KING ROUTE 2.
King Route 2, June 10.

We see in the last issue of the Reporter a mistake as to the date of the next public debate. It is on Saturday before the first Sunday in July beginning at 1 o'clock p. m. instead of the first Saturday, and on the night following Mr. James Hutchins, of King, will entertain the people with a grand and excellent show and also two balloon ascensions. Come boys and bring your best girl, admission only ten cents. If you cannot be present for the debating programme be sure and don't miss the show and balloons. All over $3 will be paid over for the benefit of the Oak Grove Sunday School. Refreshments by Smith, Anderson & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gentry will return to the home of R. G. Gentry the 11th, where they will be greatly welcomed by all. Mr. J. J. Gentry is one of Stokes' most prosperous business men, and if you will notice at least one half of Forsyth's leading business men are Stokes county boys.

We notice in last issue of the Reporter that Dog Killer has a piece on the soul of the negro. And in this issue if you will notice you will see that Timothy will try to show that a negro is a beast. We are fearful if they keep trying to superintend God's business as they have for the last twelve months, the hour will come when they will wish that they had been a beast, ground-hog, humble dog or some other speechless animal.

Five rattlers have been killed right recently, and if it had not been so busy a time the farmers might have killed more while passing through.

The people are busy with their wheat and the coming week will be the main time for the harvesting of the golden grain.

Tobacco is looking well as well the grass. Rain is plentiful and the lightning bug is carrying its bright over the tassels of the oorn.

We see Pinnacle didn't come to play ball Saturday. I guess their whiskey gave out while playing Slate Saturday, June 2nd. The reason Slate couldn't do any better it is often said that a fly cannot go into a whiskey barrel. Rural Hall, an intelligent base ball crowd, will be with us Saturday, June 16.

After Slate's and Pinnacle's ball game Saturday Slate missed two balls. If anyone finds them you are welcome to them as they are only made of cotton.

ROUGH AND READY.

KING.
King, June 11.

Mr. Editor:
Will you please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to base ball and pitching horse shoes.

I think pitching horse shoes is all the go at this place. I walked out to the store the other day and, to my surprise, I seen fathers engaged in this play and members of the church. Oh! how sad I felt when I saw this to think we could not tell them from the world. Oh! how sad to think of it, church members. I heard they had made up $8.00 to buy a base ball outfit. If they would only take the Bible and call them together and read the word of God how much better would it look than to get together to play ball and serve the evil one. If you go to them for money for the preacher or the church some will give a little and some will not give anything. How sad for fathers to raise their children up that way. Please turn your base ball to a prayer meeting. Men and brothers hear me, we have to give an account how we serve God in this world. God forbid I should be a stumbling block in any body's way.

"J." TELLS WHY HE HASN'T PAID THAT FIVE DOLLARS.

Walnut Cove, June 11.
Mr. Editor:

By way of an explanation, I would like to ask for a little space in the Reporter for a reply to Mr. "Dog-Killer's" letter in the Reporter of June 7th, in which he states that he has called on us for the $5.00 promised him if he would show where the Saviour ever condemned the manufacture of whiskey, and that we had refused to send it. The promise was made as well as we can remember in June, 1904, and we suppose that most of the readers of the Reporter remember how the proposition was made and how it was accepted, but for fear they do not we would like to make an explanation of both sides as we see it in as few words as possible. During the years 1903-4 quite a lot of controversy was carried on in the Reporter in regard to the whiskey question; most of which was aimed at Walnut Cove, and in some of Mr. "Dog-Killer's" letters we thought he made some very hard and uncalled for remarks about the people of Walnut Cove, which we replied to. Mr. "Dog-Killer" then declared that we were defending the liquor question, where on the other hand we never for once offered even one paragraph in its behalf, but we did make him this proposition: "If you will show us where the Saviour ever condemned the manufacture of whiskey we will send you through the Reporter $5.00." Mr. "Dog-Killer" accepted the proposition and asked all the readers of the Reporter to serve as jurors in the case.

Now as most of the readers of the Reporter remember Mr. "Dog-Killer" was before you off and on for ten months with lengthy arguments, and in the Reporter of May 18th, 1905, he asked for a verdict, and insisted that a list of names be sent the Reporter so that he would know that he had won or had been successful in his undertaking, and he said:

"I shall not ask you to decide the case to suit me unless you think justice and truth demand it; but unless you speak out it will never be known that you are opposed to it, but your silence and influence will count in favor of the whiskey men."

Or as much as to say I'll never know whether I have won the $5.00 or not unless you send in your names.

Now, Mr. Editor, it strikes us that Mr. "Dog-Killer" thinks the jury has been out long enough, and we think so too, because we have never heard of a jury being out over twelve months, and it has now been most thirteen months since Mr. "Dog-Killer" finished his argument and asked for a verdict, and as yet we have never seen a list of names published, and more, we have never seen where any one has declared that Mr. "Dog-Killer" proved his point and should have the $5.00, but now Mr. "Dog-Killer" takes the case in his own hands and comes out and says as no one has proven that he failed, but many said that he proved the point and he thought so himself, why he would call on us to make good our promise and send the $5. Mr. "Dog-Killer" must have thought that not hearing anything from the jury that if he would call on us for the $5.00 in the form of a personal letter that he would catch us napping and we would just send on the money rather than hear any more about it. Then he could come out in an article in the Reporter showing that we were convinced from the fact we had paid the money thereby gaining some notoriety for himself that he fears he has lost by not hearing from the jury. But no; as Mr. Dog-Killer left the matter to the jury and said that he would not ask them to decide the case to suit him unless they thought justice and truth demanded it, why we thought best to do as we have done, wait on the jury.

Now it may be possible that Mr. Dog-Killer did prove the point, and that quite a number of the readers expressed themselves through the Reporter to that effect for we must say that there has been a number of copies of the Reporter since May 18th, 1905, that we did not get to see very closely, consequently if there has been a list of names published why we have failed to see it. Mr. "Dog-Killer" asked all the readers to serve as jurors in this case, but we will not ask him for a report on all of them, but if he will show us where only thirty readers (which is a very small number to what he asked to serve) expressed themselves through the Reporter between May 18th, 1905 and June 1st, 1906, that he did prove the point and should have the $5.00, why we wish to say that the money is still in the bank and subject to check, and that he shall have no further trouble in getting it.

With best wishes for the Reporter and its readers, we are,
Very respectfully,
J.

An Appeal To Farmers To Join the Farmers' Protective Association.
Francisco, June 9.

Mr. Editor:
I feel a desire to speak through the columns of your valuable paper to the farmers of Stokes and as far as the tobacco belt reaches. I want to appeal to them to organize in the Farmers' Protective Association just as soon as possible and help us to stand up for justice and better prices for our tobacco. We will have to abandon making the weed unless we can sell it at an advance to compete with prices on other things that are advancing all the time.

Now, the people around Francisco are in earnest. We closed the meeting this evening with 174 members, and still they come.

It is a perfect shame to see the condition of the poor renter. His wife and children deprived from attending church and Sabbath school for the want of decent clothing, and there is a great cry because the children can't attend the public schools. How can they attend unless they have sufficient clothing and provisions? Some one is responsible for this crime. The Lord intended for the gospel to be preached to the poor as well as the rich, and if they receive no help in no way it is a helpless case. For the special benefit of the poor I make this appeal. Will you stand by us and help us to live. Our loved boys have left home to hunt for a place where they can make a living. A great many more are leaving for the towns and a few old grey haired men and women and children left to raise tobacco at 7 cents a pound.

Now, we don't wish to injure any one. We only humbly beg for a living and clothing for our labor. Now we ask every man to come to our aid and stand up for justice. I would love to see a letter from every farmer's association in the county and hear of every one joining the association.

FRANCISCO LEADS

175 MEMBERS FARMERS FARMERS PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION--R. W. GEORGE BUILDING NEW ROLLER MILL--OTHER NEWS.

Francisco, June 6.

We are having plenty of rain now. People are about done planting tobacco in this vicinity. Harvest is here and wheat is fairly good. People are very busy now working their crops and attending the meetings of the Farmers Protective Association.

Francisco is on a boom and I see where it is right. We have 175 members and will get several more. The farmers of this section have opened their eyes and are fast coming together for self protection and for the benefit of the surrounding country, so they can obtain a living price for their tobacco. The farmers are not organizing against the Trust. They are organizing in order to make the Trust pay them the worth of raising tobacco in proportion with other stuff that they buy. We are not against the Trust.

Rev. R. W. George made a speech to the farmers at Francisco last Saturday.

Rev. R. W. George is building a new roller mill on Big Creek near J. H. Wright's store, which will be an up-to-date roller mill when it is finished.

Mr. Will Hartman has finished a new dwelling house a short time ago on Dan river at what is called the Widow Hill's ford and the new house was struck by lightning a few nights ago and was damaged considerable.

The infant of Mr. Bob Flippin was buried at the Cox grave yard last Saturday.

Dr. J. J. Leak, of Asbury, is erecting a new dwelling house which will be one of the best in the county.
