has returned home after visiting the Misses Jones at Walnut Cove.

Mr. Thos. B. Manuel and son Joseph, of Winston, formerly citizens of Danbury, were in town yesterday.

Mr. Hardin Covington, of Meadows, was here yesterday. He told the Reporter that he had finished planting his tobacco crop.

The Rural Hall Veneer Co. closed its doors Monday and all hands assisted the farmers in the neighborhood to set out tobacco plants.

Jess Doss was stabbed and killed by his brother Sam Doss at Ivanhoe, Va., Saturday night. Both were natives of Surry county, N. C.

The series of meetings by Pastor W. T. Albright at the M. E. church are increasing in interest. Rev. W. L. Hutchins could not come to assist in the preaching on account of sickness.

A large crowd will doubtless be at Danbury Monday. The county commissioners will be in session, Mr. L. J. Young will list taxes and Messrs. Graves and Gravelly will speak to the farmers.

Mr. Cary L. Carroll, a Stokes boy, who holds a responsible position with the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., with headquarters at New Orleans, is spending a few days at Winston, and will probably visit his parents in Stokes before returning to his work.

The new Piedmont Warehouse at Winston is rapidly going up. It is a mammoth warehouse, the largest probably in the State. The Piedmont folks are occupying the Star Warehouse temporarily, where they will be glad to see their Stokes friends. See their ad elsewhere.

PINNACLE.

Pinnacle, May 28.—We are having some right cool weather again for this season.

Mt. Will Moser is very busy along now painting and repairing his house, and also buying in furniture. Look out, Mr. Register. Guess he will give you a call soon. Mr. Will Taylor, of Mt. Airy, was down to see Miss Pearl Sunday. Guess the East Bend girl feels somewhat left.

Mr. Charles and Miss Ida are still courting. We think they will soon jump the broom stick. Miss Flaud and Mrs. Herbert seem to have up quite a case. What do you think of that, Miss Grace?

Mr. McCall intends going home Monday. We hate to see him leave very bad. Miss Annie will get her another beau now I guess.

Mr. Robe Davis was heard singing in his sleep:

Any rags,
Any bones,
Any bottles today.

Guess he must have been thinking of the old rag man.
