

DR. B. T. BITTING ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Former Stokes Physician and Pastor of Christian Church Meets Violent Death In Runaway.

News reaches Danbury of the sudden and violent death of Dr. B. T. Bitting at Dunn, Harnett county, last week, who was killed by his horse running away with him. No particulars of the accident have been learned.

Dr. Bitting was well known in Stokes county, where he formerly resided, practicing medicine and preaching at Mountain View. Later he moved to Rural Hall, and from that place he went to Spray, where he became pastor of the Christian Church. Last month Dr. Bitting received a call from the Christians of Dunn, which he accepted. He had been residing at Dunn but a few days, when he met his death.

King Happenings.

King, Jan 22—King has another new store opened up last week and another will open in a few days. It seems that King is on a boom.

The Farmers' Meeting was held here Saturday night. The attendance was large. Quite a large number of ladies out. The speaker was Mr. Gordon Denny and made a very interesting speech.

Miss Elmira Ruby, who has been very sick with pneumonia fever, is some better, we are glad to learn.

Some of our people are already fixing for the County Fair next fall.

Prof. J. T. Smith visited our school last week and all seemed to enjoy his presence.

We raised our North Carolina flag last week. We didn't get it in time to raise North Carolina Day, but it floats over the school house just the same.

Boonville.

Boonville, Jan 21.

Mr. Editor:

Allow a space for a few lines from this section of the country.

The farmers of this section are plowing, preparing for another crop.

Rev. Dawson filled his regular appointment at the M. E. Church Sunday, Jan. 20th. Large crowd in attendance.

Mr. Claud Transue, of Phafftown, was in town on business Friday.

Mr. Lasley, of Winston, employe of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., was in town visiting his sister, Miss Lorena Lasley, who is attending school at the Y. V. I.

Eleven of the Y. V. I. boys attended the singing at Dobbins school house Sunday evening and reported a nice time.

Messrs. C. R. and I. A. Boyles are going to Missouri in the near future to seek their fortune. Sorry to see you leave.

Mr. Jake Jackson gave a magic lantern show at the academy Friday night and after the show was over some mischievous boys carried his show off to the hollow and made a fine display to the oculs. Boys, you must do better.

Messrs. J. S., I. A., C. R. and N. I. Boyles, Roba Davis, J. N. Dodson and others took a walk to the country Sunday afternoon and reported a nice time.

The school here is prospering nicely under the direction of Prof. J. L. Teague, principal. There is about 180 on roll with 75 boarding students.

Miss Minnie Donb, of Boonville, will give a birthday dinner in honor of her daughter, Miss Pearl, who will be 19 years old. A good time is expected.

Rev. J. J. Beach has resigned as pastor of the Baptist Church here, and has accepted a call to the Baptist Church at King's Mountain, N. C. Sorry to have him leave us, but hope he will prosper in his work.

Will close, with best wishes to the Reporter and its readers.

HOW TO CURE CHILBLAINS.

"So enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at all druggists.

The Oak Grove Literary Society.

Oak Grove, Jan. 21.—The Oak Grove Literary Society is progressing nicely, and has a number one evergreen Sunday School with 60 names enrolled. It also has a good singing class. Mr. Voss has been teaching a singing at Oak Grove, and he will sing there on the first Saturday and Sunday in February.

The Oak Grove Literary Society gave a public debate Jan. 18, and each speaker selected his own subject. We have never seen anything on this plan before, each side were numbered, one and two and captains appointed. I will give the names of each speaker and their subjects:

NO. 1.

W. W. Edwards on Charity.
W. L. Smith on Unjust Tariff Taxation.

T. B. Smith on Farming.

NO. 2.

G. W. Smith on Neglect of Duty.
J. C. Tillotson on Character.
R. L. Boyles on The Value of Time.

The speakers made a lively discussion after which the judges rendered a verdict in favor of No. 1.

In these subjects the Bible negligence and church members was well represented. The society gives a public debate every Friday night. The subject for Jan. 25, is resolved, that the use of tobacco is a greater evil than strong drinks.

The speakers on this subject are as follows:

Affirmative—T. B. Smith, W. L. Smith, W. W. Edwards, R. R. Smith, Samuel Smith.

Negative—Gaston Gentry, J. C. Tillotson, G. W. Smith, R. L. Boyles, T. E. Smith.

The subject for February is, Resolved, That Commission of Crime is Worse Than Omission of Duty.

Everybody is invited to come out and hear the discussion.

J. C. TILLOTSON, Pres.
R. L. BOYLES, Sec.

Gillard.

Dillard, Jan. 21.—We are sorry to note that Mr. George Isom is real sick and has been for several days.

Miss Jennie Isom is looking very sad as her best fellow has gone to Roanoke, Va. Cheer up, Jennie, he will return some old day.

Mr. Tebe Knight called on Miss Jennie last Saturday and reports a pleasant time.

We are going to have a spelling match at Isom's school house Friday night, Dec. 25th. Everybody invited and a good time expected.

Mr. J. E. Ferguson called on Miss Amanda Flinn Sunday morning.

Miss Annie Flinn is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Jennie Isom. Guess they are having all grades of fun.

Death of Mr. W. W. Johnson—Tribute By His Pastor, Elder P. Oliver.

William Wade Johnson was born May 21st, 1835, and died on January 19th, 1907, aged 71 years, 1 month and 27 days. He was married September 25th, 1856 to Susan Leak. They lived together 50 years, 3 months and 23 days. Their union was blessed with 8 children, 4 sons and 4 daughters, all of whom are living. He leaves 21 grandchildren living and one dead. He leaves a large circle of relatives and friends outside his own family to mourn their loss. He was baptised into the fellowship of Mt. Olive Baptist church November 8th, 1888, and lived a consistent member of the same, attending his meetings promptly as long as he was able to do so. He took an active part in church work, was willing and active in bearing the pecuniary expenses of the same. He bore his affliction with patience and was resigned to the Master's will, saying "it was God's will and that it is all for the best."

His funeral service was conducted from Mt. Olive church by Elders. R. W. Crews, J. T. Smith and P. Oliver on Sunday evening the 20th in presence of at least 500 people. His remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.

May the Lord bless and comfort the aged widow and bereaved children.

May all the dear family so live and serve the dear Saviour, that at last there may be a glorious reunion in Heaven.

P. OLIVER.

Items From Pinnacle Route 2.

Pinnacle Route 2, Jan. 18.—We are having beautiful weather and very warm for this season of the year.

There is a singing class at Chestnut Grove taught by Mr. Andy Voss, of Mt. View, and are about 30 boys and girls in the class.

Mr. Squire Edwards and sister, Miss Margaret, spent Sunday at Mr. C. C. Boyles'. Guess Mr. Charlie appreciated his company, as he would not leave home until Miss Margaret left.

Misses Rilla and Eliza Gordon spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Lucinda Edwards.

Misses Roberta and Grace Wall spent Saturday night with Miss Elsie Gordon at Pinnacle.

There was an apron party at Mr. Rufus Boles' Saturday night. Mr. Cyrus Keiger won the prize. Good for you, Cy.

It is expected that Mr. Ed Lane and Miss Eva Edwards will jump the broom very soon. We wish them good luck.

ROSENBACHER'S

WINSTON, N. C.

Schnapps Tobacco is Made ENTIRELY from Flue Cured Tobacco Grown in the Piedmont Country. The Imitation Brands Have Schnapps Quality Only On the Outside Of the Plug

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps tobacco. The outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured the same as Schnapps, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco. One chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco. The color, size and shape of the tags, plugs and packages of certain imitation brands of tobacco have been made so much like Schnapps that they have often been accepted by buyers under the belief that they were getting Schnapps. Sufficient proof has been secured to establish the fact that certain brands are infringements and in violation of the trade mark laws, yet the trade will continue to be imposed upon by these infringers until the suit already entered and now pending to protect Schnapps is decided. A great many of these imitations are claimed to be "just as good" as Schnapps, but there is only one genuine Schnapps. Be sure the letters on the tag, and stamped on the plug under the tag spell S-C-H-N-A-P-P-S and then you have it—the most wholesome tobacco produced, with just enough sweetening to preserve the mild, juicy, stimulating quality of the leaf tobacco. Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers.

If the tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy you more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco. Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps sold at 50c. per pound, in 5c. strictly 10c. and 15c. plugs.
