OAK GROVE.

Oak Grove, July 2.—Oak Grove will give a public debate July 6 at 3 o'clock p. m. The speakers are preparing their speeches to interest the public. Everybody has a cordial invitation, especially the ladies. Refreshments will be served by S. K. Anderson, Smith and Wall.

Mr. Voss will be with the Oak Grove choir on Sunday July 7. Everybody invited to come out and bring their dinner and have a jolly old time.

The Primitive Baptists held a meeting at Capella on the 4th Sunday in June. A large crowd of good old brothers and sisters passed this way enroute to the meeting. Mr. John Boyles was baptized at Mr. C. H. Lunsford's mill by Revs. Stone and Mickey. Mr. Boyles is sixty-six years old, and has been a life-long Republican, and as the Primitive Baptists believe in Democracy, he has decided to take up his cross and east his lot with them. He says he believes that they are God's elects. He can tell more about his faith in 1908.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Long, who has been very ill for some time with heart trouble and dropsy, is improving. Drs. Woltz, of Pilot Mt., and Tillotson, of King Route 1, are her physicians. The people of that section say that Dr. Tillotson is one of the leading physicians of the state.

Mr. G. W. Smith and family visited the sad home of Mr. A. S. Marsh Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Bony Smith and family visited relatives at King Sunday.

Misses Jennie, Mollie and Nellie Bennett, of Germanton, are visiting relatives here this week. SCRIBLER.

MADDOGS AT WESTFIELD.

Mr. Jim Cook Attacked By One Of the Rabid Animals—A Mule, Two Cows and Eighteen Dogs Bitten.

Maddogs have been rampant in the Westfield neighborhood. County Treasurer A. F. Christian tells the Reporter that Mr. Jas. Cook was bitten twice in the foot and leg by one of the rabid animals. A mad stone has been applied to the wounds.

The same dog that attacked Mr. Cook also bit a mule, one or two cows and about 18 dogs. Many of the dogs which were bitten have been killed.

Death Of Mr. J. D. Tatum.

Mr. J. D. Tatum, probably the oldest citizen of the Wilson's Store section, passed away at his home Sunday afternoon. Some two months ago Mr. Tatum fell and broke his arm and before it hardly began healing he broke his hip bone, and from that time he continued to grow worse until the end.

The deceased was a well known and highly respected citizen. He was in his eightieth year. Several sons and daughters besides other relatives survive him.

Bitten By A Spider.

Mrs. Ruth Nunn, widow of the late Thomas Nunn, who resides just east of Danbury, was bitten by a bottle spider last Friday, from the effects of which she has since been seriously ill. It is learned that she is some better now.
