POOR PAY FOR RAISING TOBACCO.

Cost $960 00 To Produce A Crop Which Brought Only $948 00—Some News Notes From Germanton.

Germanton, Jan. 14.—Prof. E.
N. Helsabeck principal of Rural Hall school, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives near Ger-manton.
The workmen have finished the annex to Sheriff Petree's house.
Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Petree visited Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Petree recently.
Friendship and Corinth spelled again last Friday night. The crosses were 76 to 44 in favor of Friendship, giving Friendship a majority of 32 crosses. There was a large crowd out and the night was fine and all seemed to enjoy the spelling. A few among the number present were Prof. E. N.
Helsabeck, of Rural Hall; Messrs.
G. T. Baker, Henry Hartgrove, Wm. Baker, Bud Baker, F. E.
Petree, Billie Tuttle, Aulins Tuttle, Earl Waggoner, Grover Allen and Sheriff Petree.
We certainly sanction every word "Observer" said in his article last week. His statement is unfortunately too true. I was talking with one of the best tobacco raisers in this section of the county today, and we took his crop for an example. We calculated all the necessary expense one must incur to produce his crop. The gentleman's crop brought him $948.00 and the actual cost to produce his crop—not counting the wear of his land—was $960.00, making the crop cost $12.00 more than was actually received for it.

It is a sure fact that we cannot continue to make the weed, when there is nothing left for us on the cash side of our bank book. And we think it is high time the Stokes farmer was turning his attention to something that would at least give him dollar for dollar, instead of ruining his land, destroying his timber, and making his days shorter by the necessary exposure he must undergo to produce a crop of tobacco.

"LOOKER ON."

Receiver Appointed For Tar Heel Publishing Company.

In Guilford Superior Court last week Judge M. H. Justice, upon application of ex-Judge W. P.
Bynum, Jr., counsel for J. D.
Dorsett, of Spencer, signed an order appointing John Crouch as receiver for the Tar Heel Publishing Co., publishers of the Weekly Tar Heel, which was established in this city a year or more ago.

THE RIGHT NAME.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor, at Fort Madison, Ia., says : "Dr. King's New Life Pills are highly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation.

VADE MECUM NEWS.

A Birthday Dinner and A Sermon—New Mill About Ready For Work—
Other Notes.

Vade Mecum, Route 1, Jan. 18.
—Mr. John R. Morefield, who has been building a grist mill, will have it in operation in a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Huff, of Spencer, Va., are visiting their relatives and friends in this county.
Mr. D. C. Boyles was pleasantly surprised last Sunday when he arrived from Moore's Knob finding a table in the back yard about forty feet long spread with something good to eat, which was enjoyed by all. Some of the boys carried him on the mountain, and it was after 4 o'clock when they arrived back with him. He remarked that it come in a good time for he was completely worried out. Mr. Boyles was 54 years old on that day (Sunday). After the supper was over they gathered in the house and listened to a wonderful sermon preached by Rev. J. E. Simmons.
Messrs. J. G. Coffey and E. O.
Shelton left for Tom's Creek, Va., last week. They say that they are going to the coal fields to work, but they will soon get tired of that job and be back in old Stokes preparing them a tobacco crop again.
Mr. W. L. Hall is building him a new residence, which will cost about $400.
Mr. N. R. Page has removed to Moore's Springs where he will work with Mr. W. G. Moore.

The Specter Of Constant Jealousy.

When a man is afraid to remark at the breakfast table, even mildly and casually, that, from what he has heard, Cleopatra was a beautiful woman, it is fair to assume that the specter of constant jealousy dwells in that household.
When a wife fears to look at the moon because she may be accused of admiring the man in it, the husband needs to be gently reminded that he is taking a very rapid short cut to killing the love he seems to hold so sacred. Love is fed by confidence, trust, faith and serene, restful reliance, but morbid jealousy is a poison of doubt, suspicion and injustice that dulls the love it does not deaden.

Jealousy is a disease that can be cured only by the subject, not by anyone else in all the world. No matter how gentle, kind, forbear-ing, forgiving and forgetting the object of it may be, this in itself will not cure the attacks. The subject whose heart is thus swayed by fierce gales of jealousy must first awaken to the folly of it, the injustice of it; must be conscious of the tried of bitterness and unhappiness it brings to both, must realize the cruel continued assault on the tolerance, love, loyalty and patience of the other, and, when the next attack comes, seek by strength of will, by force of character, by every weapon in the armory of the soul, to kill the feeling. Jealousy must be killed in the thought. In the mind, the battle-ground of the soul, must the fight of extermination be waged. In the thought must the jealousy be neutralized by faith, conquered by justice and transformed by trustful love into a restful, abiding confidence that only absolute proof and certainty of just cause for jealousy can ever reawaken.—Wm. George Jordan in the February Delineator.

Mr. Jas. A. Overby was in town Saturday.

ine Tablets. Druggists refund

GROVE'S signature is on each

Briefs Adrift.

Mr. E. L. Kiser was in town on business Saturday.

Mr. J. R. Forest, a merchant at Dodd, was here on business Saturday.

Mr. R. R. Rogers, cashier of the Walnut Cove bank, spent Friday night here.

Mr. Jas. W. Southern, of Ger-manton Route 1, has recently removed to High Point.

Mr. W. S. Ray returned Saturday from a three week's visit among relatives at Francisco.

Mr. W. T. Tuttle, a prominent citizen of Germanton Route 1, was a visitor at the Reporter office Saturday.

Mr. E. W. Carroll, the popular salesman of the Marler-Dalton-Gilmer Co., of Winston, spent Sunday here.

Mr. R. T. Ray came down from Francisco Saturday, bringing his father Maj. W. S. Ray, who has been visiting at Francisco.

Mr. J. H. Fowler was on our streets Saturday. Mr. Fowler is one of the good farmers and clever gentlemen of Yakkintownship.

Messrs. J. T. Lackey and Zeb Rhodes, of Campbell Route 1, were here Saturday on their way home from Winston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shore from Winston moved to King, Stokes county, last week, where Mr. Shore will engage in the mercantile business.

Mr. John Henry Fagg, a prominent citizen of Peter's Creek township and an enthusiastic worker for the Farmers' Protective Association, visited Danbury Friday.

Mr. P. O. Southern was a visitor here Friday. Mr. Southern is a hardworking and deserving young farmer. He tells the Reporter that he is making preparations for 10 barns of tobacco this year.

The Cove Hotel, recently purchased from Dr. W. A. Lash by Messrs. Rierson & Voss, is being put in condition to open to the public. The Reporter is informed that the consideration in this deal was $1,800 instead of $1,500.

Mr. A. P. Baker was here Friday and reported a great fox hunt in progress near his home. Mr.
Baker says the excitement grew so intense that he told Cephas to mount Mollie and join in the chase. Foxes, he says, are getting quite plentiful again.

Messrs. C. C. Campbell and W.
P. Wright, of Smith, two of our county's best citizens, passed through Friday enroute home from Winston. They report medium grades of tobacco selling fairly well, with tolerably good sized breaks on the market.

The weather report station for Stokes county shows that during last year it rained on 108 days, and that more than 50 inches of rainfall was recorded—that is the water that fell would have covered the land everywhere more than 4 feet deep. June had more than 9 1/2 inches; August was next with 7 1/2, while October had 6 1/2 and January and July each had nearly 6 inches. There was only 134 clear days during the year.

Misses Lola Martin and Viola Scales, accompanied by Mr. Thos.
Rothrock, all of Walnut Cove, visited Danbury Saturday. Miss Martin is the very popular daughter of Mr. J. N. Martin, and was the lady who received the highest vote in the Jamestown Voting Contest recently conducted by this paper. Miss Scales is one of the leading candidates in the Voting Contest now being run by the Winston Journal.
