

LOCAL NEWS

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Pastor T. J. Folger will preach at the M. E. church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rothrock, of Walnut Cove, spent some time here this week. Mr. Rothrock had a suit against the Southern railway at this term of the court.

Mr. H. M. Saunders and family, of Winston-Salem, are expected at Piedmont Springs next week, where they will occupy their cottage for the summer.

Mr. John William Baker, who resides four miles south-west of Danbury, is desperately ill and not expected to live. Dr. W. V. McCannless is attending Mr. Baker.

A party of the Danbury young people expect to go on a hay-ride to Hairston's ford bridge on Dan river Saturday. They will carry lots of good things to eat and have a picnic on the bridge. A great time is anticipated by the young folks.

Rev. T. J. Folger requests the Reporter to state that he was unable to reach his appointments last Sunday on account of high water.

Messrs. A. J. Fagg and Julius Young will conduct a store at Piedmont Springs the coming season, handling a general line of merchandise. They expect to open up June 1st.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Walter Neal, of Meadows, have returned from a pleasure trip to New York, Baltimore, Washington and other northern cities.

Mr. J. O. Ragsdale, cashier of the Bank of Madison, accompanied by Mrs. Ragsdale and the children, are spending some time at the McCannless Hotel here in the interest of Mr. Ragsdale's health.

Mr. J. P. Covington, of Pinnacle Route 2, was a visitor at the Reporter's office yesterday. Mr. Covington is one of the Reporter's very best friends and has been a subscriber to the paper ever since its birth, which was forty years ago last February.

Mr. Wiley Mabe, of Danbury Route 1, told the Reporter Monday that the excessive rain Sunday night injured land to a great extent in his section. He also stated that the Dan had completely ruined much of the bottom land along the river near his home.

Mr. J. C. Flinn, of Pine Hall, who was here Monday, reported that Dan river did extensive damage to the land along the river in the Pine Hall section. Most of the land had been planted in corn and was freshly broken. Mr. Flinn stated that the Dan liked four feet being as high as it was in March of this year.

The Democratic primaries for county officers will be held May 18th. There is no opposition to the nomination of Locke Craige of Asheville as the party's candidate for Governor. The fight in North Carolina for delegates to the Democratic national convention is between Underwood and Wilson.

RANGES AND KITCHEN UTENSILS

can always be purchased to the best advantage at our store. If you are starting housekeeping you should not fail to examine our stock and prices. If you are already established you will find here many things you need. The Washington range we sell at $26.50 is something every housekeeper will appreciate.

W. O. CROTTIS,
Cor. 6th and Liberty Sts.,
Winston, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce visited Winston-Salem this week.

Mr. B. Frank Pulliam, of King, attended court here this week.

Solicitor S. P. Graves, who has been attending Superior court, returned to his home at Mt. Airy yesterday.

Col. W. A. Blair, Vice-President of the People's National Bank of Winston-Salem, is attending the civil term of Stokes Superior court.

Messrs. L. S. and V. T. Grabs, J. S. D. Pulliam, J. R. Hutchens and Oscar Caudle, of King, are attending court this week.

Rev. Chas. B. Austin, of Spray, is expected here next week to spend several days and will probably preach one night while here.

Among the attorneys attending court here this week were Messrs. Jones, Buxton, Johnson, Hall, of Winston; Haymore, Folger and Carter, of Mt. Airy; Messrs. Jno. A. Burton, J. R. Voss, R. P. Joyce, Minnish and Will Wheeler, Polk Doggett and other Walnut Cove citizens attended court here this week.

Capt. Johnson, a popular conductor on the N. & W. Railroad between Winston-Salem and Roanoke, is here attending court this week in the interest of his company.

Messrs. P. W. Davis and W. P. Wheeler, agents for the Southern and N. & W. railways, respectively, were here this week attending court as witnesses in the interest of the railway companies.

Mr. T. J. Covington, a former Stokes boy, was here this week a day or two. Mr. Covington has been teaching at Trinity the past year and has been very successful.

Mr. R. L. Haymore, of Mount Airy, was among the attorneys in attendance at court here this week. Mr. Haymore is prominently mentioned by his friends as the next candidate for Congress from this district on the Republican ticket.

Brim.

Brim, May 13.—The Booster Club met in their hall Thursday night and arranged matters for their entertainment, which they will give soon.

Mr. F. P. Stone lost a fine milch cow recently.

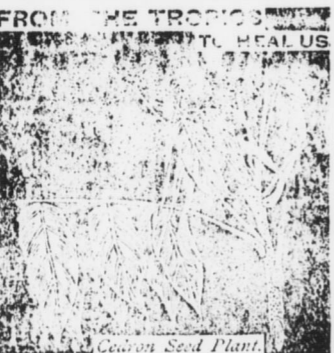

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Chilton, of Westfield, visited at Mr. B. A. Neal's Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Joel Tilley, of Pilot Mt., has moved in his new residence near Mr. Aaron Tilley's.

Mr. Tom Tilley, who has been in West Va. for the past month, has returned home.

Miss Lilly Hollingsworth visited her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jessup Monday.

BROWN EYED KID.

FROM THE TROPICS...
In Central America many natives are gathering the seeds of this plant, Cedron Seed, a rare medicine that has valuable curative powers. But few drug stores carry this seed, owing to the high cost of the article.

This country is a large consumer of this costly seed because it enters into the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna, sold the world over.

Campbell, May 13.—The farmers of this section are not through planting corn on account of so much rain.

Mrs. J. W. Corn, who has been right sick, is thought to be some better.

Services were held at Peter's Creek Sunday as usual.

Mr. Sam Taylor called to see Miss Sadie Pringle Sunday.

Miss Gladys Lackey is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin.

Several of the boys and girls of this section expect to attend the association at Spoon Creek, near Critz, Va., next Sunday.

Mr. Wesley Pringle called at Mr. J. W. Lackey's Sunday.

Mr. P. H. Linville, of Walnut Cove, accompanied by Miss Ruth Pringle visited Miss Alpha Simmons Sunday.

Mr. Homie Moore visited Miss Lena Martin Sunday.

Messrs. Gabe Hylton and Percy Sheppard called to see Misses Delia Martin and Gladys Lackey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Spencer expect to move to their new home this week.

Mr. A. T. Overby, the photographer, is at Cawsonville.
MARTHA JANE.

Oak Grove News.

Oak Grove, May 13.—The people of this section are not through planting corn but have begun planting tobacco.

We had a very heavy rainfall here last Saturday, causing much damage to the land by washing, and also washing the railroad trestle away. The old people say that the water was the highest that it had been in twenty-five years.

Mr. J. H. Dorsett, of Pinnacle Route 2, went fishing the other day and the fish not biting fast enough to interest him he fell asleep and pretty soon rolled into the creek and came very near drowning before his partner could come to his rescue.

Mr. T. M. Lawson is standing on the streets of Pilot Mountain smoking cigars and selling fertilizer, as usual.

SCRIBBLER.

Spend Your Vacation at

PIEDMONT SPRINGS Season Opens

June 15, 1912

The most delightful reasonably priced resort in North Carolina.

For rates and literature address

PEPPER BROS., PROPRIETORS.

'Piedmont Springs, N. C.

THE GORRELLS OF Farmers Warehouse Winston, N. C.

Smash all records for this season in selling tobacco.

They sold Wednesday, January 24th, their entire sale, 32,281 pounds for a total of $4,934.19, making the highest average that has been made in Winston this year, $15.30. This is easily accounted for.

'Bob' and 'Pete' are fine judges of tobacco, and they are in a better position to do more for their friends than ever before. If you want a big average and a high sale, let the GORRELLS DO THE WORK FOR YOU. THEY WILL OVER PLEASE YOU AND THEN SOME.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

I have purchased the livery business of Mr. Perkins and will continue the business. I now have on hand a lot of stock for sale and will either sell or swap. Be sure to call around to see me when you are at Stuart.

JOHN. S. DeSHAZO

STUART, VA.