Mrs. Wm. Neal, of Pine Hall, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Fagg on Danbury Route 1.

Messrs R. R. Rogers and Abe Jones, of Walnut Cove, spent a few hours here Tuesday night.

Elder J. A. Fagg, of Danbury Route 1, will preach at Five Forks, Va., on the second Sunday in August.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McGehee and children returned to their home at Madison Tuesday, after spending two weeks here.

Mr. Jesse H. Prather and family, of Mount Airy, are expected at Piedmont Springs today. They will occupy a cottage.

Mr. J. F. Wright, of Prosperity, W. V., is visiting his people in Stokes, over near Pinnacle. Mr. Wright's father is right sick.

Mr. J. B. George, a prominent citizen of Quaker Gap township, was in town on business Monday. Mr. George expressed himself as much pleased with the prospects for a fine crop this year.

Mrs. T. R. Pepper and children, of Winston, who had been spending several days here with the family of Mr. N. A. Martin, left Monday in response to a telegram announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Pepper's mother, Mrs. M. E. Liipfert, of Clarksville, Va., early Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Stockton, of Winston, who are spending several weeks at Piedmont Springs, visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Taylor, here Sunday, also attending church at four o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Stockton is a member of the well known firm of Huntley-Hill-Stockton Co., the big furniture dealers of Winston and Greensboro. Mrs. Stockton was formerly of our county, being a daughter of the late Mr. Bony Vaughn. There are no better people than this excellent family.

134 Potatoes in One Hill.

A gentleman who was here Thursday told the Reporter that Mr. Henry Rodgers, a good farmer up on Campbell Route 1, last week dug 134 Irish potatoes out from under one vine in his patch, none of them being smaller than a hen egg. Who can beat that growing Irish potatoes?

A MASQUERADE PARTY.

Given By the Visiting Young Ladies At Piedmont Springs On Last Thursday Night.

One of the most enjoyable occasions that has taken place in this section for quite a while was the masquerade party given by the visiting young ladies at Piedmont Springs last Thursday night, between the hours of eight and eleven o'clock, in the ball room at that place.

Those in attendance were attired in costumes of every conceivable kind, each one wearing a mask so that you were entirely ignorant as to who was who. The scene in the ball room was indeed ghost-like, almost making one's hair stand on end. But soon masks, etc., were put aside and the remainder of the evening spent in various amusements, chief of which was dancing. Col. Jno. M. Galloway, who always delights in such tasks, led in the square dance and the Virginia reel, enabling those who participated to execute some very pretty figures.

What was by no means an unimportant feature of the occasion was the serving of the most delicious refreshments.

Excellent music was furnished throughout the evening by the Nelson-Bennett band.

Everyone felt very much indebted to the ladies for an evening of such genuine pleasure and amusement. Among those who took prominent parts in giving the party were Misses Ada and Minnie Allen, Minnie Ross, Ellen Norfleet, Laura Noell and others. They were by no means unfamiliar with the art of entertaining.

THE N. C. PRESS CONVENTION.

The Meeting At Morehead Last Week—One Of the Pleasantest In the History Of the Association.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina Press Association was held last Wednesday and Thursday at Morehead City. These gatherings of the quill-drivers are always occasions of pleasure and benefit. This one was especially so. Morehead is an ideal resort. The sailing, fishing and surf-bathing are fine, not to be excelled anywhere on the Atlantic coast. The Atlantic hotel is under excellent management, and throngs of people in the search of comfort as well as health and rest, from all sections of the State, frequent its delightful precincts.

At the meeting of the Association valuable information and useful knowledge were coupled with charming social features. We had the pleasure of listening to able addresses by Mr. J. P. Caldwell, editor of the Charlotte Observer; Mr. Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer; by Messrs. R. M. Phillips, Archibald Johnson, and other distinguished and accomplished members of the press-fraternity.

Congressman Small, who is a very learned and graceful speaker, delivered an address on his inland waterway scheme, and showed what a great thing this project will be not only for eastern North Carolina, but for the Piedmont and western sections of the State in the great reduction of freight rates that it will guarantee. Congressman Chas. R. Thomas also addressed the convention, while Prof. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, treated the audience to one of his usual inspiring talks.

It has been a long time since we enjoyed an occasion more than the Morehead reunion. There we found many old friends, and made lots of new ones. The social features of the meeting were varied and delightful. Fishing parties and visits to points of interest such as Beaufort, Fort Macon, etc., generally occupied the days, after the business meetings had adjourned. At night the sound, a beautiful sheet of water several miles in width, was alive with the sailing boats and gasoline launches, loaded down almost to the water's edge with men and women. Many a midnight found us far out on the bay, some times having passed through Beaufort inlet and into the bosom of the ocean several miles, drifting in the embrace of a fine breeze. Some splendid voices were always in the crowd, and music added to the delights of the occasion.

New officers elected by the Association were as follows: President, Archibald Johnson, editor of Charity and Children; First Vice-President, M. L. Shipman, editor of the Hendersonville Hustler; Second Vice-President, J. E. Carson, editor of the Alleghany Star; Third Vice-President, Peet, J. A. Robinson, of the Durham Sun; Orator, James H. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen. Of course the Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. J. B. Sherrill, of the Concord Times, was re-elected. Mr. Sherrill is universally popular with the members of the Association, and it couldn't get along without him.

PINNACLE ROUTE 2.

Pinnacle Route 2, July 23.—People are about through laying by their crops in this section, and they are looking well.

Mr. T. J. Thore is doing some fine work with his threshing machine this season.

Wishing the Reporter much success.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country fire-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.

THE CHARMING WOMAN

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman, is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed by all Druggists 50
