

HARKINS' HEAD NEXT

EFFECT IN STOKES COUNTY

WILL A NEW COLLECTOR FOR WESTERN DISTRICT MEAN CHANGES IN REVENUE SERVICE IN STOKES?

Washington, D. C., June 20.—President Roosevelt yesterday transmitted to the Senate the nomination of Geo. H. Brown, the Statesville Banker, to succeed Collector Harkins, of the western internal revenue district. Mr. Brown's appointment to this office, which is one of the largest federal jobs in the State, carrying a salary almost as large as that received by members of congress, was made at the instance of Congressman Spencer Blackburn. Mr. Harkins renewed his bond only a few days ago and had no idea of his sudden end.

What the effect of the new appointment will be in your county of Stokes, is a matter of conjecture yet. Whether or not Guager R. F. Fulk, Deputy Collector J. A. Petree, Deputy Marshall Carroll, Commissioner M. V. Mabe and others will hold their positions under the new regime, will probably be given out within a few days.

Spencer Blackburn is now in the saddle with regard to the distribution of Federal offices in the State of North Carolina, and it is pretty generally conceded that he aims to pay off all old scores with compound interest.

PINNACLE.

Pinnacle, June 19.
Editor Reporter:
Dear Sir:

Please permit the following in this week's issue of your paper. We saw in last week's paper a few lines from Rough and Ready, which will endeavor to answer. Now, Mr. Rough and Ready, you said Pinnacle didn't show up last Saturday at Slate Ball Ground. Well, I know we didn't, but the reason we didn't come is because we didn't have any one to play us there. We received a phone message from Hill Top on Friday, June 8th, saying some of their players were sick and they couldn't meet us.

As for the rest of your letter, we do not consider it as being worthy of our notice.

Seward and Pinnacle will play a match game of ball on the latter's ground Saturday, June 23. Everybody is cordially invited to come out and see the game.

HIS FRUIT CROP CUT SHORT

Hailed and Rained All Day May 10 at Garfield—Some Interesting News.

Garfield, Washington, June 9.

Mr. Editor: Ever since I left Danbury I've been a constant reader of the Reporter and carefully noted the many improvements of Danbury, and infact of the whole county. I am glad to note that the whole county seems to be taking on a progressive attitude along various important lines. Let leaders agitate and cause the people to think. All reforms are brought about by agitation. In later articles I shall endeavor to discuss but a single subject in one article and not write in so loose and rambling a manner as I have done before.

If perchance by comparing the methods of our western people with the people of North Carolina, I can be of any service to my old Stokes friends I shall feel amply paid. I do not mean to say that the West is ahead of the South in everything, but in many things the Western man surpasses his brother of the South, East or even central West.

One is not surprised at this when he stops to think that nearly five per cent. of our population consists of people gathered in here from every State in the Union as well as from all foreign countries. The doctrine of the survival of the fittest preserves and puts into general use the best methods and machinery and relegates the less progressive to the shades of the past.

I have been able to teach my neighbors some things; they have been able to teach me many.

Most of our knowledge is gained by comparing our ideas and methods with others and thus we are enabled to do the most work in the easiest and most effective manner.

Late in March we had an extraordinarily cold snap which tumbled old mercury down to zero doing great damage to fall wheat and fruit. But we have one advantage here when our fall wheat is killed we can seed it in spring wheat. I reseeded about thirty acres out of one hundred and fifty. Others did not fare so bad and others fared worse. While we shall have an abundance of fruit of nearly every kind for use yet I consider the crop cut at least fifty per cent. short.

On the 10th of May it hailed and snowed off and on all day, but did no damage. Last winter we had lots of rain and snow which thoroughly wet the land, and late in May we had one of the finest rains ever seen here. So our crops are looking fine and well nigh assured.

I am sorry to note that Mr. Rufus Slate and family returned without paying us a visit. I still think this "Palouse Country" is the cream of all the West. I am sure he would have liked it, too.

Mr. D. C. Slate paid us a visit a month or so ago. His many friends will be glad to hear that in the main his health is good. He is still running a big logging camp down on the Columbia river. He does the logging for a mill that cuts over one hundred thousand feet of lumber a day. That seems a big pile of logs to handle in a day, but there is a mill building twelve miles from here, whose capacity is claimed to be seven hundred thousand feet per day. That will be the biggest mill in the world. The company owns the town which is now in course of erection. It will all be new. Over one hundred houses now in course of erection. No liquors will be allowed to be sold in a radius of five miles. Now this is what I call a practical temperance lesson taught to the country by business men. When this mill commences operations I will visit it again and give you a description of its workings.

I want to let you know what we

STAND FIRM, MEN

A WORD FROM JAS. A. LEAKE

Urges the Farmers to Organize For Better Prices for Their Tobacco.

Peters Creek, Va., June 18.
Editor Reporter:

The Bible teaches that when the wicked rule the people mourn and there has never been a time in my knowledge that that scripture applies to more than at this time; you can hear of mourning on every hand among the poor and laboring class of people and all of that because the wicked rule. What a sad sight it is to go to the warehouses and look at the poor, tired, ragged and ill clad farmer stand and see his whole year's labor disposed of in two or three minutes sold at about one half of its value and gone into the hands of the very class of men that the above scripture refers to for they have full control and rule the entire tobacco market and delight in getting the farmer's labor for a mere song, and now I think it is high time that the people rise in their might and strike a death blow at that tyrannical yoke that has been depressing the people so long. It can be done and it must be done. The farmers must join the Farmers Protective Association, and must stand like a stone wall and it will be done.

We want no cowards in our band,
Who will their colors fly;
We call for valiant hearted men,
Who are not afraid to try.

For united we stand, divided we fall; we are willing for the Trust to make an honest legitimate profit and we beg of them for God sake and for humanity sake to allow us the same privilege. We just want them to stop and think a moment how they are oppressing the poor and depriving them of their honest labor, for God's promise is to the poor and it does look like the Gods of these trusts should also show pity to them. Now in conclusion we want no doubtful Thomases in our organization, but we want men who will hang together like a band of brothers.

J. A. LEAKE.

think of the electric railroad, telephone, the farmer and the bank and labor saving machines and in this I shall not omit the women. God bless them, they are too often overlooked and neglected by the lords of creation. The average man looks with disdain on the labors of the household. He thinks he has done his whole duty if he provides his wife with a few clothes and keeps her supplied with plenty of hog and hominy.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

OSCAR BROWN AND WIFE DIE

WERE STANDING IN THEIR YARD AT BELEWS CREEK MONDAY EVENING WHEN A BOLT OF FIRE KILLED BOTH INSTANTLY.

The storm cloud which passed over Stokes county Monday evening let drop a bolt of lightning at Belews Creek which killed instantly Mr. Oscar Brown and wife, of Belews Creek, five miles below Walnut Cove.

Mr. Brown and wife were standing in the yard when the storm arose, and had no idea of the fatality so soon to be visited upon them.

Mr. Oscar Brown was a son of Mr. Bedford Brown and was about 35 years of age. Mrs. Brown was originally Miss Hester. The dead parents are survived by six children, whose crushing sorrow wins the deepest sympathy of everyone.

PINNACLE.

Pinnacle, June 18.

Mr. Editor:

Please allow me space to say a few words to the Slate ball team. In regard to their "Whiskey Barrel," if there was any whiskey there they had it. They said they only had one ball and that they would not let us play for it. So I guess they lost it in their "Whiskey Barrel."

Well, people are having a nice time resting while it is raining.

Miss Maude did not get the dress. Probably Miss Irene will. Mr. I. N. Hunt is doing some nice painting in Pinnacle.

Mr. Will Shouse and A. J. Ayers killed a large ground hog on the mountain a few days ago. Mr. J. S. Jones killed a large rattle-snake. It had 7 rattles and 3 buttons.

PINNACLE DREAM.

Pinnacle, June 18.

Prof. S. W. Hall returned last Saturday from an extended visit through Tennessee, Oklahoma, Indian Territory and other Western States. He speaks in glowing terms of the country.

Farmers are about done cutting wheat. Crops somewhat damaged by storm last week.

There will be a ball game at Pinnacle Saturday, June 23. The Dosier Team will play our boys. A good game is expected. They are both strong nines.

I wonder how Slate came out with the Intelligent Ball Team last Saturday. They sure need to play with intelligent people and learn something about ball. Hope they will do better in the future.
