

Young Girl of Sixty-Three Years of Age, Advertises For Husband.

Rocky Bluff, N. C., 875 W. Liberty St.

Hello boys: Here I come as it is leap year, advertising for a husband. I am a young girl of 63 years, so you see I am getting old enough to marry. I am a small lady weight 280 lbs., I am 7 feet tall, have a blue eye and a black one, have black hair and fair skin. I have 10 sisters and 5 brothers, and I am given up to be the best looking one of them all. Boys if you don't believe it come to see for yourselves. I can do any kind of work in the field. Pap says I am the best hand to plow he's got, but I can't do no kind of house work much, but I am young and can learn yet. Ma says she will work in the field this summer and let me stay at the house and do the cooking.

Well, I guess you boys will want to know what I have got towards house keeping. I have a nice willow rocking chair, but it is broke down, I have a nice eight day clock but it hasn't run any in 30 years, have two plates and did have two teacups and Sallie Ann broke one of them. I couldn't eat or sleep for a long time it troubled me so. Ma said if I wouldn't grieve so she would buy me another cup when I married, why she told me that she didn't think I would ever marry. She will find out, if I can get some sweet old boy.

I had a pig too. The fifth Sunday in February Polly Ann's best fellow called and Ma killed my pig. I have three quilts but the lining and padding is gone. I had yarn pieces to piece me another one and the moths eat them up. I had a big 10 pound feather bed and put it out to sun one day and the wind blowed it away.

Ma has an old long handle skillet, her grandfather give her that he found just after the flud. She said she was going to give it to the first one of her children that got married. Hurry u, boys, I want the skillet.

I will close hoping to hear from some sweet little boy about my age through the Reporter. No old men need not write and flirts had better save their stamps as I mean business.

Hoping to be yours in the future.

Lovingly, BECKY ANN BUNKER.

Some Health Proverbs.

- "Closed windows are open avenues to consumption." "Strong drink makes weak men." "No good growth without exercise." "Modern city life may build fortunes, but it breaks health." "A clean tooth never decays."

SUNSHINE AND Scott's Emulsion

are the Two Great Creators of Energy Energy means power—power to work, to think, to throw off and keep off disease. Get all the sunshine you can, and take Scott's Emulsion regularly. It will give you strength, flesh and vitality.

Be sure to get SCOTT'S—it's the Standard and always the best. ALL DRUGGISTS 11-19

"First aid to the dyspeptic—a good laugh."

"High living develops low vitality." "Breathe deeply; the more you expand your chest the less you will contract colds." "For your baby's sake, nurse it. You can't improve upon God's plan." "Dirty air is death." "The Civil War killed 205,700 in four years; consumption kills 800,000 in four years in the United States; if 'war is hell,' what is consumption?" "What will it profit a child to gain the whole curriculum, if it loses its health?" "A child's curiosity concerning sex is normal, pure, and necessary for mental and moral development. Satisfy it with chaste ideals." "Begin early to prepare the next generation for parenthood." "Better a year too early than an hour too late." "The only night air that is injurious is last night's; open the windows and let it out." "Mothers need to be protected against exposure, overwork, dissipation, venereal diseases, stress and strain of every kind; and they need to be taught how to nurse their children, and how to feed, clothe, and bathe them properly."—From the Chicago Child Welfare Exhibit.
