Whatever the croakers may say, there is no use denying the fact that Stokes county is blessed with one of the best crops in her history. Wheat turns out splendidly, oats the same, corn is looking fine, and the tobacco crop is a beauty. Such a crop bids defiance to all the panics in the world.

Mr. W. L. Hall, of Vade Mecum, was here last week. Mr. Hall brings the cheering news of big and fine crops in his neighborhood. Mr. Hall's individual wheat crop was 145 bushels yield. He has 57 bags of guano under his tobacco, and is expecting some of the "long green" next fall.

Mr. T. W. Gentry, a Stokes boy, of the firm of Gentry Bros., Winston, is spending a few days at his old home on King Route 2. These Gentry boys are sons of Mr. Raleigh Gentry, which is enough said for them, meaning that they are whole souled, honorable and high-toned.
