MR. HUTCHENS LIKES MISSOURI.

Thinks It Is A Much Better Country Than North Carolina—Land Is Cheap.

Ellistown, Mo., Dec. 27.

Editor of the Reporter:

Please find enclosed check for subscription to the Reporter. I cannot do without the paper. I always go to the postoffice promptly when the Reporter is due to get all the news from home.

I have been in this country nearly a year, and am well satisfied. I think this is a whole lot better country than North Carolina. Wages are from $1.25 to $3.00 per day. Uncultivated land where the timber has been cut sells at 75 cents to $1.50 per acre. Timbered land sells from $.50 to $5.00 per acre. Cultivated lands are worth from $7.50 to $15.00 per acre. The best grade of flour sells at $2.40 per hundred; meal, $1.20 per hundred; eggs, 25 cents per dozen; butter, 20 cents per pound; potatoes, $1.00 per bushel; apples, $1.00 per bushel.

This country is very thinly settled. There is plenty of wild game here, red and grey foxes, coons, deer, wild turkeys, squirrels, grey squirrels, rabbits, and some few wolves.

There is not any stock law here and stock raising is a growing industry. Hogs sold last week on the St. Louis live stock market at $5.60 to $6.40 per hundred pounds. Cattle at 4.00 to $7.00 per hundred pounds.

This place is 144 miles south of St. Louis.

The election passed off quietly here in this county (Carter). It went Democratic by 160 majority, while the State went Democratic by 16,000.

I will close for this time, wishing the Reporter and all of my acquaintances a most happy and prosperous new year.

H. F. HUTCHENS.

North Carolina Leads By 18,000,000 Pounds.

The United States government figures for the past fiscal year show that more tobacco of various kinds was manufactured in North Carolina than in any other State in the Union, the number of pounds being 85,000,000. Missouri came second with 67,000,000 lbs. Of the entire 85,000,000 pounds of tobacco manufactured in North Carolina over thirty million were manufactured in Winston-Salem.

Danbury Acquires A New Citizen.

Mr. Tom Petree has procured a goat. Which brings to mind that a goat is by far the most interesting specimen of the animal kingdom. A goat generally makes himself at home anywhere and under all circumstances. He will butt in whether the company be select or not. Caste never troubles his bearded physiognomy. He is no way particular about his diet which renders him less unwellcome than the summer boarder, and was never known to have dyspepsia, which adds good humor to his sagacity. He eats indiscriminately anything from old shoes to plow points. The tomato can is his favorite viand. We knew a goat once that was penned in a lot enclosed with barbed wire fence, with rich juicy grass to eat on. He first ate the fence and then swallowed the lot of grass.

Hail and good-day to Tom Petree's goat. Long may he live to cast lustre on the most intellectual species of his kind, and to keep Danbury's streets devoid of bits of glass, pottery, tinware and bad little boys.
