Everybody interested in Sunday School work is invited to be present. There will be some splendid addresses, good music and a dinner in the grove adjacent to the M. E. Church. All who attend are requested to bring along some rations and help feed the crowd.

When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do any thing else. It's nature's way.

VICTIM OF A CONSPIRACY.

Fate and Other Forces Combine to Give the Southern Much Trouble at Germanton.

Germanton, Aug. 20.—There seems to be a conspiracy against the Southern Railway at this point, through fate as well as otherwise. Last Thursday evening the north-bound mail was delayed at Belew's Creek several hours by a derailed box car. When it reached the Town Fork valley, this side of Walnut Cove, it ran into water that covered the lower steps of the cars. When within a mile of Germanton a trestle was so badly undermined that the train had to stand there till 6 o'clock Friday morning fairly well filled with passengers. At 3 o'clock in the morning several lady passengers for Germanton were able to leave the train and walk into the town, much the worse from their night's experience on the rail.

A Party of Twelve Visits the Mountains and Springs.

A party composed of a dozen or more people from Walnut Cove and other places took dinner in Danbury Tuesday on their way to Piedmont and Moore's Springs. They expected to spend the night at Moore's Springs and visit various points of interest on the mountain next day. In the party were the following:
Misses Alice Callum, of Greensboro; Lilla Hill, of Pittsboro; Miss Sizemore, of Clarksville, Va.; Lillian Miller, of Rural Hall; Lula and Willie Hairston and Nina Bailey, of Walnut Cove; Messrs. Cabell Hairston, Jno. C. Bailey, Abe Jones, Pennix Bailey and Jno. Bailey, Jr.

Mr. E. W. Carroll, of Winston, was a Danbury visitor yesterday; Miss Marion Miller, of Dallas, is expected to visit here in a few days.

Dr. B. W. Mebane, of Mount Airy, will fill his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday morning and night. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

The mail man was unable to cross Snow Creek Thursday on account of the high water and we had no mail from Madison that day. This is more evidence of the need of a bridge over that dangerous stream.

The Reporter's columns are always open to those who will write about good roads, schools, saner methods of farming, and everything that tends to development and progress. If you have an idea let the people have the benefit of it.

The Ball Game At Knowl Hurst.
