Mr. C. A. Mitchell, of Dillard, passed through Tuesday enroute to Moore's Springs to spend a week or two. As Mr. Mitchell did not appear to be suffering seriously with any kind of malady, we take it that other matters besides his health have led this "eligible" young bachelor to the restful famous for its pretty girls.

A demonstration of the stupendous power of lightning was given at Piedmont Springs one night last week when during a storm a bolt struck a large oak near the hotel. The tree was stripped clean of its bark, while its body, probably four feet in diameter, was shivered so that a stick could be run clear through the trunk.

A SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

Miss Fannie Cozart Badly Hurt Near Vade Mecum—Others Slightly Injured.

Special By Wire to Reporter:

Vade Mecum, July 10.—Miss Fannie Cozart, of Oxford, and two young ladies, names not learned, were thrown from a hack by the team running away while descending a hill near Vade Mecum today. Miss Cozart's leg was broken in two places, and her hip joint dislocated. The other two young ladies escaped with slight injuries. The wounded were attended by Dr. R. H. Moresfield, of Vade Mecum.

The cause of the accident, which happened on the Rural Hall-Vade Mecum road, was the breaking of the breast tree of the vehicle. The hack was demolished in the runaway.

KING ROUTE ONE.

King Route 1, July 9. Mr. Editor: On Saturday night before the second Sunday in Aug., at Mt. View, there will be a public debate and a most up-to-date ice cream supper. The query will be mentioned in next week's Reporter. The boys are anticipating a most enjoyable time for everybody and we and all are expected to share the good time in store for them. The speakers are good and will make a display of some of their good oratory that night. Don't forget the time. The champion base ball team of Stokes county, so-called Pinnacle, will meet the heavy giant team of Pink Grove on Slate grounds Saturday, Aug. 14. The game expects to be promising, and everybody is cordially invited to see the heavy hitting team of Pink Grove and the brag team of Stokes pulled off on that day. A general old good game and good time for one and all, come.

SIMON.

Old Soldiers Day, August 4.

The meeting of the Ex-Confederate soldiers at Danbury Aug. 4 bids fair to be the most successful day the old soldiers have yet had. Capt. J. A. Leak is making preparations to have one or more good speakers present—Probably Gov. Glenn or Hon. C. B. Watson. Dr. L. H. Hill, of Germantown, and Col. M. V. Mabe, of Danbury, will make music on the fife. There will be a good dinner provided by the ladies of the county for the old soldiers. Every person who feels an interest in the old soldiers is invited to be present and to bring a basket to help give them a good dinner.

The latest News from Paris, is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. Meadow Township Sunday School Convention.

Germantown, July 9.—The Meadow township Sunday School convention will meet with Friendship Baptist church on Saturday before the third Sunday in August. All Sunday Schools are requested to attend with program, and I suggest that all schools deciding to take a part in the exercises to report at once to the Secretary, Mr. Ollie Pulliam, Germantown Route 1, and as death has claimed our President, T. M. Baker, I also suggest that the Secretary call the executive committee together at some convenient place for the purpose of fixing the hour of meeting, order of exercises, speakers, subjects or any business that claims their attention pertaining to the convention.

BENT HER DOUBLE.

"I knew no one for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at all drug stores; price 50c.

Col. J. M. Galloway, of Madison, was thrown from his buggy by his horse running away a few days since, and quite painfully hurt. He will probably not occupy his cottage at Piedmont this summer, as a result.
