Sow Only Good Tobacco Seed.

Only the largest and best pods of tobacco should be selected for seed, and even these will contain a few small, light seed that should not be sowed, as they would produce weak or sickly plants. They should be separated from the good, large, heavy seed, just as we separate the small, light grains from our seed wheat. In fact, there is a greater difference between the good and bad tobacco seed than between the good and bad grains of our seed wheat. In the case of the wheat, all of the grains are sufficiently large for us to see or detect the difference between the good and bad grains, and we have been screening out the bad grains and sowing only the best, so there has been a gradual improvement in the wheat, while in the case of the tobacco all the seed are so small the average farmer has failed, by the unaided eye, to see the difference between the good and bad seed, and has been sowing them all along together, so he has little, weak, sickly, slow-growing plants from the bad seed, and good, strong plants all growing together in his field.

Irregular planting or spacing of the tobacco on the land, cut-worms, etc., are other factors in bringing about a lack of uniformity in our tobacco; and the farmer must guard against all these things as much as possible if he would realize a paying profit on his labor in tobacco growing.

A GIRL'S WILD MIDNIGHT RIDE.

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wilmington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

FOR LITTLE LEE COUNTY

Issues $100,000 In Bonds and Will Build Eight or Ten Good Roads Across the County.

Sanford, N. C., Jan. 15, 1912.

At the election held last week in Lee county for good roads a bond issue for $100,000 was carried by about 400 majority. On account of the extreme cold weather, the ground being covered with snow and ice, the people of Sanford had hard work to overcome the opposition in the southeastern end of the county. The good roads advocates are jubilant over their success, which they claim will enable them to build eight or ten good roads across the county. The town of Sanford will also improve its streets, arrangements having already taken shape in this direction. Under the act of the Legislature providing for this bond issue the county commissioners will call another election at their next meeting for the election of a highway commission which will have charge of the road construction.
