REPORTER NEWS BUREAU. Walnut Cove, N. C., Oct. 2.— Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Beck, Miss Lisa Sue Poindexter, Miss Fannie Davis, Miss Alice Hill and Mrs. and Mrs. R. L. Tuttle, all of Ger- manton, passed through town to- day enroute to the Jamestown Exposition. They will be gone about a week.

Mr. R. L. Tuttle, of Germanton, and Miss Inez Grimes, of Indiana, were united in marriage at Ger- manton Monday. Miss Grimes was at Germanton on a visit for several weeks, when she was cap- tured by Mr. Tuttle, one of the promising young men of the Ger- manton section. She is an ex- cellent young lady, and Mr. Tuttle is to be congratulated.

Dr. W. A. Lush, of Greensboro, was here last week looking after some of his extensive property in- terests. We are glad to see the Dr. looking so well.

A piece of crepe was found hanging on the door of a certain young bachelor yesterday morn- ing. There have been no deaths in the family, and various spec- ulations are rife as to the meaning of the incident.

Mrs. Oscar Petree is visiting at Germanton.

Messrs. W. J. Martin and J. A. Petree have recently returned from South Carolina, where they have been buying tobacco. They say that the tobacco crop of the South, which is nearly all sold, averaged about 12½ cents. Our farmers should feel good over this, for the South Carolina to- bacco is not to be compared to the rich weed of the Piedmont section of North Carolina.

Mr. Lathe Knight, one of our best farmers, was in town yester- day on business at the Bank. Mr. Knight carried a load of tobacco to Winston this week for which he received an average of 15 cents.

Mr. Chas. Powell and wife, of Pine Hall, were in town today on their way to Danbury. Mrs. Pow- ell was formerly Miss Flinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Flinn.

Misses Claudia and Estelle Rierson attended the Tuttle- Grimes wedding at Germanton Monday. They report a most pleasant trip.

Andrew Moore, a hardworking and deserving colored man of the Meadows neighborhood, has been very low with appendicitis, but at the present is recovering.

An infant of Mr and Mrs Ernest Gibson, two miles north of here, died last week.

A series of revival services, to be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilson, assisted by Rev. Dr. Smith, of Westfield, will begin in the Baptist church here next Sunday.

The new brick M. E. Church at Stokesburg is nearing completion. Messrs. Douglass and Witt, of Pilot Mountain, did the work. The church will be quite a hand- some structure.

Mr. J. A. Petree visited Wins- ton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Burton expected to leave for the James- town Exposition Tuesday, but on account of the indisposition of Mrs. Burton the trip was post- poned until Friday of the present week.

Dr. R. L. Flippin, of Pilot Mt., was a visitor in our town last week.

Your correspondent has inter- viewed a number of farmers re- turning from the Winston tobacco market this week and they one and all report that tobacco is sell- ing at satisfactory prices. They say that the Winston buyers are hungry for the weed, and that they are paying for it. One gentleman told us that while the finest grades are not as high in proportion as the more inferior sorts, that common tobacco is bringing about three times as much as it brought last year, and that the crop is weighing very heavily, too.
