By The Danbury Reporter's Special Correspondent.

Walnut Cove, Sept. 23.—The merchants of our town are daily receiving their fall stocks of goods. We hope the people of the county around will remember that when a dollar is left in their home town they have a chance to reap some benefit from it again. There is nothing so patriotic as to see a people trying to build up home enterprises.

The work of the coal mine is being pushed rapidly to the front. Mr. W. T. Brown, one of the men chiefly interested, was in town Saturday.

Work on the cotton mill at this place is expected to begin soon.

Mr. Nat Hedgecock tells us that he could have shipped ten cars of brick last week if he could have secured the cars. It is a great pity that our enterprises are thus tied up. The roads should be made to furnish cars to haul the freight, it seems to us.

Mr. Ed Carroll, representing the firm of Marler-Dalton-Gilmer Co., was in town Thursday.

Sheriff Petree passed through town Thursday. The Sheriff had been to carry the boys who were engaged in the Fulp shooting affair to trial.

Mr. J. A. Petree returned to his home Friday. Mr. Petree has been at Conway, S. C., for the month or two buying tobacco.

Mr. W. J. Martin spent Sunday night and a part of Monday in our city.

Our solicitor, Mr. Graves was here today on his way to attend court at Danbury.

Rev. W. T. Albright filled his regular appointment last Sunday. The Methodist use the Baptist church until their house is completed.

The ball game between Walnut Cove and Sandy Ridge was largely attended. Neither side did any star playing, although it was a very good game, until near the last when a very sad and serious accident happened to one of our townsmen, Mr. C. T. Willis. The score was 22 to 14 in favor of Walnut, as follows:

Walnut Cove,.....134220550
Sandy Ridge,.....002061203

The game would have been enjoyed very much if it had not been for the terrible misfortune which befell Mr. Willis.

George W. Fulton has come back and is now with J. A. Payne in the shop repairing and horse shoeing business at Walnut Cove, N. C.
